Quotes From the News

By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL
Memphis, Tenn.—Police Chief James C. MacDonald, explaining why police have less trouble with drunks during hot spells:
"Who needs whiskey. This weather would knock anybody out."

Montgomery, Ala.—Gov. John Patterson, on the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People:
"There is no room in Alabama for such an organization. They should stay in New York where they came from and stop kindling the fires of racial hatred in the South. They should do their agitating somewhere else."

New York—Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, welcoming members of the Lions International in convention here:
"The appeal and strength of your organization lies in your great objective of service to the communities and the world in which we live."

Cairo—President Gamal Abdel Nasser, reaffirming Egypt's ban on Israeli shipping in the Suez canal:
"We shall continue to proceed on our course whatever the consequences may be."

Garry Moore TV Show Season's Most Improved

By WILLIAM EWALD UPI Correspondent
New York—(UPI)—Garry Moore and his CBS-TV crew, all of whom embarked on a hiatus Tuesday night (in TV no one takes a vacation—a hiatus is considered much classier), can lay claim to one title: most improved new show of the past season.

The Moore hour started somewhat uncertainly last fall, but after a switch in production brains, its innards began to congeal. Perhaps Tuesday night's closer managed to homogenize some fairly sophisticated material in a solution of shoes-off hominess and it did it artfully. The hour opened with a repeat of its medieval pageantry number, a charming slice of taffy, went on to a really complex arrangement of "It's All Right With Me" unfortunately mis-handled by singer Vic Damone; offered the Mello-Larks and some of the Moore cast in a delightfully wacky roundelay; and capped this with a really rousing hula hoop dance.

The hoop dance was snuffed a bit by the accidental spilling of a plate of hot dogs on the dance area, but in a way, this sort of typhoid the whole air of the Moore show—a sprawl of frankfurters among a thicket of ballet slippers.

Show on Tape

Next season, Moore will return with a slight shift in emphasis: His hour will gain for more humor and it will shift from a live show to a taped one. More humor, I welcome. Tape, I dunno. Tape will make it possible to ring in guests who otherwise could not appear at night, but it also will make it possible to erase boobies. That means no more hot dogs on the dance floor. And frankly, I shall miss them.

EXECUTIVE DUTIES

London—(UPI)—Member of Parliament Reg Moss said Tuesday he will take up with the air minister the complaint of a constituent in the Royal Air Force. A cadet pilot wrote Moss that the RAF is wasting his engineering and physics degrees. He's been assigned, he said, to examine the grass and pull any extra-long blades out of lawns.

New York City is headquarters for 42 of the nation's major mining companies and for the Society of Mining Engineers.
