

CARL E. WIMBERLY
Lumber Division Chairman

Section Heads Appointed in Division of UMC

Carl E. (Bud) Wimberly, chairman of the lumber division for the 1959-60 United Medford Crusade fund raising campaign, this week reported completion of his appointments of section heads for the division.

Serving in key positions in the division in this year's campaign will be Robert J. Lockwood, Clinton C. Neely, Robert Higgins, Edward G. Nave, Donald C. Jackson, Jerold J. McGrew, and Douglas F. Gordenier. The section heads are now recruiting campaign workers and completing organization for the drive.

This is Wimberly's first major position in one of the UMC drives. In the past he has worked as a fund raiser for the campaigns, and has been active in the Child Guidance Clinic, one of the UMC member agencies.

Wimberly is president of Western Lumber, Inc., in Medford. He and his wife, Fran, have lived in Medford since 1946. They have a son, Lee, aged 12, and a daughter, Carolyn, aged 11.

Planning Session
All UMC workers will have a full-day planning session this Friday. The 1959 Campaign clinic will be held at the Jackson hotel from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Lowell F. Turner, associate director of field service for the United Community Funds and Councils of America will be featured speaker at the clinic. There will also be panel discussions on all phases of UMC work.

POOR ESCAPE ROUTE
Cuernavaca, Mexico (UPI)—Dr. Arturo Gil Rendon called police to investigate the strange knocking on his wall in the nearby village of Jujutla Tuesday. Together they watched as a hole was knocked through the doctor's wall and a man's head poked through it. Behind him were 18 other men, who had picked a poor route to escape from the jail next door.

Quotes From the News

BY UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

Chicago—Dentist Norman R. Olson, on his work for Queen Elizabeth:
"I called her 'your majesty' and we exchanged greetings. From then on it was just 'open' and 'close,' 'open' and 'close.'"

Washington—Rep. Charles E. Bennett (D-Fla.) on the hiring of former military officers by defense industry:
"Even though nothing unethical may actually transpire, there is an appearance of evil which destroys public confidence in the integrity of government."

Baton Rouge, La.—Robert Angelle, close political associate of Gov. Earl K. Long, on the governor's health:
"He is a very ill man, but I think he's going to get well if he gets the proper rest."

Monroe, Wash.—Dr. Garrett Heyns, director of state institutions, on use of a ruse to trick four rebellious convicts into surrendering:
"The end justifies the means in this case. Those fellows certainly were not using any ethical practices."

REFUSING to meet Frol R. Kozlov, first deputy, Soviet Council of Ministers; Detroit Mayor Louis C. Miriani (above), stirs up international incident.

Girl, 5, Slain; Neighbor Hunted

Las Vegas, Nev.—(UPI)—A 21-year-old man who recently separated from his pregnant bride was sought today in the rape-slaying of a five-year-old neighbor girl.

The beaten and stabbed body of Dolores Stafford was found Tuesday in the attic of the home of Kenneth Erwin, a cook, after an all-night search.

The condition of Dolores' body—bruised, with her throat cut and a stab wound in the stomach—caused the district attorney, the mortician and a police sergeant who examined her to cry openly.

"This makes other rape-slayings look like the work of a humanitarian," said District Attorney George Foley.

An immediate search was begun for Erwin, who has been missing since late Monday. He was fired from his job Monday for failing to show up at work the day before.

His bride of two months, Catherine, left him on Sunday after a domestic spat. Neighbors said the woman's parents came here and took her back to their home in Kingman, Ariz. They said Mrs. Erwin was expecting a child in the fall.
