

Portland Church Scene Of Day-Anderson Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher C. Day, whose wedding was an event of June 20 in Portland, were in the valley last week as guests of Mr. Day's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Benjamin Day Jr., Sams Valley. The bride is the former Marilyn Anderson, daughter of Oscar A. Anderson, Portland.

The marriage ceremony took place at Holy Family Catholic church, with the Rev. John J. Walsh celebrating the nuptial high mass at 10 o'clock in the morning. The mass was sung by the congregation, with eight seminarians from Mt. Angel school singing the proper.

The bride wore a gown of white peau de soie with mantilla of Chantilly lace. She carried white carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs. William Branson, Vancouver, Wash., was honor attendant for her twin sister, Mrs. Ronald Allio and Miss Joan Anderson, both sisters of the bride from Portland, were the other attendants. All wore short blue frocks and carried pink and white carnations.

Robert L. Smith Jr., Eugene, was best man for Mr. Day and ushers were Charles Haase and Norman Anderson, Portland, and Peter Albrecht, Manhattan Beach, Calif.

The church decorations were of gladioli.

About 150 guests attended the ceremony and the reception which followed.

Attending the wedding were the bridegroom's parents, his sisters, the Misses Sue Robin, Verity and Diane Day, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Benjamin Day, North Pacific highway, and his aunt, Mrs. John S. Day, Gold Key, Medford. Also among the wedding guests were the bridegroom's great-uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Mayo, Oswego, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Rice, uncle and aunt from Gold Beach, Ore.; Mrs. Carl Burgoyne and Terrence Burgoyne, aunt and cousin from Eugene; Truman Price, Gold Hill and William Shull, Medford.

The evening before the wedding the bridegroom's parents were hosts for a dinner at the Imperial hotel in Portland. Thirty guests attended.

Mr. Day and his bride spent their honeymoon on the Oregon coast. The bride attended Holy Child academy, Marylhurst college and the Art Institute of Chicago. Mr. Day attended Crater High school, Reed college and the University of Chicago.

Mr. Barr was active in sports at the school and recently played in the Oregon all-star baseball game. He was also president of the choir. Both of the couple sang in the group and took part in dramatics.

Miss McGraw was a member of the rally squad for two years. She is employed at Pick's Apparel and her fiancée is employed at Sierra Cascade Pine company.

Their wedding has been set for the Christmas holidays.

Miss Miller is a graduate of Medford High school.

Mr. Bross was formerly a student at Brigham Young university in Provo, Utah.

The wedding will be held July 10 at the Bross residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert N. Nill and small son, Martin, Eugene, are spending the week end visiting with Mr. Nill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Nill, 25 Myers court.
