

Area Men Assist With Projects For Convention

Among the many volunteer ministers who will assist in the organization of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society assembly convention scheduled next month in Eugene will be Fred Pearce, 315 Wilamette ave.

Pearce, an associate minister with the Medford congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses will work in the sign department, it was reported. About 385 different signs will be used at the assembly to identify the various departments, direct visiting delegates, and for other purposes.

More than 1,000 volunteer ministers will operate 21 different departments for the convention July 9 through 12 which will be attended by 5,000 delegates from Oregon, northern California and southern Washington.

Rights Denied
Last week the Medford and Central Point congregations learned that the Jehovah's Witnesses in Argentina had been denied their constitutional rights of free assembly and worship, according to T. R. Thompson, the local congregation's presiding minister.

R. C. Groshong, presiding minister of the Central Point congregation, said that in spite of many liberal advancements made by the present Argentine government that ousted the dictatorial Peron regime, a few non-Catholic religious groups that were declared illegal by Peron have yet to be recognized.

POLITE VISITOR
New York - (UPI) - Mayor Robert F. Wagner passed the diplomatic buck Sunday when Soviet Deputy Premier Frol Kozlov told Wagner he understood New York City had the most polluted air in the world. "We can't be responsible for the air that drifts over from New Jersey," the mayor replied.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A SALESMAN called on the firm of Straley, Morgan, and Carnegie and asked to see Mr. Straley. "He's tied up," explained the receptionist. Asking for Morgan, he was told he was out of town. So it seemed, was Carnegie.

Next day he called again, and asked for the three partners in the same order, only to elicit precisely the same replies from the receptionist.

When it happened a third time, the salesman grew suspicious. "There's something very fishy about the fact that every time I come here," he complained, "Morgan and Carnegie are out of town, and Straley is tied up."

"Nothing fishy in the least," countered the receptionist hotly. "Mr. Morgan and Mr. Carnegie have to go out of town very frequently—and every time before they leave, they tie Mr. Straley up."

A fetching young blonde fetched a bottle of imported perfume back to a Fifth Ave. shop for credit. Her complaint: "I don't care for the men it attracted."

Woman Rescued From House Fire

Portland - (UPI) - Firemen rescued a woman from a blazing house here early Sunday.

The woman, Mrs. Clara McPherson, 57, became trapped in her bedroom adjacent to the front room of her home which was aflame.

The fire, which firemen said was caused from smoker's carelessness, was reported by a neighbor, Walter P. Brown.

Mrs. McPherson had tried to rise from the bed and had fallen on the floor. Her position below the heating line was credited with saving her life, according to firemen.

Firemen Walter Nasmyth and Lt. John Mattson entered the house. Nasmyth crawled to the woman and Mattson broke a window for an exit. The two lifted her through the window and carried her to safety.

She was revived with a resuscitator. Her injuries were minor.

Damage was estimated at $2,500.
