

JACKSONVILLE City Offices Combined

By BETTE HOSKINS
Jacksonville — Mayor E. O. Graham announced last week that the positions of city recorder and treasurer have been combined and that city recorder Mrs. Jean Hewlett will hold both offices with daily hours from Tuesday through Friday from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. and on Saturdays between 8 a.m. and noon at the city fire hall.

The change is effective July 1. The city council expressed appreciation to Mrs. Ray Coleman for her many years of devoted service as city treasurer. Water bills will be payable at the fire hall office at the hours mentioned with the Drug Store no longer a collection point after July 1.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sullivan and son, Jerry, of Old Stage road will leave this week end to attend the Centennial Exposition and visit relatives in Portland and spend the remainder of the week visiting along the Oregon coast at Seaside and Newport.

Mrs. Fred Edens left this week for Norfolk, Va., to visit her mother, Mrs. Zinnia Vaughn.

A recent visitor at the home of the Fred Edens was George Edens of Chicago, Ill.

Last week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Coleman were Mrs. Coleman's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ed French, and their granddaughter, Betty Motschenbacher, of Royal City, Wash. French was a former resident of the valley. Also visiting at the Coleman's last week end was Mrs. Coleman's sister, Mrs. Bell Crawford, and her grandson, David Olexer, of Tulelake, Calif.

Clinton Whitney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Whitney, of Medford, is home from Jacksonville, Fla., on a 15-day leave from the Navy. He and his parents were guests at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Pearl Whitney, for dinner Wednesday evening. The Lloyd Whitneys were former residents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Young spent last week end in Portland attending the Centennial Exposition. Their daughter, Susan, spent the week end in Brookings with a group of friends.

Robert Winghamam and son, Mark, of Mt. Vernon, Wash., arrived this week to visit in the area.

Robert Winghamam Jr., and family of San Francisco have also arrived for a visit in the valley with relatives and friends.

News items for this column may be called in to TWINOAKS 9-1209 or write box 38, Jacksonville. New residents are especially urged to call.

Oldtime Minstrel Show Is Scheduled

Springfield — "Springfield-or-Bust" is the title given an oldtime minstrel show being produced by a little theater group, the Williamalane players. Evening performances will be on stage July 17 and 18 in Springfield during its Oregon Broiler Festival. Mrs. Ted Jorgensen, minstrel show producer, said.

Mrs. Jorgensen said that the company will give a performance also in Eugene under sponsorship of the Eugene Centennial committee July 24.

State Forest Closures Ordered

Salem — UPI — The State Forestry department has ordered into effect the first closures of state forests for the summer effective July 1.

Ted Maul, forest protection assistant, said the closures involve four state forest areas in Klamath county where an entry permit would be required.

Maul said the closures were routine as forest areas dried out in the summer.

Most forest areas will be open at least through July 4, Maul said.

Through June 15, a total of 89 fires were reported on state lands. The blazes covered 740 acres including 400 acres of forest land in the Applegate country of Southern Oregon.

ATTENDS PEACE TALKS

London — UPI — Norman Cousins, editor of the Saturday Review, talked with leaders of the Soviet peace committee in Moscow about "eliminating atomic threat," radio Moscow reported. Cousins, a leader of the American National Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy, is visiting Russia.

Portlander State Fair Chairman

Salem — UPI — Ursel Narver of Portland has been elected chairman of the Oregon State Fair Commission, succeeding Lee Eyerly, who resigned for reasons of health.

Narver was appointed to the commission by former Gov. Robert D. Holmes two years ago and is the only hold-over member of the board.

The commission voted to raise gate admission from 50 to 75 cents from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. to compensate for a drop of $30,000 in sales of exhibition space caused by the competition of Portland's Centennial Exposition.

Trumpeter Louis Armstrong was scheduled to appear during the last four days of the fair, but fair officials said another star may have to be found because of Armstrong's current illness in Italy. They are negotiating for comedian Jimmy Durante.
