

Mr. and Mrs. Terrance Miller (Hall photo)

Third Daughter Married In Same Medford Church

An event of Sunday, June 19, was the wedding of Miss Susan Lila Campbell to Terrance Lamont Miller. The double-ring ceremony was held at First Christian church at eight o'clock in the evening with the Rev. William Piper officiating.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Campbell, 714 West Eleventh street, and she was their third daughter to be married in this church. The former Alison Campbell, now Mrs. Robert Arndt, and Harriet Campbell, now Mrs. Lonnie Kellenberger, were also married at First Christian church.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Miller, Applegate, Ore.

The bride wore a ballerina length bouffant gown of white nylon lace over net and satin with satin cummerbund. It was worn with an over-jacket designed with scoop neckline and bracelet length sleeves. For the traditional "something old" she wore earrings which had belonged to her great-grandmother, and her veil was borrowed from her attendant, Mrs. Dennis Perkins. The bride carried yellow and white rose buds on a white bible.

Mrs. Perkins wore a frock of yellow and white nylon chiffon fashioned with full skirt and yellow cummerbund. She carried a nosegay of yellow daisies.

Mr. Campbell gave his daughter in marriage. Dennis Perkins was best man for the bridegroom, and the ushers were Robert Arndt, brother-in-law of the bride, and Donald Wynn, cousin of the bridegroom.

Miss Oveta Walden played the wedding music, and Mrs. Walter Larsen sang.

Sixty-five guests attended the wedding and reception.

The church decorations were of yellow and white Ester Reed daisies, and satin ribbons marked the pew ends. Flowers in the sanctuary of the church and the reception room were arranged by Mrs. Oliver Obenchain, Mrs. B. Adams and Mrs. Robert Arndt. For the reception room the flowers were yellow and white daisies and mock orange blossoms.

Mrs. Donald Wynn poured punch and Mrs. Robert Arndt, the bride's sister, cut and served the wedding cake. Miss Jane Hedgpath, cousin of the bride from Weed, Calif., took charge of the guest book. Miss Georgene Hicks presided at the gift table.

Mr. Miller and his bride spent their honeymoon on the Oregon coast. For traveling the bride wore a black and white checked suit with white accessories.

The newlyweds are living at 609 West Eighth street. The bride was graduated from Medford schools and attended Southern Oregon college. She is a bookkeeper for Sacred Heart hospital. Mr. Miller also attended Medford schools and Southern Oregon college and is an office employee of Oregon Veneer company.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Goldy were hosts for a patio party following the wedding rehearsal Thursday night, entertaining at their home, 35 South Berkeley way. Guests were members of the wedding party and family members.

Newlywed Couple Honored At Reception Last Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Miles, 605 Highland drive, were hosts at a reception June 28 honoring their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd M. Miles.

The couple was married June 6 in a morning ceremony at Park Wedding chapel, Reno, Nev. Large bouquets of roses decorated the altar.

The bride is the former Patricia May Hackney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Harper, L. B. Star route, Box 220, Eagle Point. She wore a blue linen dress with white accessories for the wedding, and for the reception Sunday wore a blue and white chiffon frock with corsage of pink rosebuds.

Approximately 60 guests attended the reception. Leeroy Walland served punch. Mrs. Mable Wright, grandmother of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Frank Burdick, Milton Freewater, his aunt, assisted.

White water lilies encircled the punch bowl.

The young couple is residing at 214B Lincoln street following their return from a wedding trip to Shasta Lake, Calif.

Rogue-Elk Hotel Scene of Rites

Trail-A ceremony held at 8 o'clock in the evening on June 23 wedded Miss Mary Eleanor Jones to Frank Dayton Ross. The double ring rites took place at the Rogue Elk hotel in Trail.

The Rev. Ernest Evers of Trail Community church performed the wedding rites, which were attended by about 25 persons.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Ebricht, Tucson, Ariz., wore a nylon dress of white flowers on a red background, and carried white roses.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Rose of Elk Creek road, Trail.

Miss Sharon L. Martin, Rogue River, was maid of honor and wore a pink and white frock.

Best man was William Fay Pentecost of Rogue River. Following the ceremony, wedding refreshments were served by Mrs. Shirley Korte and Mrs. Joyce LeMarc.

The couple are now at their home on the Brill ranch at Trail.

Engagement Told Of Miss Taylor To George Rambo

Central Point—Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Taylor, route 1, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Ruth Taylor, to George Wesley Rambo, son of Mrs. and Mrs. Melbourne G. Rambo, Mill City, Ore.

Miss Taylor, a recent graduate of Crater high school, plans to attend Lewis and Clark college this fall. Her fiancé is employed at radio station KWJN, Ashland.

No wedding date has been set.

Talent Club Wins Year Book Award

Talent-Talent Garden club members learned at their July meeting that the club's year book received a third place ribbon at the recent meeting of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs in Portland.

During the meeting, held at the home of Mrs. Harold Strauss, members heard a report on the state convention by two delegates, Mrs. Philip Hoyland and Mrs. C. O. Long, alternate delegate Mrs. Leon Lockwood, and the retiring state secretary, Mrs. E. G. Taylor.

Co-hostesses at the meeting were Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. L. M. Bates. A picnic meal was served.

Members were reminded to bake cakes for the 4-H Fair on July 11. Cakes should be brought to the home of Mrs. John Baldwin by the evening of July 10.

The next meeting will be a barbecue at the home of Mrs. C. O. Long, with Mrs. D. B. Long as co-hostess, at 6:30 p.m. August 1. Slides will be shown and husbands and families are especially invited.

Family Arrives For Visit Here; Son Ordained

The Rev. and Mrs. Charles Anderson and family arrived in Medford last week accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Anderson, 218 Winema Way.

The elder Andersons had spent two months in the mid-west and Mrs. Anderson traveled to New York for her son's graduation from Union Theological seminary May 26 at Riverside church.

He was ordained a deacon of the Methodist church at the Illinois conference at MacMurray college, Jacksonville, Fla., June 12.

The young man received his grammar school education in Illinois, attended high school in Klamath Falls, and was graduated from Willamette university in 1956. He plans to enter Columbia university this fall to study for his doctorate in philosophy.

A reception in his honor was given Sunday, May 14, at the Ashland, Ill., Methodist church, where he received his early religious education.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson have two children, John, 8, and Diane, 5½.

En route to Medford the family visited relatives and friends in Lincoln, Neb., and Livingston and Seeley Lake, Mont.

They also spent some time at Medicine Bow National forest and Grand Tetons, Yellowstone and Glacier National parks.

Sunny Note—New York—(UPI)—"Take the sun gradually to avoid drying-out precious oils in both your skin and hair," suggests Ellen Noreen Baum, beauty expert.

"A little prevention goes a long way," she said, "so be sure to take along a bottle of sun lotion and a scarf for your hair on every beach outing."

Medford Member Will Represent Lutheran Women

Mrs. Edwin Guetzlaff left Medford yesterday for Toronto, Canada, where she will represent Oregon Lutheran women at the eighth biennial international convention of the Lutheran Women's Missionary league. The convention, to be held July 22 and 23, will host approximately 509 delegates from 37 districts in the United States and Canada.

The women of St. Peter's Lutheran church, 1024 East Main street, as well as nearly 200,000 other women in the U.S. and Canada, belong to the league.

Mrs. Guetzlaff has been chairman of the St. Andrews zone for two years and has been reelected for another two-year term. She served as Christian growth chairman in her zone since it was introduced into the league.

She is president of the Holy Cross guild, one of the St. Peter's Lutheran guilds, and she has been elected to the nominating committee for the Good Shepherd Home auxiliary.

She plans to return from Canada on August 15.

Californians Here For Celebrations; Open House Held

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Strang and their youngest son, Gregory, have returned to their home in Pomona, Calif., after a visit in Medford with Mr. Strang's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Strang, Pennsylvania avenue.

The Strangs came north at this time to attend the reunion of the 1939 class of Medford High school, and to attend a party which celebrated the Fred Strang's 40th wedding anniversary.

Mrs. William Strang, the former Curtis Bachelor, was a member of the 1939 class.

The party in celebration of the anniversary was given Sunday, June 28, by the Strang's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lee E. Brown, Grants Pass.

A family dinner, attended by 25, was followed at 4 o'clock by a small open house to honor Mrs. Brown's parents and brother.

Mrs. Brown and her husband had also attended the class reunion, since Mrs. Brown had been a member of the 1939 class.

Friday, June 26, a party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Holzgang on Park street celebrated Gregory Strang's birthday anniversary. Mrs. Holzgang and Mrs. William Strang are sisters.

The Strang's older son, Bill, and daughter, Bonnie Kay, are both attending summer school in Pomona. The son won plaudits last year for his record with his high school basketball team.
