

Pay Boost Favored By Sawmill Workers

Portland—UPI—A spokesman for the AFL-CIO Lumber and Sawmill Workers union said Saturday the hourly pay increase of 20½ cents won in recent negotiations is getting an overwhelming approval in referendum voting among members.

The pay hike is being favored by union members in both the fir and pine belts of the Western states, he said. The new contract of which the pay raise is a part is for two years.

HORNBROOK Drill Team Wins Prize

By KATHERINE CHAPMAN
Hornbrook—The Vaquerias, Hornbrook's girls mounted drill team, took first prize, a blue ribbon, as the most colorful drill team at the eighth annual Junior rodeo in Montague last Sunday. Competing with the Vaquerias were the Grenada Horsemen and the Montague Lancerettes. Captain of the Vaquerias is Lula Belle Whitten, and team members are Penny Barnum, Linda Blankenship, Gerry Elmore, Donna Spearin, Darlene Spearin, Jeannie Cardoza, and Janet Ferguson of Hills.

Drillmaster was Laura Paine, a job taken over by Jack Wayne when the Paines moved early this spring to Ft. Jones. By means of cake sales which the girls held from time to time during the year, they raised the money themselves to buy their outfits which include red riding pants, white shirts, white hats, and white saddle-blankets. Their colorful flag, of red and white felt and satin with white silk fringe was made for the Vaquerias by Mrs. Laura Paine.

At the ball Saturday evening, the new rodeo queen, Miss Diane Fehlman of Ager, received her crown from last year's queen, Miss Patty MacKinnon of Hornbrook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John MacKinnon. The rodeo was judged the best held to date, and the largest crowd ever to assemble for the annual affair witnessed the two-mile long parade, and the other events held at the rodeo grounds.

Members of the 1949 graduating class of Yreka High school held a reunion dinner and dance Saturday evening, June 13 at the Empire room in Yreka. Attending from Hornbrook were Alfred McCann, Ernest Pickard and Glen Shinar, Louis Vages, who lived in Hornbrook at that time, also was present from Los Gatos, Calif.

Mrs. Grace Quigley returned Tuesday after a week spent in Eureka, Calif., with her cousin, Mrs. Frederica Martin.

Pvt. Leonard Bear returned home Saturday, June 20, for a week's leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bear. Erwin Bear drove to Ft. Ord on Friday to bring his brother home. Mrs. Doris Nowaczyk made the trip north with them to visit for a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Madison. Another of the Bear boys, Arnold, and his wife of Corvallis, Ore., came down over the weekend. Leonard is leaving June 28 to drive back to his new post at Ft. Belvoir, Va.

and Mrs. Harold Shaw and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moy and children all of Hayward, Calif. Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Shaw, and Mrs. Moy are cousins.

Mrs. Norma Pickard entertained at a barbecue dinner at her home on Monday honoring her son, Pvt. Carl Pickard. Guests were his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Shinar and three children, his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pickard and two children, and a friend, Ralph Bennett. Pvt. Pickard is leaving on Friday to spend five days in Los Angeles, before returning to his base at Ft. Rucker, Ala.

Mrs. William Thomas and three children, Bill, Christine and John, came over from Yreka Saturday and stayed overnight with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Killingsworth, while her husband and older son were attending a Boy Scout Camporee at Cecilville, Calif. On Sunday they were joined for dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Middleton and two daughters of Hills. Mrs. Middleton is a sister of Mrs. Thomas. On Thursday, another daughter, Mrs. Leonard Alphonso and children Violet, Jolee, Tommy and Jean Marie, spent the day with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Orson Coleman returned Tuesday from a weekend business trip by train to Oakland, Calif. On Thursday last week, the Colemans drove to Ashland to visit Phil Dozier. Dozier underwent major surgery June 1 at the Ashland General hospital, and will remain in Ashland until the first of the month, when he plans to return to his trailer home in the Coleman's yard.

Arriving on Father's Day for a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Breceda, were her brother and sister-in-law and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Conley and children, Larry, Anita, and Donny. The Conleys, from Berkeley, Calif., were on vacation and had been south for a trip through Disneyland. En route north, they stopped at Sacramento where Conley's mother, Mrs. Ellena Conley, joined them and came on to her daughter's with them. The Don Conleys drove to Medford Wednesday for a visit with his aunt, Mrs. I. C. Daley. They planned to return to Berkeley on Friday, and Mrs. Ellena Conley will remain for a longer visit here.

A picnic at Spring Flat camp on the Scott river was held Father's day by Mr. and Mrs. William Wiley, her son and daughter-in-law, Mrs. and Mrs. Bob Russell and daughter, Diane, of Roseville, Calif., and Bob's half-sister, Roberta,

Five Accidents Reported to Police In City Friday

Five traffic accidents were reported on Friday by Medford police. Four citations and one case of minor injuries resulted.

George W. Jasper, 25, of San Leandro, Calif. suffered bruises Friday night when his motorcycle hit a traffic divider and flipped over. Jasper, who was visiting friends, told police he was driving about 20 miles an hour while looking for a street sign when he hit the divider, which he had mistaken for a yellow line.

He was taken to Sacred Heart hospital, where it was found that no bones were broken, and he was released.

Two citations were issued in a three-car no-injury accident Friday morning on north Central ave. south of 3rd st. William R. Padgett, 345 North Central ave., was cited for following too close and Betty E. Agee, 124 Lincoln st., was cited for no operator's license on person. Padgett's pickup truck struck the rear of a second car, which in turn struck the rear of the Agee vehicle, police reported.

Defective Brakes
A citation was issued to Orville Ward, 15B Newtown st., for defective brakes after her car struck the rear of another vehicle Friday morning at the intersection of Jackson st. and Central ave, police said.

A citation was issued to John B. White, Klamath Falls, for making an improper left turn from Riverside onto sixth st. In turning, he struck the front of another vehicle, police said.

Albert M. Watson, 109 Laurel st., Medford, damaged the left front fender of a parked car while backing out of his driveway. He said he applied his brakes when he saw the car, but it was too late to avoid hitting it. No citation was issued.

of Los Angeles, all of whom are visiting at the Wiley home. Also in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lindi of McCloud, parents of Mrs. Russell. A brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lange and Greg and Ellen of Yreka, and another sister and her children, Mrs. Victor McAllister and Bruce and Edward. Mrs. McAllister and the boys are guests of the Lindis, en route from their home in Texas to join Mr. McAllister in Alaska where he is attending the university.

Mr. and Mrs. George McCann and Mr. and Mrs. John Rosenberg visited Crater lake on Sunday.

NAVY PLANE ATTACKED—A Navy P4M Mercator patrol plane (inset lower right) reported it was fired on by two Communist jet fighters while on a routine patrol over international waters near the North Korean coast (see cross). The plane was damaged and its tail gunner seriously wounded, but the pilot was able to bring it back and land at an Air Force base in Japan.

Quotes From the News

By United Press International
Washington—President Eisenhower, in a call to the steel industry and the United Steelworkers union to continue contract negotiations without a strike:
"Acceptance of this suggestion, I am sure, will be in the interest of the steel workers, the steel companies and the public."

Rangoon, Burma—Alexander U. Kaznachey, explaining why he was defecting to the west from his position as information officer at the Soviet embassy:
"My first reason for renouncing Soviet citizenship is my strong desire to take part in the struggle against communism."

New York—State Department interpreter Edward B. Rock, whose 24-year-old wife was stabbed to death in a New York subway by a teen-age girl who said she was desperate for money.

"New York is a jungle. My family has lived in New York for 35 years, but I'm going to bury my wife outside New York."

Ferriday, La.—Gov. Earl Long, commenting on his battle against being committed in a mental institution:
"I believe the experiences I've been through will make me a more humble man, and I'll be in a position to realize the predicament of a lot of poor people stuck around these institutions with needles stuck in them."

Medford Man Jailed On Burglary Charges

Ted J. Daily, 22, of 544 Effie st., Medford, is being held in the Jackson county jail on charges of burglary, sheriff's officers reported Saturday.

Daily was arrested early Saturday by state police on charges of burglarizing a Butte Falls store. Beer was taken, but the state police do not yet know how much, officers said Saturday. Entry was made by breaking a front window.
