

Don Jordan, Challenger Drill Hard

Portland (UPI)—Champion Don Jordan and challenger Denny Moyer continued rugged workouts today in Portland as they rounded into shape for their July 10 world welterweight championship fight at Portland Meadows.

Moyer's manager Sid Flaherty Tuesday called the 4-1 odds favoring Jordan "ridiculous." Flaherty said Moyer had less trouble beating Caspar Ortega than did Jordan before the champ took the title.

Moyer, in his sparring sessions, has shown new power in clouting his sparring partners with solid shots rather than the jabs and hooks of his usual style.

Home Run Pays Off in NWL Tilts

United Press International Power paid off in Northwest league play Tuesday night and for references there are the Tri-City Braves and the Wenatchee Chiefs.

Wenatchee took Eugene 6-4 and Tri-City nipped Salem 2-1 and in each case it was the home run punch that got the job done.

Wenatchee and Eugene were knotted at 2-2 in the top of the sixth when Mike Yaremchuk stepped to the plate with the bases loaded.

He belted one out of the ball park and that was it. John Orsino of the losers had a two-run homer in the second.

Tri-City got one run in the first frame on three singles and then got its eventual winning run in the fourth inning when Jerry Clifford launched his eighth homer of the season.

Bill Griffith went the route for Tri-City and held Salem to four hits to take his second win of the year.

Lewiston got out in front with three runs in the first inning on a three-run homer by Chico Heron and went on to top Yakima. Bob Sutton went the route to post his eighth decision of the year.

Charley Smith of Yakima hit a solo homer in the fourth inning.

Yanks Lose Events at Helsinki

Helsinki, Finland (UPI)—American world record-holders Bob Gutowski and Al Cantello were outclassed Tuesday in the concluding events of a two-day international track and field meet.

Gutowski, of La Jolla, Calif., failed to attain his usual 15-foot-plus leap in the pole vault as European champion Eeles Landsgroem of Finland won the event at 14 feet, 9 1/2 inches.

Gutowski, who has an accepted world mark of 15 feet, 8 1/2 inches, could do no better than 14 feet, 5 1/2 inches.

Al Cantello of the U.S. Marines finished a poor third to Michel Maquet of France who turned in a winning 256 feet, 8 inches in the javelin throw.

Cantello, with a toss of 240 feet, 5 1/2 inches, was far short of his world mark of 282 feet, 3 1/2 inches.

American athletes managed to win four of Tuesday's nine events for a total of nine victories in the 18 contests staged over the two-day period.

U.S. second-day triumphs were racked up by Charles Butt of Los Angeles in the shot put, 57 feet, 7 1/2 inches, Bob Poynter of San Jose State in the 100-meter dash, 10.8 seconds.

Deacon Russell Stich risks his status as Louisville's rapidly developing contender for the welterweight title tonight against unranked but dangerous Rudy Sawyer.

Stich, ranked No. 2 among the welterweight contenders by the NEA since his victory over Caspar Ortega in May, was a solid 2 to 1 favorite over the New York fighter because of his punch and aggressiveness.

Sam Jones Misses No-Hit Game in Giants' Victory

By MILTON RICHMAN United Press International Sad Sam Jones missed pitching the second no-hitter of his career by the slender margin of one of those tooth-picks he always chews—approximately the same narrow margin that now separates the San Francisco Giants from first place in the National League.

For 7 2/3 innings, Jones turned back the Dodgers without a hit Tuesday night and had visions of duplicating the no-hit, no-run game he hurled against the Pirates as a member of the Cubs on May 12, 1955.

But with two out in the eighth, Junior Gilliam wrecked those visions when he beat out an infield roller that was ruled a hit even though shortstop Andre Rodgers had trouble finding the handle on the ball.

That was the only Dodger hit of the game and the Giants won, 2-0, to move within a half-game of the first-place

Braves, but Jones was far from happy with the official scorer's ruling.

With tears streaming down his face after the game was over, Jones said bitterly, "as far as I'm concerned it was a no-hitter."

Jones struck out 10 and walked two in gaining his ninth victory against eight defeats. Loser Don Drysdale gave up nine of the Giants' 10 hits, including a two-run homer by Willie Mays. A crowd of 59,312 saw the game in Los Angeles.

Cincinnati topped Milwaukee, 8-5, Pittsburgh edged Philadelphia 4-3, and St. Louis defeated Chicago, 4-1, in other NL games.

Cleveland increased its American league lead to two games with a 3-1 victory over Chicago. New York beat Baltimore, 4-1, Detroit blanked Kansas City, 4-0, and Washington licked Boston, 6-1.

Home runs by Gus Bell, Jerry Lunch and Vada Pinson carried the Reds to their victory over Lew Burdette of the Braves. Bell hit his homer with two on and Pinson with one on. Johnny Temple helped hand the sixth defeat of the season on Burdette with four of Cincy's 14 hits. Bob Purkey was the winner.

Stan Musial Named To All-Star Squad

Cincinnati, Ohio (UPI)—Manager Fred Haney chose Stan (The Man) Musial "for Auld Lang Syne" today in selecting the reserves and pitchers to round out the National League All-Star team.

Although the 38-year-old St. Louis Cardinals star received only three votes in the major leaguers' balloting for the starting positions, Haney felt "old pro" Musial would be a handy man to have on the bench for the July 7 All-Star game at Pittsburgh.

And if there were any sentiment involved, who could begrudge the honor to Stan-The-Man, who has been a prominent fixture in 16 consecutive All-Star classics. No other player has participated in as many. In those 16 games, Musial compiled a .315 batting average and holds the All-Star records for home runs (five), hits (17) and total bases (34).

Marciano May Make Comeback

New York (UPI)—Rocky Marciano will begin testing training next week for a European tour that's expected to include some sparring exhibitions and possibly lead to a comeback, it was learned today.

He'll fly to Europe late this month.

The 33-year-old "Brockton brawler," who retired undefeated on April 27, 1956, has been issuing denials that he plans to return to the ring. It's true: He won't come back if he can't get into satisfactory condition.

He now weighs 220 pounds, almost 32 more than his 188, when he last defended the world heavyweight crown on a ninth-round knockout over Archie Moore, Sept. 21, 1955.

If he can pare down and get "sharp" again, there's a good chance he may challenge next June against the winner of the September return bout between champion Ingemar Johansson and ex-champ Floyd Patterson.

Claudia Lowd was singles champion in the Southern Oregon Handicap tournament completed last Sunday at Medford Bowling lanes.

She had a 637 total. Her score was inadvertently listed as 627 by the lanes.

Polly Greenfield, Roseburg, was second with 635. Others among the high five were Florence Slack, Roseburg, 634, Vi Aquino, Myrtle Creek, 629, and Thelma Shelton, Medford, 617.

SF Pitcher More Sad Than Usual

By ALEX KAHN Los Angeles (UPI)—Sad Sam Jones was sadder than usual today as he and the San Francisco Giants left town convinced that the hurler had been robbed of a no-hit game against the Los Angeles Dodgers by a scorer's ruling.

Jones had to be content with a one-hit 2-0 victory before a huge crowd of 59,312. The veteran hurler's attempt at the second no-hitter of his career was nipped Tuesday night by Jim Gilliam's slow roller past the mound in the eighth inning. It was bobbed momentarily by Giant shortstop Andre Rodgers and by the time he got the ball to first, Gilliam was safe.

Charlie Park of the Los Angeles Mirror News, the official scorer, without hesitation raised his forefinger in the press box to indicate a single.

A groan went up from the huge crowd in the coliseum that had turned out to root for the home club and instead was intent on seeing what appeared to be the first no-hitter in the history of major league baseball here.

The Giants won the game, but that didn't satisfy the 28-year-old hurler, who threw a 4-0 no-hitter for the Chicago Cubs against the Pittsburgh Pirates on May 12, 1955. Tears stood in Jones' eyes as he went first to the San Francisco radio booth in the press box and then to the Los Angeles Dodgers' booth to be interviewed.

Jones Storms Park went over to explain to Jones he was the man who ruled Gilliam's grounder a hit.

"I don't think it was a hit no matter what you called it," Jones stormed as he brushed aside Park.

"I thought Rodgers should have had the ball," he added. "I knew all the time I had a no-hitter going. And I was getting stronger as the game went along."

Park, however, said that if the same situation presented itself he would again have to rule it a hit.

"Why don't you buy yourself another scorekeeper," Jones said as he stormed into the shower.

In the Giants' dressing room, Rodgers said he felt he bobbled the ball sufficiently for it to have been called an

Golfing Tickets Sell for $1,000

Portland (UPI)—The City of Portland has offered golf enthusiasts all the golf they can play for the next 10 years for $1,000.

Sale opened today on 250 unlimited "play golf" tickets valid at any Portland municipal golf course for 10 years. It was authorized by a city ordinance passed June 18.

The ordinance stipulates that just 250 tickets be sold at a price of $1,000 each. The total number must be pledged by June 30, 1960.

The tickets are being sold on a subscription pledge basis and no money will be collected for any of them until the entire number has been sold. Then the funds will be payable within five days after notice is given.

Dave Duvall, director of golf for Portland, said anyone interested in buying a ticket should contact him through the park bureau at city hall.

error. Manager Bill Rigney agreed, saying he also felt it was a definite error.

But in the Dodgers' dressing room Gilliam snorted: "It was just like any other slow hit ball. If there had been 10 hits in the game that would have been the 11th. That's all there was to it."

"I don't think it was a hit no matter what you called it," Jones stormed as he brushed aside Park.

Spokane Indians Go Into 3rd Place by Trimming Portland

By United Press International Chuck Churn gave up only six hits Tuesday night as he pitched his second shutout of the season and Spokane moved into third place in the Pacific Coast league with a 4-0 victory over the Portland Beavers now in fifth place. The game opened a three-game series here.

Only two Portland runners reached as far as third against the 200-pound righthander. They were Russ Snyder in the seventh and Jim Greengrass in the eighth.

It was Churn's sixth win of the year against only one loss. It was the ninth shutout of the year for the Indian mound staff.

The game was scoreless until the fourth. Then Spokane scored when Don Domenech singled home Chuck Essegian.

Steve Bilko followed two innings later with a solo home run and two more runs were scored in the seventh and eighth on a single by Bob Lillis and a double by Kuno Barragan.

Churn allowed only one walk. George Brunet was the loser, his seventh. He worked six and two-thirds innings.

The Sacramento Solons have lost more games than they've won in the past month but they've managed to increase their Pacific Coast league lead.
