Reedsport—The Community Presbyterian church here was the scene of the wedding June 20 of Miss Nancy Marie Rosa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Rosa, Reedsport, to Orin B. Collier, Reedsport, son of Mrs. Albert Esten, Trail, and the late Clifford J. Collier.

The 8 o'clock double-ring service was read by the Rev. Robert Patton. Mrs. Roy Henderson was organist and Mrs. Jason Boe was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin and imported hand-clipped Chantilly lace with a chapel-length train. It was trimmed with pearls and sequins. Her bouquet of three white orchids she carried with a lace-covered Bible, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Daniel Davis, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Victor Snively, Pilot Rock, cousin of the bride, Miss Sally Powers and Miss Donna Ingram.

Wear Chiffon

All wore gowns of white chiffon over blue taffeta. Their blue veils were held by crowns of white braided satin and tulle. They carried American Beauty roses attached to white tulle fans.

David Perlman, Portland, was best man. Ushers were James Collier, brother of the bridegroom, Charles Waldron and Al Urben.

The flower girl, Cheri Linn Funk, carried red rose petals. Mell Davis was ring bearer. Candlelighters were Michael Rosa, brother of the bride, and Candy Davis, the bride's niece.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Rosa wore a pink brocade gown with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink and navy ensemble with a white orchid corsage.

Gladioli, chrysanthemums and American Beauty roses, arranged with silver ferns, decorated the church.

Reception Held

A reception for the 200 guests was held in the church parlors. Assisting were Mrs. Loyd Bradley and Mrs. Howard Riley, who poured, and Mrs. George Edwards and Miss Marie Chandler, aunt of the bride, who cut the cake.

Miss Karen Karcher was in charge of the guest book and Miss Ann Marks had charge of the gifts.

The couple is residing at 1947 Cedar street, Reedsport, following a wedding trip through Washington. For traveling the bride wore a blue brocade sheath dress with matching accessories.

She attended schools in Portland and is a doctor's receptionist.

The bridegroom, a justice of peace for Reedsport and a practicing attorney, attended Prospect High school and was graduated from Willamette university law school.

He served two years with the counter intelligence corps in Germany.

Among those coming from out of town for the wedding were Mrs. Minnie Gamble, a great aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lovely, the bride's grandparents from Portland.

Also present were Albert Esten, Trail, step-father of the bridegroom; Mrs. James Collier, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and children; Mr. and Mrs. Burton Train, his uncle and aunt, Mrs. Lee Wilson, his sister, and her daughter, Leanna, Roseburg; Mrs. Henry Speaker and Miss Silvia Oden, Wolf Creek, cousins of the bridegroom; Mrs. and Mrs. Carl Hanson, Shady Cove; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Conger, Jackie and Billy Hunt, all of Prospect.

Arrangements of salmon-colored and white gladioli decorated the church; the pews were marked with bows of mint green.

Girls Community club was also decorated with the salmon and white gladioli. Mrs. Robert Staten and Paul Brede poured punch; cutting and serving the wedding cake were Mrs. Harvey Chapman and Mrs. James Teets. Mrs. Harold Wehern took charge of the gift table and Mrs. Robert Staten poured coffee. Mrs. Eino Kuki presided at the guest book.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a gown of pale blue lace over taffeta, white accessories and a corsage of baby pink roses. The bridegroom's mother was attired in Navy blue lace with white accessories and her flowers were also pink roses.

Here for the wedding were the bride's uncle, Joseph Kanski, Mrs. Andrew Liptick, Mrs. William Randish, Mrs. Helen Radicki and Nick Fiorito, all Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barr and daughter, Lynn, Portland; Harvey Chapman and son, Johnny, Eugene.

Mr. Goodell and his bride traveled to San Francisco and Carmel for their honeymoon, the bride wearing a green linen sheath, beige accessories and a white rose corsage.

The newlyweds are living in Van Nuys, Calif.

The bride, a registered nurse, was graduated from Fairbanks High school in Alaska and Seattle University School of Nursing, Seattle. She has been on the staff of Sacred Heart hospital here. The bridegroom was graduated from White River High school, Buckley, Wash., and is a junior in electrical engineering at Los Angeles State college. He is a junior engineer in the missile division of the Lockheed Aircraft corporation.

Mr. Kanski escorted his daughter to the altar. Her wedding gown was fashioned with a bodice of rose-point lace with Sabrina neckline and long sleeves, and the skirt and cummerbund were of peau de soie ending in a chapel length train. Her fingertip-length tulle veil was held by a pillbox of seed pearls and tulle and she carried a cascade of white roses.

The bride wore white satin wedding slippers which had first been worn by her mother for her wedding in Yugoslavia 30 years ago. She carried a white lace and linen handkerchief sent to her by an aunt in Yugoslavia.

Miss Sylvia Florito, Seattle, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Long, Seattle, and Miss Anna Musler, Medford, a cousin of the bride. Their gowns of mint green taffeta were designed with full skirts, close-fitting bodices made with chiffon panels floating from the back. Their picture hats and satin pumps were of matching mint green and they carried salmon-colored gladioli.

William F. Goodell, Los Angeles, was best man for his brother and seating the guests were Eino Kuki, Los Angeles, and Jack Stormberg, Medford.

Groups Holds Annual Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hale were hosts for the annual reunion of the former Surprise Sunday School class of First Methodist church. The dinner was held Saturday evening, June 27 at their home in Eagle Point.

Attending the dinner besides Mr. and Mrs. Hale were: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gienger of Chiloquin, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sax (Marjorie Hopkins) of Manhattan Beach, Calif., Mrs. Olive Putman of Sutherlin, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hukill, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. George Russell, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Watson, all Medford and Mrs. Myrteila Canada of Roseburg, who was the teacher of the class.

After dinner on the Hale's newly constructed patio, there was "camera flashing" and reminiscing for the remainder of the evening.

Sunday the group attended services at First Methodist church at 11 o'clock.

A Tribute To . . . Our Insurance Men!

The man who "writes you up" for insurance is one of the most human of all salesmen. He deals in human nature. He must keep a myriad of facts and figures at his finger tips. He must be persistent, persuasive and personable. The sincere Insurance Man offers you something you owe to yourself and your family. He insures your life, with ample protection for your loved ones. He insures your home, your car, your personal possessions. He sells accident insurance and, oftentimes, special kinds of protection covering other personal or business assets. You're doing yourself a favor when you buy well planned insurance. Consider him one of your most needed friends!
