

McDevit Pitches Eighth Victory As Dodgers Approach Top Place

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International
Altra-cautious Walt Alston simply refuses to talk about a possible pennant but a lot of the Los Angeles Dodgers are starting to think along those lines all because of Irish Danny McDevit.

The Dodgers have won eight of their last 10 games and now are only a half-game behind the first-place Milwaukee Braves.

No pitcher on the club has made a greater contribution in the current climb than McDevit, who has won five straight games and a total of eight for the season.

Sent back down to the minors last year because he failed to win, McDevit has all but wiped out that bad memory this season. He boosted the Dodgers to the three-lead of the National league last Thursday night when he blanked the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-0.

McDevit gave up 10 hits but was superb in the clutch, giving up only one walk and forcing the Cards to hit into four double plays.

Back-to-back triples by Junior Gilliam and Charlie Neal in the third inning off loser Dick Ricketts provided McDevit with the only run he needed. The Dodgers picked up two insurance runs in the seventh and another in the eighth.

Fan Fights Umpire
The game was enlivened in the seventh inning when a fan jumped out of the stands and battled Umpire Bill Jackowski after the arbiter had ejected St. Louis Manager Solly Hemus. Players on both sides rushed into the fray and broke up the fight before much damage was done.

In other NL games, Pittsburgh scored a 10-inning 4-3 triumph over Milwaukee; Chicago swamped San Francisco, 10-4, and Cincinnati won the nightcap of a twilight twin-bill from Philadelphia, 8-4, after the Phils took the opener, 7-6.

Kansas City defeated Cleveland, 6-4, and the White Sox missed a chance to move into a tie for first place in the American league by dropping a 9-7 decision to the Tigers. The Orioles climbed back into the first division by defeating the Yankees, 3-1, and the Senators handed the Red Sox their fifth straight loss, 6-3, in 10 innings.

Dick Groat's 10th inning single with the bases loaded off loser Don McMahon paced the Pirates to their victory over the Braves. Milwaukee made Pittsburgh's job easier by committing four errors, two of which came in the 10th. Vern Law went the distance for the Pirates, allowing seven hits and winding up with his ninth victory against five defeats.

Homers Beat Giants
Ernie Banks, Dale Long and Alvin Dark all hit homers for the Cubs against the Giants, who also remained a half-game behind the Braves. Banks' homer, his 22nd of the season, came with two men on base. Reliever Don Elston held the Giants hitless over the last 3 1/3 innings to preserve Glen Hobbie's ninth victory. Rookie Eddie Fisher was their loser.

A grand-slam homer by Gene Freese and Dick Farrell's fine relief pitching helped the Phils to their opening game victory over the Reds. Freeze connected off loser Jim Brosnan in a five-run third inning and Farrell came in to snuff out a four-run Cincinnati rally in the eighth. Don Cardwell, who struck out 12, was credited with his second victory.

Don Newcombe registered his eighth straight triumph and ninth of the season with a six-hitter in the nightcap. Newcombe also contributed a homer as Ruben Gomez suffered his sixth loss against only one victory.

Four errors, two of them by loser Gary Bell, played a big part in Kansas City's victory over Cleveland. Joe DeMaestri hit a two-run homer to put the A's ahead 3-1 in the fourth. Bill Tuttle then drove in another run with a triple in the fifth and scored himself on Jim Baxes' error. Ray Herbert gained his fifth victory. Woodie Held homered for Cleveland.

Hits Grand Slam
Charley Maxwell's grand-slam homer off reliever Turk Lown in the eighth inning gave the Tigers their margin of victory over the second-place White Sox. Maxwell's 18th homer put Detroit ahead, 9-2, and the Tigers needed that bulge when Al Smith hit a homer with the bases full for the White Sox in the ninth. Neil Chrissy of Detroit also homered with one on. Don Mossi posted his seventh victory and Bob Shaw was charged with his third setback.

Rookie Jerry Walker of the Orioles struck out 10 Yankees and held them to six hits in winning his sixth game. The only run he allowed was Hector Lopez' thirteenth homer in the fifth inning. Bob Nieman hit his ninth homer with one on in the first inning to give Baltimore a lead it never lost. Don Larson, who had beaten the Orioles 11 straight times since Sept. 5, 1955, suffered his third loss against six wins even though yielding only five hits.

The Senators rolled to their fourth straight victory when Jim Lemon's 19th homer with two on in the 10th inning sunk the Red Sox. Lemon hit his homer off reliever Leo Kiely, the loser. Bob Allison hit his 21st homer for Washington while Jackie Jensen belted his 17th for Boston and Marty Keough his fifth. The victory went to reliever Dick Hyde, who was returned to the Senators by the Red Sox two weeks ago in a cancelled trade because of a sore arm.

Blooper Home Run Wins For Spokane

United Press International
Fred Hatfield tagged a 340-foot blooper that struck the three-inch width of the top of the left field fence and bounced over for a home run that gave Spokane a 2-1 Pacific Coast league win over Portland Thursday night.

Hatfield's freak hit came in the ninth inning and broke up a 1-1 ball game that saw Portland's only run come in the second inning on another home run over the same fence by Bob Di Pietro.

Spokane's first tally was two innings later and scored with the help of a sizzling triple by newcomer Frank Howard that ricocheted 150 feet in the air off the center-field fence.

The blow by the former Texas League standout easily scored Chuck Essegian, who was on second base after he clobbered a Tom Gorman fast ball 411 feet off the same wall for a double.

No-Hitter Chalked Up By Barger
An almost perfect game pitched by David Barger of the Ashland Cubs highlighted play yesterday in the pee wee division of the Southern Oregon junior baseball league.

Barger twirled a no-hit, no-run job as the Cubs trounced Eagle Point 4 to 0. This win and the Central Point Braves 5 to 3 decision over the Medford Tigers left the Cubs the lone unmarred club in the circuit. Central Point Indians downed the Ashland Bears 13 to 2 in the other loop encounter.

Medford Wildcats and Lone Pine did not play as scheduled yesterday. Coach Eldon Franck did not have his Lone Pine ready for action and that club's long postponed season debut now is slated for next Tuesday.

Only one batter got on base against Barger. Eagle Bob Corliss, next to last man Barger faced, was hit in the helmet by a pitch while reportedly attempting to bunt the ball. He was sent to first base on a hit batter ruling. The Ashland chucker struck out four.

Frank Charley, on the hill for EP, limited the Cubs to three hits, he walked three, struck out five and hit a batter.

Ashland got three of its runs in the second inning when two walks and a hit by pitch loaded the bases. Barger singled in two runs and David Eckwall squeezed in another. There were no errors in the mix.

Central Point teams recorded their first loop wins. Gary Frohreich threw a one-hitter for the Indians against the Ashland, Bears, walking six and fanning five. An error, four walks, a fielder's choice, a sacrifice and two singles got five runs in the first inning and a triple by Jerry Calhoun, a single and six walks helped the Indians to six more in the fourth. Ashland pitchers issued 14 walks.

Central Point Braves got all their runs in the first inning on five singles, two walks and two fielders' options. Braves' pitchers Mike Hurt and Mike Anhorn combined for a two-hitter, walking four and fanning one. J. Van Horn got three hits and McCalvey two for CP while Jim Brennan and Mark Kinney got the only Medford hits.

Alex Olmedo Defeats Laver For Wimbledon Tennis Toga

Wimbledon, England (UPI)—Alex Olmedo of Peru and Los Angeles, a center of tennis controversy on three continents, today became the first South American to win a Wimbledon title when he whipped Australia's Rod Laver in the men's singles final 6-4, 6-3, 6-4.

Olmedo, seeded first and the odds-on 1 to 8 favorite, won the most coveted crown in tennis before a standing-room center court crowd of more than 15,000.

Many tennis observers in the United States and Australia criticized the United States Lawn Tennis association for naming Olmedo to its 1958 Davis Cup team. He came here as an official USLTA representative but British sports writers call him "Peru's gift to American tennis."

No Match
Laver, only the second unseeded player to reach the Wimbledon men's final, made a gallant try but was no match for the catlike Olmedo. The University of Southern California senior battered Laver with his big service and outplayed him in every department of the game.

Both women's doubles semifinals and both mixed doubles semifinals also were scheduled for the center court of the famous stadium which will be paced with about 15,000 tennis fans.

The United States had at least one participant in every event today including Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., who is trying to score a "triple" victory in the women's singles, women's doubles and mixed doubles. Miss Hard smashed her way into the singles finals Thursday with a 6-4, 6-4 victory over Sandra Reynolds of South Africa.

Miss Hard, a one-time waitress who has been knocking at the door of tennis greatness for several years, teams with Jeanne Arth of St. Paul, Minn., against Miss Reynolds and Renee Schuurman in women's doubles and with Laver against Billy Knight of Great Britain and Yola Ramirez of Mexico in mixed doubles.

First Half Of Season Over in NW

They shut down the shop for the first half of the Northwest League Thursday night and the Salem Senators closed out on a winning note.

The Senators, first half champs, tripped Tri-City, 7-5, to finish far ahead of the rest of the pack. Although they left 20 men on base, the Senators launched a 17-hit attack that got the job done.

The Senators won it in the eighth with three runs on a two-run double by Tommy Wright and a one-run single by Bailey Brem. Joe Wilson added a little insurance with a solo homer in the ninth.

Lewiston got four runs in the top of the ninth to take Yakima 9-5 and salt down second place.

Wenatchee used a four-run fourth inning to top Eugene 5-3.

MOYER HAS OFFER

Bosox Pilot Resigns

Boston (UPI)—Mike Higgins, Boston Red Sox manager, resigned today, it was announced at the team's headquarters here.

Rudy York, a Red Sox coach and former first baseman with the Boston American league team, was named as interim manager.

Pittsburgh Man Choice Of League
San Francisco (UPI)—Tom Hamilton, long on charm but short on information has joined the Athletic Association Western universities as its executive director amid a flurry of speculation on just what he came out here for.

Reporters put Hamilton, Pittsburgh's outgoing athletic director, through a 60-minute grilling Wednesday to try and discover why he is giving up a good job with the Panthers whom he helped rebuild into a football power.

The answers weren't exactly sensational from the man with who has joined the new conference which includes California, UCLA, Washington and Southern California.

"I will coordinate the mutual interests of the member schools and hope I can be of benefit to them," declared Hamilton, in a typical statement. He did say at one point, however, that he was not hired to be a "rubber stamp or figurehead" for the group.

PCC Closes Books
The Big Four is the successor of the nine-team Pacific Coast Conference which officially went out of business Wednesday. Investigation three years ago by Commissioner Victor O. Schmidt showed that all of the Big Four had been involved in violating the PCC code.

"I am not a czar and don't aspire to any such title," Hamilton said. "I think the new concept whereby each school investigates its own violations is a good one, based on trust and confidence of men who know each other."

Hamilton allowed that if any schools broke the new Big Four code he would try to help "avoid difficulties by close talks and friendly visits with officials involved."

Frank Kidner, California faculty representative who was elected the Big Four's first president.

Faces Receives Player Award
Cincinnati (UPI)—Elroy Face, Pittsburgh's unbeaten bullpen ace, compiled the biggest margin in the history of the award in being named the National league's player-of-the-month for July.

The five-foot-eight, 155-pound, owner of a spottless 12-0 record, received 30 of a possible 40 votes from the committee of baseball writers and broadcasters participating in the balloting.

Face made 14 relief appearances during June, winning five games while striking out 18 batters in 22 2/3 innings and walking only three. His earned run average was 0.37 during June.

Yanks Out Of British Links Open

Muirfield, Scotland (UPI)—Fred Bullock of England takes a two-stroke lead into today's final 36 holes of a British Open golf championship that finds Americans missing from title play for the first time since before World War II.

Bullock, 40, a professional at Scotland's famed Prestwick club, amassed a total of 138 for the first two rounds to lead veteran Flory Von Donck of Belgium going into the final day of play.

It took a score of 148 or better to qualify for the championship 36-hole round, a mark that none of the four Americans who entered the tournament could reach. The best card was turned in by former British amateur champion Bob Sweeney, Palm Beach, Fla., who had a 78-73-73.

RAKE FASTER...SAVE LEAVES

with a Low-Cost
JOHN DEERE 350 PTO RAKE 3-POINT OR SEMI-INTEGRAL

The 350 PTO Rake gives leaf-saving performance—eats up acres, raking a full 7-foot swath at speeds up to 6-1/2 mph in leafy crops... and faster in crops where leaves are no problem. Low in initial cost, the 350 is dependable in the field, too, holding upkeep costs to a minimum.

The 350's right-angle reel moves crops directly to the left... moves them only half as far as conventional rakes, thus saving leaves. You'll save leaves, too, with the 350's 4-bar reel. Less contact with reel bars reduces shattering; teeth are spaced closer together to rake clean. Crops are lifted gently onto the stubble with the 350's special curved teeth, forming loose, fluffy windrows that cure faster.

The 350 is available in either standard 3-point-hitch or semi-integral design. If you prefer a 5-bar rake, a fifth reel bar is available as an attachment. Stop in soon, and choose the style that fits your needs.
