Eskew-Hazelhurst Rites Held in Portland Church

Gold Hill-A wedding of interest to friends in the Rogue Valley was held recently in Portland, when Miss Phyllis Anne Hazelhurst became the bride of Gerald K. Eskew, member of a well known Gold Hill family.

The ceremony was held Sunday, June 14, at First Christian church in Portland at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Fred Brown, pastor of the church officiated at the double-ring ceremony, attended by 150 guests. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen C. Hazelhurst, Portland, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy N. Eskew, Route 1, box 545, Gold Hill.

The church was decorated with white gladioli and white chrysanthemums and white candelabra held lighted white tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace, net and tulle. Pearls trimmed the neckline of her dress. Her fingertip veil was held by a petal cap of lace and seed pearls, and the pearl earrings, she wore were a gift from the bridegroom. The bridal bouquet was white rosebuds and white gladioli with stephanotis.

Sister Attendants

Matron of honor was Mrs. W. D. Heigh, sister of the bride from Steamboat, Ore. Her dress was white eyelet embroidered organza over pale green taffeta, and she carried white gladioli and white roses.

Mrs. James Walp, Portland, was bride's matron. Bridesmaids were Miss Deanna Bryant, cousin of the bride, Eugene, and Miss Sally Ostrander, Portland. The attendants' dresses were styled similar to that worn by the matron of honor, of white organza over pink, yellow and orchid. They carried bouquets of white gladioli and roses and wore matching head bands.

Candle lighters were Miss Charlanna Brown, Portland, and Miss Linda Preston, Newport Beach, Calif. Their dresses were white organza with pastel floral borders at the lower skirt edge, and they wore matching head bands.

Charles B. Ray, Medford, served as best man. Ushers were Robert Bray and Paul Elgin, both Medford, and Bob Sheldon, Portland.

Baritone Singers

Soloist was David O. Johnson, baritone, Portland. Miss Lorie Pratt, Portland, played the organ, and violinist was Miss Wanda Eastwood, Eugene.

A reception was given in Fellowship room of the church. Amigas members of Christian Woman's Fellowship, a group of the church of which the bride's mother is a member, were in charge of the reception.

The bride's table was decorated with tall pink tapers in silver holders. Mrs. Paul Kloster, Eugene, cousin of the bride, cut and served the cake, assisted by Mrs. Loren V. Bryant, another cousin of the bride from Eugene. Mrs. W. H. Heigh, Portland, poured coffee, assisted by Mrs. T. W. Black, Portland, cousin of the bride.

Presiding at the punch bowl were Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Bryant, Springfield, uncle and aunt of the bride. Mrs. Charles Vance Jr., Springfield, cousin of the bride, took charge of the guest book.

Among the guests at the event was Mrs. Edward Bryant, grandmother of the bride, Portland.

The bride's mother wore a gold crepe sheath gown with gold satin cummerbund, and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother selected a beige lace sheath, with ice blue accessories. Their corsages were talisman roses.

Others attending the event from southern Oregon, besides the bridegroom's parents, were their daughter, Miss Donna Eskew, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Ness and son, Medford, and former Medford residents, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Bray, who now reside in Pendleton. Attending from Coos Bay were the bridegroom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Eskew and son, Steven, formerly of Gold Hill.

The newlyweds are making their home in Albuquerque, N. M. En route south they were guests in the home of Mr. Eskew's parents in Gold Hill. For traveling the bride wore a white linen sheath, with white duster and accessories. Her corsage was pink carnations and small yellow rosebuds.

The bride is a graduate of Grant High school, Portland, and attended Oregon State college in Corvallis. Prior to her marriage she was employed in Eugene by Consolidated Freights as secretary-bookkeeper.

Elder-Darrohn Wedding Rites Held in Church

Shady Cove - Miss Doris Mae Darrohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Darrohn, became the bride of Elden Leon Elder, son of Mrs. and Mrs. Gilbert Elder, at a ceremony June 6 in the Sams Valley Gospel church.

One hundred guests attended the double-ring ceremony solemnized by the Rev. Gordon R. Peterson at 11 o'clock in the morning.

Miss Jackie Hume, Trail, was maid of honor and James P. Vanderlip, Jr., cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Jack Darrohn, the bride's brother, and Dale Casey.

Mr. Darrohn gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a ballerina-length lace gown with finger-tip veil and carried pink and white carnations with a white Bible.

Miss Hume wore a pink and white cotton dress and a pink rosebud corsage.

Garden flowers decorated the church. Mrs. Delbert Spain played wedding music and Mrs. D. G. MacDougal sang, accompanied by Mrs. Allan Whitehead, aunt of the bridegroom.

Assisting at the reception which followed were Miss Linda Eccleston, Miss Willie B. Poitevint and Miss Delberta Spain. Miss Joyce Hume attended the bride's book.

The bride attended Eagle Point high school. Her husband, who was graduated from Eagle Point high school, is employed with the Elder Logging company.

They are residing at Trail following a wedding trip.

Daughters Hold Family Breakfast

First social event sponsored by the newly-organized Catholic Daughters of America court was even more successful than anticipated, according to the report of Mrs. Gordon Boner, chairman. The event was a family communion breakfast.

Held Sunday morning in the annex of St. Mary's school the breakfast was preceded by attendance at mass in Sacred Heart church and reception of communion corporally by Catholic Daughters and members of their families.

No further social events are planned before regular meetings of the women's organization are resumed in the fall. During the summer all members are asked to assist on the various "Centennial Fiesta" committees.

Assisting Mrs. Boner on the breakfast committee were Mrs. Robert Hamelin, Mrs. E. E. Ford, Mrs. T. W. Dugan, Mrs. Arthur Becker, Mrs. Martin Spielbusch, Mrs. Lee Pendergast, Mrs. Louis Ward and Mrs. O. W. McGee.

Daughters of members who served the breakfast included Barbara and Faye Lewis, Ingrid Bergstrom, Rita Dupray, Kathy Newcomb and Theresa Taft.

Christian Business and Professional Women will meet at Maple Grove park across from Cubby's for a potluck picnic at 6 p.m. Monday, July 6.

Mrs. Eloise Winklebeck will be in charge of the devotional period. Group singing is planned.

Mrs. G. F. Coldwell, MURdock 2-4482 or Miss Hazel Hanson SPring 2-4539 will provide further information.

Ceremony In Ashland Weds Pair

Ashland - Miss Peggy Jean Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Richardson, Marion, S.C., became the bride of Bruce L. Hoy, Ashland, at a double-ring ceremony read June 19 by the Rev. James Sinclair in the First Church of Christ.

Pink gladioli and white stephanotis decorated the altar. The Rev. Sinclair sang for the wedding, accompanied by Mrs. Sinclair.

The bride wore a waltz-length gown of white nylon and lace and a tiara of seed pearls. A cross of white gardenias surrounded by pink carnations composed the bridal bouquet.

Attendants were the bridegroom's twin sisters, Mrs. Harold Laws and Miss Beverly Hoy, Thompson Falls, Mont., who wore frocks of chiffon over net. Mrs. Laws' was of yellow and Miss Hoy's was blue. They carried bouquets of white and pink carnations.

Jack Hillberry was best man.

For the couple's wedding trip to the coast, Mrs. Hoy wore a pink linen suit and a corsage of pink rosebuds and white carnations. Her accessories were white. On their return to Ashland they will make their home at 1662 Holmes avenue.

Both young people recently completed army duties, having served on Okinawa with the army signal corps. Mr. Hoy, a member of the Ashland police force, is a son of Mrs. W. K. Livingston, 1617 Parker street, and Melvin W. Hoy, Thompson Falls, Mont., who was in Ashland for the wedding.

Mineral Club Changes Session

A change in locale for the next meeting of the Roxy Ann Gem and Mineral club is announced. Instead of the usual time and place, a potluck picnic will be held Friday, July 10, at 6 p.m. in TouVelle State park. This park is located at the point where Table Rock road crosses the Rogue river.

All those planning to attend are asked to take sufficient food for the number in their group. Coffee will be provided by the club and coin-operated electric stoves are available for cooking.

Delmar Smith will present the latest information regarding the display of Jackson county minerals and gem stones which has been set up at the Centennial stockade. This exhibit is sponsored jointly by the Roxy Ann club and the Mining council.

Persons who participated are requested to bring specimens found on the last field trip to Agate Flats. Prizes will be given and everyone is invited to attend.

Meeting Reports Given for Chapter

Mrs. Virgil J. Bolton, regent, and Mrs. Ray K. Bailey gave reports of the annual meeting of District 3, Daughters of the American Revolution, held in Roseburg on June 17, at the annual picnic of the Crater Lake chapter.

Because of cold weather, the picnic was held indoors at the home of Mrs. Glenn O. Taylor, 1334 Reddy avenue.

Assisting Mrs. Taylor were Mrs. Edward G. Root, Mrs. L. E. Dickson, Mrs. O. H. Breneman and Mrs. Ray K. Bailey.
