Rites Held At Church Wed Couple

Eagle Point - Miss Darlene Marshall and Roy Colley were married in a ceremony held in Eagle Point Community church Friday, June 26. The Rev. Paul O. Kroon of Central Point Community Bible church officiated for the double-ring ceremony, held at 8 o'clock in the evening.

About 90 relatives and friends attended the wedding. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Y. Marshall, Eagle Point, and Mr. Colley is the son of Mrs. Leary Biggers, Boise, Ida., and John Colley, Virginia.

Mr. Marshall gave his daughter in marriage. The bride wore a white lace sheath dress with waist length veil and held by a flower headdress, and carried a cascade of magnolia blossoms with a white Bible.

Miss Anita Marshall, cousin of the bride, served as maid of honor and Ann Marshall, another cousin, was flower girl. Miss Marshall wore a pink sheath dress and carried a bouquet of pink azaleas and white daisies.

James Wright served as best man and ushers were Wayne Marshall, brother of the bride, and James Hinks.

Mrs. Wayne Marshall took charge of the guest book while Miss Norma Noble assisted with the gifts. Miss Georgia Weidman was organist and Mr. Friesen sang. Mrs. Ernest Dahack decorated the church with blue delphiniums and pink roses.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Roy Griffith cut the wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. L. C. Scott and Mrs. T. A. Tibbets presided at the punch bowl. The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress with white accessories and a yellow rose bud corsage.

The newlyweds are at home at 649 Normal avenue, Ashland. Mr. Colley is employed by Oregon Food store.

Guests for the wedding included Mrs. Grace Marshall, Mrs. Glen Marshall, Anita and Ann Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Toman, Eugene; Mrs. Mabel Livingston, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Livingston and Elin, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Scott, Central Point; Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Tibbets, Lake Creek; and Lee Sowell, Cave Junction, Ore.

Medford Woman Attends Reunion

Mrs. Grace Boyl recently visited her former home of Greensburg, Ind., for the first time in 47 years. Mrs. Boyl made the trip this summer in order to attend the city's centennial celebration, and also to be present for the reunion of her high school graduation class. Only three members of the class attended.

Mrs. Boyl attended a centennial program and pageant, during which she was presented a plaque for having traveled the longest distance, about 2,400 miles, to attend.

The Medford woman reports that when she was introduced, she told the assembled persons about Oregon's Centennial celebration and invited them to travel west to attend.

While in Greensburg, Mrs. Boyl was a guest of a classmate, Mrs. J. Van Pelt Woodfill. En route home, Mrs. Boyl stopped in Indianapolis to visit her relatives, Mrs. Mae Burk and Sherman Boyl.

The Medford woman, who has lived here 48 years, was absent from her home at 1404 East Main street, for three weeks.

Ceremony At Church Weds Pair

In a double ring ceremony held July 2, Miss Barbara Jean Nigl became the bride of Larry Alan Van Ausdall. Dr. George G. Roseberry performed the wedding rites, which were held at 8 o'clock in the evening at the First Methodist church in Medford. Fifteen relatives and friends attended.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman J. Nigl, 53 North Orange street. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Lee E. Van Ausdall, 338 Fairmount street, both Medford.

The bride was given in marriage by Richard A. Loros of Medford. She wore a white trapeze type gown of Chantilly lace and carried a bouquet of white carnations encircling a white orchid.

Mrs. Kenneth Myers attended the bride as matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of pink nylon and carried a bouquet of pink gladiolus.

Best man was Kenneth Van Ausdall, brother of the bridegroom. James Tizekker seated the guests and Douglas Culy lighted the candles.

Baskets of pink and rose gladiolus with ferns decorated the church.

The bride's mother wore a grey suit with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a flowered nylon dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was given by the bridegroom's parents at their home. Fifteen guests attended. The wedding cake and punch were served by Mrs. Richard A. Loros.

The couple made a wedding trip to the coast of Oregon and northern California. For traveling the bride wore a pink suit with white accessories. They are now at home at 1518A Bryant street, Medford.

The bridegroom, who attended Southern Oregon college, is employed with the Bureau of Land Management.
