Army Unit to Leave Sunday for Training

Approximately 20 officers and men of the 382nd Quartermaster Battalion, local Army reserve unit, leave Sunday for two weeks' active duty training at Yakima Firing center, Washington.

The unit has been going to summer encampments annually since its activation in 1947.

In the past, either commercial bus or private vehicles have been used for transportation to summer camps in Washington and California, but this year most of the personnel will ride in government trucks and jeeps which are assigned to the unit.

California Governor Invited to Picnic

Gov. Edmund (Pat) Brown, of California, has promised to put the Jackson county Democratic picnic on his calendar, announced Ralph James, county commissioner and general chairman of the picnic.

Bob Duncan, Medford attorney and speaker of the house of representatives, received a letter today from Brown after asking him to be guest speaker at the annual event at TouVelle state park on July 26. Brown said he would put the event on his schedule.

Shortage Found in Gold Beach Accounts

Gold Beach–(UPI)–State auditors Thursday found a shortaeg of about $4,400 in the accounts of justice of the peace William Fuller who has been missing since Tuesday. Sheriff R. G. Sabin said he heard that Fuller had purchased a ticket on an airline from Oakland, Calif., to Pittsburgh, Pa.

Towns Honored by Welcome Stockade

A total of 6,906 visitors have registered at the stockade on Siskiyou summit, Ernie Hood, coordinator for the Jackson County Centennial association reported.

He said that 90 per cent of those visiting the stockade are from out of state except on week ends.

Today, Saturday and Sunday have been designated "Ashland and Eagle Point Days," Hood explained, due to the wide variety of activities planned in the two towns for July 4.

Among the visitors who have registered recently were a couple from Scotland and a teen age boy from Bolivia.

Hood stressed that visitors to the stockade are being encouraged to remain in the county over the week end instead of traveling on the crowded highways.

Visitor-Caused Fire Reported in Park

The first visitor-caused forest fire in almost seven years occurred in Crater Lake National park this week, Superintendent Tom Williams has announced.

It occurred along Annie creek near the south entrance of the park.

Williams said it was believed to have been started by a picnicker or fisherman. He added that it was the first forest fire of the 1959 season and the first visitor-caused fire since September, 1952.

Low rain and snowfall during the past winter have resulted in unusually dry conditions in all forest areas, Williams said, and all visitors are requested to be cautious with fires when in the woods.

Eugene Firm Low Bidder on Copco Job

Klamath Falls–(UPI)–The California Oregon Power Co. said today that Vik Construction Co. of Eugene was low bidder on about $250,000 worth of construction in Klamath Falls. Bids were opened Wednesday. Vik already has crews in Klamath Falls working on the 93-unit Rickfalls Apartment construction.

DRAPERY FIRE

Rays of the sun focused through a glass fish bowl in the window apparently ignited draperies at the home of Mrs. Essa M. Barrett, 408 Edwards st., yesterday evening, firemen reported. Firemen found the window drapes burning when called to investigate a report of smoke about 6:20 p.m.
