

Cycle Wreck Fatal To Klamath Man

Klamath Falls (UPI)—Scott Hartley, 23, Klamath Falls, one of two men injured late Sunday when their motorcycle went out of control two miles east of Lake of the Woods, died Tuesday night in Klamath Valley hospital here. State police said the accident happened when the motorcycle driven by James Salyer, 26, went out of control on a curve, and skidded 200 feet along the shoulder. Both men were thrown from the motorcycle. The two were found by Forest Service personnel who summoned help. Salyer was treated for minor cuts and bruises and released. Hartley was brought to the hospital here unconscious. He was a former student at Oregon Tech and had hoped to return to the school as a coach.

Dangers of Second Marriage

As a physician, I wish more widows — especially widows with a little money in the bank — knew how dangerous it is to marry again. Time and again in my practice I see women who have gotten into terrible trouble because they did not have the would-be second husband investigated a bit before they married him. Many a time, when I have said to a very unhappy woman, "Why didn't you have your lawyer or your bank get a rating on the man before you married him? Why didn't you find out a little more about him — whether he had a job, whether he was an honorable member of the community, or whether he was honest and willing and able to work, or whether he was usually sober? Why didn't you look into these things before you married?" Usually the woman's answer is, "Well, doctor, when you love a man you don't think of investigating him. That would suggest distrust."

I remember a widow of 50 who was head of a fashionable girls' school in the East. She had on her board of trustees some very prominent men. Then along came a man who made violent love to her and represented himself as a wealthy oil man from Texas. She yielded to his blandishments and married him. She said nothing about this to her Board, and planned to keep the marriage secret, if only because her name was so important to the school. Within a week after her marriage, she discovered that the man didn't have a cent or a job. He was a good-for-nothing who had married her to live off of her. Worse yet, he had two good-for-nothing sons who also intended to live off of her. When she refused to hand over money, the husband threatened to blackmail her and cause such a scandal as to ruin her and the school. For a while she paid hush-money, but under the strain she went to pieces nervously and that is how I happened to see her. When I found out what her basic trouble was, I made her go to her Board and confess, and then, with the help of a good lawyer, and his friend, the Chief of Police, they got rid of the scoundrel.

Hives Over Skin

Another nice woman, a widow and a school teacher of 45, came to me with big hives all over her skin. I found that they had appeared when, after marrying a man who had represented himself as a well-to-do physician who would make life easy for her, she promptly discovered that he was too psychotic even to get a practice, and had married her to live off of her.

Because of her shame and reluctance to make public her folly, she kept quiet and supported the man until her annoyance with him caused her to go to pieces nervously. Fortunately, her son was a lawyer, and when given permission to go ahead, he soon got rid of the man.

Non-Surgical Method Cures Hemorrhoids Painlessly

A relatively painless, non-surgical method of treating hemorrhoids (piles) is working therapeutic miracles for thousands who suffer from rectal and colon disorders. A recently developed electronic treatment is proving more effective than surgery, with none of the after effects of surgery. The treatment requires no hospitalization or confinement. Patients show marked improvement almost immediately, and uncomplicated cases can be frequently corrected in as little as 10 days.
