United Press International
Bud Watkins, a hulking 28-year-old righthander who was such a failure in the early season that Vancouver tried to peddle him to Amarillo, Tex., has a new lease on life today.

Watkins racked up his seventh straight win Monday night while pitching Phoenix to an 11-5 win over Sacramento.

Vancouver sold Watkins to Phoenix when the righthander who hails from Richmond, Calif., refused to report to the

Washington Men Pace NW Golf

Portland—UPI—Two Washington stagers, Jim Bourne of Seattle and Bob Pratt of Renton, paced a field of 206 Monday as first-round qualifying got the 58th annual Pacific Northwest Golf association championships underway at Portland Golf club.

Bourne took a two-stroke lead with a 33-69 over the wet, windy course.

Pratt, captain of the NCAA champion University of Houston team and co-medalist two weeks ago at Eugene, came in with a 71.

In women's qualifying at the Columbia-Edgewater course Monday, 18-year-old Oregon-Idaho champ Shirley Englehorn of Caldwell, Idaho, dominated the field by carding 36-36—72, three-under-par. This put her six strokes ahead of the rest of the field of 150.

Eugene Woman Follows
After Miss Englehorn came Elaine Porritt, Eugene, and Maude Borst of Portland. Both had 78's. 1955 National Amateur champion Mrs. Pat Lesser Harbottle had trouble on the back nine and carded 40-41—81.

Jerry Cundari, Portland, and Joe Peroski of Vancouver, B.C., followed Pratt in the men's with 73 each.

The second and final day of qualifying was today. Match play starts Wednesday with the final round Saturday.

Filly Killed On Race Track

Portland—UPI—Que Bonita, three-year-old filly, was killed Monday night when she crashed into the outside rail in the ninth race at Portland Meadows as Love Match was overtaking favored Grandpa Sam at the head of the stretch.

Jockey Jerry Lambert was thrown well beyond the horse and the rail and suffered only a badly bruised ankle. At first it was thought he may have broken a leg, but after a careful check by the track physician he was walking around unassisted. Love Match won the race.

McMURTRY SIGNS

Seattle—UPI—Irish Pat McMurry, Tacoma heavyweight, has signed to meet Earl Atley of Philadelphia in a 10-rounder at Sicks' Seattle Stadium July 21. Atley scored a one-round TKO over Terry Lewis of Spokane last month. Mike McMurry, brother of Pat, will make his pro debut on the card which will be an all-heavyweight program.

BRAVES RETURN WISE

Milwaukee—UPI—The Milwaukee Braves, who recently recalled Casey Wise from Louisville, have returned the second baseman to the same American association club on option. Wise collected only 13 hits in 75 at bat for an anemic .173 average during his latest stay with the Braves.

Shrine Group Picks Royal Director

Atlantic City, N.J.—UPI—The National Court of the Royal Order of Jester of the Shriners Monday elected Carl A. Rahn, Billings, Mont., royal director.

Rahn was named at a meeting in connection with the 8th annual Imperial Council session of the Shriners. He succeeds John Jetson, Hartford, Conn.

Others elected included H. R. Fine, Fresno, Calif., royal leading "lady."

Harlie K. Valentine, Sacramento, Calif., was elected president of the Shrine Recorders association.

Gold Beach JP Located in Cabin

Gold Beach—UPI—William E. Fuller, Gold Beach justice of the peace reported missing by his family last week, was located safely Monday in a cabin south of here.

Curry county Sheriff R. G. Sabin said Fuller, who returned home Monday, told him he went to the cabin to "hole up."

Last week auditors checking Fuller's accounts after his disappearance found a discrepancy of $5,900, but a check was later deposited for the full amount.

The Curry county district attorney's office said no charges were pending against Fuller.

Sabin said the justice agreed to return to his home.

Pioneer Sites Board To Meet Here July 9

Rawls Chalks 6th Major Golf Win

French Lick, Ind.—UPI—Betsey Rawls chalked up her sixth major golf victory of the year by winning the $7,200 Womens Professional Golf championship here Monday.

She shot a one-over-par 75 for a 72-hole total of 76-68-69-75-288. Par for the distance is 296.

It was the first LPGA championship for the Spartansburg, S.C. golfer, who finished only one stroke ahead of Patty Berg.

The match was decided on the 17th hole when Miss Berg missed a heart-breaking putt which would have given her a tie and forced the contest into overtime. Miss Berg's putt stopped only two inches from the cup.

Both girls then birdied the 18th and the match was over. Wins $12,528 Total Betsy's winning purse of $1,274 brings her take for the season to $12,528, by far the best among the women pros. It was her 34th tournament win in eight years as a professional golfer.

Miss Berg, West Chicago, Ill., started the final round six strokes off the pace, but her putter failed her at the crucial moment. She carded a four-under-par 70 and won $961. Her total was 75-71-73-70-289.

Louise Suggs, Sea Island, Ga., won third money of $760. Miss Suggs, who won the French Lick Open last year; shot a four-under-par 71 to finish with a 290 total.

In fourth place was Joyce Ziske, Milwaukee, Wis., who won $605 on a 293 total.

W. McCovey Tops Hitters

San Francisco—UPI—Willie McCovey of Phoenix leads the Pacific Coast League hitters, and Dick Hall, Salt Lake City, tops the pitchers, according to statistics released today and including Sunday's games.

McCovey, towering Giant first baseman, is batting at a .344 clip. He has knocked in 64 runs and clouted 19 homers, to lead the league in those departments, too.

The only department he doesn't lead is in total hits, where teammate Jose Pagan, has 110.

Hall, who has hurled six shutouts this year while posting a 9-3 record, has allowed only 1.24 runs per nine innings. Dick Stigman, San Diego, leads in strikeouts with 102.

Police Capture Fugitive Wanted For 1956 Murder

Des Moines, Iowa—UPI—A vacancy appeared in the list of the FBI's "10 Most Wanted" criminals today with the capture of George Edward Cole, 32, an ex-convict wanted as a police killer in San Francisco.

Cole, wearing a mustache as a disguise but with a telltale heart and the words "mom" and "pop" tattooed on his left forearm, was seized Monday at a service station where he was manager and where he had worked for two years.

He put up no fight, but insisted his name was James E. Walker and denied his true identification until he was fingerprinted.

Girl Friend Arrested
Arrested a short time later and jailed with Cole was his girl friend, Yvonne Conley, 45, San Francisco. The FBI held her as his accomplice.

The FBI had sought Cole on a charge of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution in connection with the 1956 slaying of Sgt. Joe Lacey, a San Francisco policeman, during a tavern holdup.

An FBI spokesman said an "intensive investigation" led agents to the service station. The agents drove up and asked an attendant to fill up their automobile tank. They found Cole in the office.

"He gave us no trouble and said nothing except that he denied his identification," the spokesman said. He added that Cole admitted his identity when he was confronted with fingerprinting.

Cole was unarmed when the agents approached him. Officers later found in a car at the station a .22 caliber pistol which they said belong to him.

Miss Conley was arrested when she arrived at the station a short time later to see Cole. The FBI said the pair lived in a mobile home at a trailer court.

Agents said that Cole had served prison sentences in California and Missouri for grand larceny and armed robbery but had a "clean" record here.

The 6 foot 1 inch fugitive had an eight-point star tattooed on the back of his left hand in addition to the tattoo on his forearm.

San Francisco police said Cole was named by a companion, Thomas Hamrick, as Lacey's killer. Lacey, off duty, was sitting in the tavern when Cole and Hamrick tried to hold it up. Lacey tried to stop the holdup, police said, and was shot down. Hamrick is serving time in San Quentin for the robbery.

Injunction Asked At Tillamook

Portland—UPI—The National Labor Relations Board Monday filed a petition in federal court here for an injunction against four affiliates of the Teamsters union, seeking an end to a Teamster boycott against Tillamook County Creamery Association products.

The Teamsters have been on strike against the association since May 1.

The petition, filed by Thomas P. Graham Jr., NLRB regional director from Seattle, asks an injunction against the Joint Council of Teamsters 37; Astoria local 569; Dairy, Ice and Ice Cream local 305 and Warehousemen's local 206.

Graham's petition requested the court to order the union to show cause why an injunction should not be issued.

Since the strike began, the Teamsters launched a boycott against Tillamook brand cheese, first in Portland, then in 11 Western states.

The union is demanding higher wages from the association.

Butler, Catey Top-Seeded In RVCC Senior Tourney

Larry Butler, as medalist, and Bill Catey, as defending champ, are top seeded in the pairings announced yesterday for the senior club championship golf tourney of Rogue Valley Country club.

Qualifying concluded Sunday and first round matches in the tournament are to be completed by Sunday, July 19.

The tourney has 24 participants with 16 of them matched in the championship flight. Butler fired a one-over-par 73 for medalist honors. Leland Clark had a 78 and George Stacey a 79.

Dr. D. C. Boals was low gross over the past week end in ball sweepstakes with a 71. Dr. Robert Buck and Dr. Ralph Odell each had 74 and Carl Schmidt a 75.

Net Bests 63s

Catey and Del Berg topped net scorers with 69s. Jack Daugherty and Ray Sorenson carded net 70s and Norm Hillyer a 72. Those with 73 nets were Glenn Branlund, Berg Maret and Bob Corbin.

Two Rogue Valley linksmen took flight runners-up honors in the Southwestern Oregon Golf tourney completed Sunday at Coos Bay. Tom McLeod was in the finals of the eighth flight and Jim Vargo in the 12th flight.

Lee Flink was a second flight quarter-finalist and Jack Lewis gained the semi-finals of the third flight. A "feature" match for RVCC entrants in the SWO was the 19-hole quarter-final between Vargo and Miles Doran.

George Cicrich, Eastmoreland, Portland, was champion of the Coos tourney. He won from Pete Gray, Coos Bay, 4 and 3 in the title match.

Bisons Trail 8-1, Then Win 12-8

United Press International
The Buffalo Bisons are riding high in the International League today because they never quit—even when they are trailing 8-1 in the last inning.

That was the score when the Bisons came to bat in the ninth inning Monday night against the Red Wings at Rochester. They scored seven runs to tie the score and then pushed across four more in the 14th inning for a 12-8 verdict.

A three-run homer by Panchito Herrera featured Buffalo's ninth inning rally. Ken Lehman came on in the bottom of the ninth and held the Red Wings scoreless until the Bisons settled matters in the 14th.

Zack Monroe allowed only four hits in pitching Richmond to a 3-1 triumph over Havana. Borrego Alvarez ruined Monroe's shutout bid with a bases-empty homer in the sixth inning. Jack Reed homered for Richmond.

Columbus scored a comeback 6-5 triumph over Miami while the Toronto at Montreal game was postponed because of wet grounds.
