

Tribal Dances To Be Featured At Encampment

Pendleton - Two groups of Yakima Indians from Topenish, Wash., will attend the National Indian Encampment in Pendleton, July 18-26, with a display of tribal regalia, dances and skills.

One group, led by Charles J. Speedis, is composed of 16 Indians who will present a series of Yakima dances, narrated by the tribal announcer.

These dances include the Thunder Bird dance, performed by one male in a Thunder Bird mask or headdress and an assisting group of girls; a shield dance, done by two war dancers with shields and spears or knives; a swan dance, performed by a group of Indian maidens, and a fast war dance by the Speedis brothers.

The Speedis group will also display several oil paintings at the Encampment museum. One painting, an oil of a calf roper at the Pendleton Round-Up, is valued at $1,000 and was painted by a Yakima tribal member.

The other group, led by Alex Wesley, Topenish, is composed of 40 Indian men, women and children, who will perform the traditional Yakima dances for the night show of the Encampment.

The Wesley group is also bringing a 100-year-old buffalo hide tepee, one of only seven in the entire United States. The ancient tepee is of Indian design, made from the skin of buffalos, 16 feet high and 50 feet in diameter, set up with 18 tepee poles and housing approximately 20 people.

They have also announced a $4,000 display of Indian arts and crafts for the Encampment museum exhibits.

Philatelist Wins Exhibit Awards

At a recent meeting of the Southern Oregon Stamp club, 18 members and guests heard those who had attended give their impressions of the 19th Pacific International Philatelic exhibition held in Portland last month as part of the Oregon Centennial festivities.

Mrs. Russell Herbert, the club's president, Clyde Smith, the official delegate, Frank Applegate, the club's treasurer, Kenneth Lewis, and one of the guests, Tom Reilly, all agreed it was one of the finest shows they had ever seen. Mr. Smith, who exhibited his outstanding collection of Oregon postal history, won both a gold medal and a silver cup for his display.

Refreshments were provided by Jim Scheffel and Alvin Dixon. Mr. Dixon is the newest member of the club. His acceptance at this meeting brought the total membership to 28.

The club meets at the Girls

Tuna and Rice Dish Good Meatless Meal

New York - UP - A meatless meal with lots of protein and flavor is "tuna-rice-pineapple bake."

Bring to boil 1 1/2 cups water containing 1/2 cup chopped green pepper, 2 tablespoons each of chopped onion and pimento and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Add 1 (5-ounce) box packed pre-cooked rice (about 1 1/3 cups), mix just to moisten, cover, remove from heat and let stand according to package directions.

In second saucepan, simmer 1 2/3 cups (1 large can) undiluted evaporated milk and 1/2 teaspoon salt over medium heat to just below boiling. Add 2 cups grated process American cheese, stir until it melts. Mix with rice and 1 (7-ounce) can solid-pack tuna, drained. Turn into lightly buttered 2-quart casserole, top with 6 sliced canned pineapple, drained. Sprinkle with 2 teaspoons grated Parmesan cheese and bake in 350-degree oven 20 minutes. Serves 6.

Past Commanders Hold Installation

The Past Commanders' club to the Disabled American Veterans auxiliary, Jackson County unit, met with Mrs. James Peacher, Springbrook road, July 6. Mrs. Norman Neathamer, retiring commander of the auxiliary, was initiated.

Officers were elected and installed. They are Mrs. Blaine Wolfe, commander; Mrs. Neathamer, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. George Simmons, historian, and Mrs. Bob Rice, conductress.

Mrs. Everett Grissom was installing officer and Mrs. Harvey Casman was installing conductress.

Thank-you gifts were exchanged between secret pals for the preceding year and new secret pals were drawn for the coming year.

The club voted to pay auxiliary dues for three gold star mothers, and to ask the state department if Jackson county members may make the favors for the Gold Star relatives tea at the 1960 auxiliary convention.

During the business session, Mrs. James Lillie read portions of the history which dates back to 1942 when the club was first organized.

The August meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Grover Rawls, 345 Apple street.

Second Session Of Art Workshop Planned in Salem

Salem - Registration and the opening of classes of the second session of the Oregon Workshop of Art are scheduled for Monday, July 13th, at the Bush House, in Salem's Bush Pasture. This two week session of classes will include Carl Hall's class in mixed media painting, Wayne Taysom's class in experimental work with sculpture, as well as a class in pottery with Hal Riegger.

Some of Carl Hall's painting may now be seen in the Northwest Invitational show at the Portland Art Museum and in the Centennial Art show in Portland. Several examples of Wayne Taysom's work, illustrating his use of various sculptural material, are on display this week at the Ladd and Bush bank in Salem.

The arrival of Hal Riegger, nationally known potter and teacher, has generated a great deal of excitement among those who have a desire to experiment with the making of pottery under his instruction.

Dance Announced By Hilltoppers

Hilltoppers will hold a square dance at the old Wagner Creek school Saturday, July 11, starting at 8:30 p.m. All square dancers are invited. Potluck refreshments are to be served.

Francis Cronin and guest callers will call the squares. Helpful books on how to retire and enjoy it are available at the Jackson County Library.

Seven Scouts At Encampment In Washington

Seven Senior Scouts will return to southern Oregon Sunday from Port Angeles, Clallam county, Wash., where they attended an encampment. They were accompanied by Mrs. Jack James. The girls, from the Rogue valley, Klamath and Lake County Girl Scout councils, were those chosen as alternates for the International Senior Scout roundup at Colorado Springs, and which is not underway.

The girls, all from the Pacific Northwest region, established a primitive camp in the Deer Park area of the Olympic National park some 20 miles outside Port Angeles.

The major interest of the camp, according to Mrs. James, was achievement of the trail blazer program of senior scouting. The two steps of this program are camp-crafter and woodsman. Each step requires treks into primitive areas, construction of stationary camp sites from primitive materials, and familiarity with camp tools and conservation skills.

In the group are Jo Ann Merritt, patrol leader, Klamath Falls; Pamela Virtue, assistant patrol leader, and Gail Hayden, Grants Pass; Martha Sanborn, Medford; Gretchen

Workshop In Painting Announced

Grants Pass - A workshop in painting under direction of E. Nelson Sandgren will begin in Grants Pass Monday, July 13. The four-week workshop is sponsored cooperatively by General Extension Division of the Oregon State System of Higher Education and the Grants Pass Art league. Instruction will take place at Highland elementary school, 1845 Highland avenue, Grants Pass, from July 13 through August 7.

Workshop activities are designed to provide a maximum opportunity for development of individual interests. Participants will have intensive experience in the use of oils, water colors and other media used to develop creative expression.

Director E. Nelson Sandgren has done specialized work in art at the University of Michigan, Morelia, Michoacan, Mexico, and at the Institute of Design, Chicago. His work has been exhibited in principal museums in the United States and abroad at the International Exchange Print Exhibits in Bordighera, Italy, and in France and Great Britain. Since 1948 he has been associated with the art department of Oregon State college where he is now associate professor of art. He holds a master of fine arts degree from the University of Oregon.

Students may register on a full or half-day basis for the entire four-week session or for two weeks. Workshop is available for college credit. Half-day sessions for two weeks provide two hours credit; half-day sessions for four weeks provide four hours credit. Full-day sessions for two weeks provide six hours credit and full days for four weeks provide six hours credit. Fees are $25 for two credit hours, $37.50 for three, $50 for four and $75 for six credit hours.

Further information may be obtained from Raymond Petty, General Extension Division, College Campus, Ashland, Oregon.

Pioneer Club To Hold Dance

The monthly dance of Pioneers Square Dance club will be held Saturday, July 11, at Kershaw Square on Cory road, starting at 8:30 p.m. Kenneth Hood will be the caller; all square dancers are invited.

Potluck refreshments will be served.

Tender, Loving Care
Helena, Ark. - (UPI) - Mrs. Abe Goldsmith noticed a pink umbrella open wide in her neighbors garden. The neighbor had tied the parasol above a choice bush to protect blooms from the rain.
