Nationals Triumph In All-Star; Same Players Will Vie in August

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor

Pittsburgh–(UPI)–Fred Haney, manager of the victorious National leaguers, is going to go with the same players in the second All-Star game at Los Angeles Aug. 3 because he feels they are strong enough to win again.

"We were good enough yesterday, and we'll be good enough again when we play in my own back yard," said Haney, who is from Hollywood.

This is the first year in which there will be two All-Star games and under the rules, Haney can add three more players to his squad and pick a new group of pitchers.

"My pitchers did all right," he said as he reviewed Tuesday's 5-4 triumph over the American league in the 26th annual All-Star game. "And I'm not going to change horses."

"Neither am I," echoed his neighbor, Casey Stengel, the skipper of the American league club who is from Glendale, about 10 miles from Hollywood.

Considers More Righthanders

But he added quickly that "I might go with more righthanders out there in Los Angeles because of that short left field screen."

It was a left-handed pitcher –his own ace Whitey Ford– who cost Casey his sixth defeat in nine All-Star games Tuesday.

Coming on in the eighth inning with the American league ahead, 4-3, Ford quickly got in a jam. He yielded a single to lead-off batter Ken Boyer, pinch-hitting for winning pitcher Johnny Antonelli. Boyer was sacrificed to second and scored when Hank Aaron rifled a single to center.

Up came Willie Mays, who hits Ford like he owns him. Mays drove a long deep ball to right center and it hooked away from centerfielder Harvey Kuenn just when it looked as if he might catch the ball. It went for a triple and scored Aaron with the winning run.

Another lefthander, Bud Daley, came in and put out the fire, but it was too late.

Mays Climaxes Game

Mays' blow was the climax to a wild finish in this midsummer game, played before 34,763 fans in Forbes Field, including Vice President Richard Nixon, who threw out the first ball.

For six and a half innings, pitching dominated.

Eddie Mathews clubbed Early Wynn, the 39-year-old American league starter, for a home run in the first inning and Al Kaline matched that blow with a homer off Lew Burdette in the fourth. Burdette had come on to relieve Don Drysdale, who had pitched three perfect innings.

Shortstop Ernie Banks greeted AL pitcher Jim Bunning with his second double of the game in the seventh. Catcher Del Crandall, getting his first All-Star hit in the three games in which he has appeared, singled and Banks scored with the tie-breaking run. Crandall went to second on the futile throw to the plate in an effort to get Banks.

Bill Nazeroski singled to score Crandall.

Lead Didn't Last

But the lead didn't last long.

Elroy Face, relief ace of the Pittsburgh Pirates who has won 12 games this year without a loss and who hasn't been beaten since Memorial Day, 1958, retired the first two men who faced him in the top of the eighth and then ran into trouble.

Nellie Fox started it with a single. Kuenn walked and Vic Power singled to drive home Fox. Ted Williams also walked, filling the bases.

Catcher Gus Triandos lined a double down the left field foul line and Kuenn and Power scored to put the American leaguers in front, 4-3.

Haney came in with Antonelli, who walked pinch-hitter Roy Sievers but then got pinch-hitter Sherm Lollar to ground into a force play. For pitching to those two batters, the San Francisco Giants' southpaw picked up the victory.

Don Elston came in to pitch the ninth for Haney and did the job, but not before the American leaguers scared the daylights out of him. With two out, Fox hit one into the right field stands that was foul by only two feet. Kuenn drove one out of the park, too, down the left field line, but it was foul by about 12 feet. Then with the count three and two, Kuenn popped out and it was all over.

Drag Race This Sunday

Sound of powerful engines and the smell of burning rubber returns to the Camp White drag strip this Sunday, July 14, when Southern Oregon Timing association presents another in its series of summer drag races.

At least 100 entries are expected to provide keen competition and bring plenty of thrills for contestant and spectator alike. Gates will open at 9 a.m. for the time trials and eliminations will be staged after lunch.

New Class

A rule change has been enacted, opening an entire new class for "Super-stock" autos with automatic transmissions. This new division of competition was added in response to contestant interest, SOTA officials noted.

The bond on the strip record of 144.46 miles per hour has been raised to $100 and there is a $25 posting on the "B" cycle mark of 100.55 miles per hour held by Jack White of Medford.

The races will be held at the SOTA strip, seven miles north of Medford off the Crater Lake highway. Signs will be posted from the "Y" in north Medford. Concessions will be available.

LIVESTOCK CLUB

The Sams Valley Livestock club met at the McDonough home on Tuesday, June 30. Before the meeting all members looked at Johnny and Connie's 4-H heifers.

A regular business meeting was then held with Secretary Jeanette King presiding due to the absence of our president Lyle Houston.

The next meeting will be held on July 14 at the home of Marilee Smith.

Roseburg Nine Tops Cheney Legion 5-1

Central Point – Roseburg Lockwood Motors defeated the Central Point Cheney Studs 5 to 1 at Roseburg last night to record its third verdict of the season over the Studs in non-league American Legion junior baseball.

George Spees hurled three-hit ball and Lockwood got over three runs in the second inning and two in the fourth to claim the victory.

Next action for Central Point will be a Saturday night tangle with Lakeview on Cheney field at the south edge of Medford. Lakeview will stay over to meet Medford on Sunday afternoon at Camp White. The two frays are in the southern division of Area 4.

Anhorn Doubles

Last night the Studs shoved over the first run. Bill Anhorn doubled (a 380-foot clout) in the second inning and toured the bases on a sacrifice by Jerry Hauck and two wild pitches.

Roseburg in the second had a single by Chuck Hiney, double by Gene Wagner and a fielder's choice swat by Dave Cellers. An error and a stolen base were other elements in the three-run frame. In the fourth, Marv French drew a base on balls, Cellers' bunt singled. French scored and Cellers went to third base on an overthrow at first base. Cellers went home on a sacrifice flyout by Wagner.

Spees struck out nine batters and walked one. Bill Anhorn, tossing a seven-hitter, struck out six.

Light trouble resulted in two delays in the game.

Central Point is now 8-8 for the season. The Studs and Medford share the southern division lead with 4-1 marks each.

Vandals Damage Talent Area Camp

Talent – Extensive damage was reported done to tables, outdoor stoves, bird houses and benches at the Camp Ya-ie-wah-Noah at the forks on Wagner Creek rd., during the week end, it was reported.

The camp is leased by the federal government to the Federated Women's club of Talent who sponsor the Camp Fire Girls and Bluebirds of the area.

During the week end tin cars and bottles were also scattered around the area and a small Yew tree that sheltered the upper sleeping unit was cut down.

The camp, which is open to all youth groups of the county and for family picnics, was built by volunteer labor by individuals and civic organizations.

Area and state law enforcement agencies were notified of the damage, Women's club officials reported, and stated a complaint will be signed by them against anyone found to be damaging the property in the future.

Mays Tells His Views

Willie Mays of the Giants produced the winning run when he tripled in the eighth inning to lead the National League All-Stars to a 5-4 victory over the American league. In the following dispatch, he gives his views about the game.)

By WILLIE MAYS
As Told To
United Press International

Pittsburgh –(UPI)– Sometimes you get lucky and that's what happened to me.

I was just looking to get a base hit when I came up in the eighth inning. So what happens? I wind up with a triple.

There was a lotta luck connected with it. When I hit that ball off Whitey Ford, I thought Harvey Kuenn was gonna catch it. If he had, it would have just been a loud out.

It was a changeup I hit. In the dressing room Ford said it was a fast ball.

Instead, the ball hooked away from him at the last second and it goes for a triple. Like I say, you gotta be lucky in this game.

Winning the game like that gives you a nice feeling. That made me feel even better than some of those World Series catches I've made. I know the World Series counted more than one All-Star game, but that's just the way I feel.

I'm not sure—I don't keep records like that —but I think this is the fifth hit I've gotten off Ford in the seven times I faced him. That counts exhibition games, World Series and All-Star games.

Grayson Washington Hoop Coach

Seattle –(UPI)– John Grayson of Idaho State college Tuesday was named head basketball coach at the University of Washington, Husky Athletic Director George Briggs announced.

He replaces Tippy Dye, who resigned to accept the job of athletic director of the University of Wichita, Kansas.

In three years at Idaho State, Grayson led the Bengals to the Rocky Mountain conference championship each season and his teams appeared in the Far Western NCAA regional tournament each year.

His overall record at Idaho State was 69 wins and 17 losses.

Last season, the Bengals finished third in the NCAA regionals. They also ranked third in the nation defensively behind California and Oklahoma State, holding their opposition to an average of 53.7 points per game. Idaho State ranked 20th nationally in field goal percentage last season with a .434 mark.

Grayson, a graduate from the University of Oklahoma in 1938, played on the Sooners' 1937-38 team, considered to be one of the school's fastest basketball squads.

In 21 years of coaching, Grayson, 43, has amassed a record of 404 victories against 87 defeats.

CUBS SEND DOWN TWO

Chicago –(UPI)– Pitchers Seth Morehead and Joe Schaffernoth have been sent to Fort Worth by the Chicago Cubs on 24-hour recall. The Cubs, now one player under the limit, plan to recall a pitcher from the American Association farm club.

Three Teams Deadlocked In SO Pee Wee Baseball

Central Point Indians	2	2	.500
Eagle Point	2	3	.400
Ashland Bears	1	3	.240
Central Point Braves	1	4	.200

Medford Wildcats tipped the Ashland Cubs 4 to 2 and the Medford Tigers nudged Eagle Point 4 to 3 yesterday to pull into a three way tie with the Cubs for first place in the pee wee standings of the Southern Oregon Junior Baseball league.

Central Point Indians bounced the Central Point Braves 14 to 8 in another game.

The Ashland Bears-Lone Pine scrap was postponed. Junior Baseball Commissioner Warren LaBounty reported that Lone Pine, which has yet to meet a member of the pee wee league, has decided to drop from the circuit. It will play a non-loop slate and meet league teams on their bye dates.

Hand Cubs First Loss

The Wildcats gained their winning margin in the bottom of the fourth inning to hand the Cubs their first league loss. Singles by Mike Naumes, Randy Corliss and Tom Wooton, a walk and a fielder's option got the runs.

Ashland got its opening run in the first inning on an error and a double by Rogers and its second in the fourth on a double by Piersen and a single by David Barger. The 'Cats tallied twice in the third on hits by John Batzer, Naumes and Corliss and a base on balls.

Naumes hit three for three and Corliss two for three for the Wildcats, while Kenny Eckel pitched a five hitter, walking five and whiffing two. Barger chucking a seven-hit game for the Cubs, walked two and fanned two.

Two In Sixth

The Tigers tallied two runs in the top of the extra sixth inning to edge Eagle Point. Jim Brennan singled and stole second and got home on an error on a rap by Don York. Then York stole second and third bases and scored on a wild pitch.

Eagle Point gained one run in the bottom of the sixth. The EP nine put over one run in the fifth to knot the mix at 2-all.

Helped by 10 bases on balls, the Indians had all their runs before the Braves tabulated. The Braves accumulated all of their eight in the fifth canto on three errors, three hits, two walks and two wild pitches.

Gary Frohreich tossed three hit ball for the Indians, walking three and striking out six. He was temporarily replaced in the fifth inning by Pat Graves, who walked two batters. Frohreich socked a triple.

LURE RED AGENTS

Bonn ,Germany – (UPI) – The West German government Tuesday night offered to waive prosecution of East German espionage agents who defect to the West. Interior Minister Gerhard Schroeder, speaking on a national television network, promised "we will do what we can to make use of the possibility of not prosecuting in such cases."

Musial Starts To Come Around

Pittsburgh – (UPI) – Stan (The Man) Musial is starting to "come around again" and he promises to be back for more All-Star games.

The 38-year-old Cardinals' slugger appeared in his 15th All-Star classic here Tuesday and although he popped to first base as a pinch-hitter, he was one of the most elated men in the bustling National league clubhouse.

"My hitting finally has started coming around," he said with obvious satisfaction. "I had a little trouble getting untracked there at the start of the year but I think my troubles are over – at least, it certainly looks like they are."

With the clubs ready to swing into the second half of the season, Musial is batting .270. For anyone else that would be an acceptable figure, but in Stan's case it's roughly 60 points lower than his customary pace.

But the important thing is that his average has been increasing steadily of late.

MAYS DAY IN ALABAMA

Montgomery, Ala.–(UPI)–The television fans who watched Alabama-born Willie Mays win the All-Star baseball game for the National league Tuesday included members of the Alabama House of Representatives, who adjourned a session after 25 minutes to watch the game.

Barb McIntire Ann Quast Vie

Chicago –(UPI)– Second round play in the 59th Women's Western Amateur Golf tournament, today was highlighted by a replay of last year's championship match involving defending champion Barbara McIntire and 1956 titlist Ann Quast.

Miss McIntire defeated Miss Quast, 2 and 1, last year in the 36-hole championship finale. But this year their qualifying scores put them so close together in the lower bracket that opening round wins brought them head and head for today's struggle.

Miss McIntire, who qualified with a 76 compared to an 80 for Miss Quast, defeated Sandra Spuzich, Indianapolis, Ind., 6 and 5.

Miss Quast tripped Frances Rich, Rainbridge, Ga., 8 and 7.

Two upsets marked first round play. Medalist Mrs. Ruth White Miller was eliminated by a former western champion, the 1951 winner, Marjorie Lindsay, Decatur, Ill., 1 up in 20 holes. The 1957 champion, Meriam Bailey, was ousted by 20-year-old Nancy Roth, 1 up in 24 holes.

ROYALS KEEP MARSHALL

Cincinnati, Ohio–(UPI)–Tomo Marshall, former All-America from Western Kentucky, will stay on as coach of the Cincinnati Royals next season. Marshall took over the post from Bobby Wanzer last December after the National Basketball association club lost 15 of its first 18 games.

Central Point Victor in Gals' Softball Game

Central Point–Central Point ran up nine runs in the first inning Monday evening for a 10 to 6 win over Eagle Point in a girls' softball game.

Seven bases on balls, a double by Janet Pfaff and three errors were the ingredients of the big inning. Jan Bateman tripled in the game for CP and Pfaff had two hits.

The teams will play a 6 p.m. contest on Monday at Camp White.
