

Sams Valley Residents Honored on Anniversary

Sams Valley - Open house was held Sunday, June 28, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sanderson, Sams Valley, in observance of the couple's 50th wedding anniversary. The Sandersons were married in Jacksonville, and have lived in Jackson county ever since.

The couple's daughter and five daughters-in-law were hostesses for the event. Approximately 40 friends called between 1 and 5 o'clock.

The Sandersons' granddaughters served refreshments and assisted during the open house. They were Miss Judith and Miss Delores Sanderson, who greeted the guests; Mrs. Jack Pech, who had charge of the gifts; Mrs. Larry Sanderson, the guest book; Miss Barbara Sanderson poured coffee; Miss Mary Sanderson, punch; and Miss Sandra Sanderson, the cake.

Mrs. Milton Sanderson baked the wedding cake. Mrs. B. L. Sanderson, Medford, loaned the lace table cloth, Mrs. Clifford Graves, Sr., of Central Point, the punch bowl and the Meadows Union Sunday school provided the coffee urn.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson were married July 1, 1909, at the Methodist parsonage in Jacksonville. They made their home on a ranch in Beagle for 28 years after spending the first five years in and near Central Point.

For the past 17 years they have resided in Sams Valley. All the couple's children were present for the celebration. Attending were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Beers, Beagle, and their sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sanderson and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sanderson, Sams Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sanderson, Happy Camp; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sanderson, Oakland; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sanderson, Trail.

Seventeen of their 20 grandchildren were present. A grandson, Jerry Sanderson, telephoned his grandparents during the afternoon from Vardeen, France, where he is stationed with the army. All six great-grandchildren were present.

The campus set will be knee-deep in patterns next term. The big trend in casual stockings is toward fanciful patterns in stretch nylon. Look for plaids in red and green on navy, white and charcoal on black, and loden and black on red.

Ready-McCorkle Ceremony Held in Seattle Church

Eagle Point - Among the many June brides was Miss Kay Louise McCorkle, whose wedding to Samuel Richard Ready took place June 13 at the University Congregational church in Seattle, Wash. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight McCorkle, Eagle Point, and Mr. Ready is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Ready, Port Orchard, Wash.

The Rev. George Almond performed the double-ring ceremony at eight o'clock in the evening. Gladoli, stock and carnations in pink and white, decorated the altar and candelabra. Ribbon bows and greenery were at the end of the aisle and the aisle was lined with candles.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length white brocade taffeta gown, fashioned with fitted bodice and full skirt. Her finger tip length tulle veil was held in place by a crown of pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of white, yellow-lipped orchids and stephanotis on a large covered white Bible.

Mrs. Lyle Read, Coos Bay, Ore., a Phraterian sister of the bride at college, was matron of honor and soloist. The bridesmaid and matron, Miss Sandra Smith, Eagle Point, and Mrs. Alto Albright, Seattle, cousins of the bride, were gowned in full skirted aquamarine brocade taffeta dresses and matching bandeaus in their hair. Their flowers were cascade bouquets of pink carnations.

Kenneth McAndrews of Klamath Falls, served as best man, James Ready Jr., brother of the bridegroom and Gerald Gillis of Los Angeles, seated the guests. Mr. McAndrews and Mr. Gillis were forestry classmates of the bridegroom. Max McCorkle, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McCorkle wore a beige faille dress with pink accessories and light pink orchid corsage. Mrs. Ready wore a beige crepe dress with pink accessories and pink orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor. Mrs. Kenneth Dodson and Mrs. M. J. Skauge served the wedding cake. Mrs. R. D. McCorkle presided at the coffee table. Mrs. F. T. McCorkle served tea and Mrs. Ruth Smith and Mrs. M. F. Sheldon served at the punch table.

Miss Patricia McCorkle, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. F. T. McCorkle took care of the gifts. Miss Jeannie Dodson passed the dream cake from a ribbon decorated basket.

The couple traveled to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C. for their wedding trip. The bride wore a brown and beige suit with beige accessories.

They are both graduates of Oregon State college, the bride with the class of 1959 and the bridegroom with the class of 1958.

Their home will be in McCloud, Calif., where Mr. Ready is stationed with the U. S. Forest Service and Mrs. Ready will teach commercial subjects in the McCloud High school.

Senior Activities For June Given Good Attendance

Attendance at classes in the Senior Activity center has been described as "good," with 213 persons participating in center activities during the month of June. Some activities and schedule changes have been announced:

Mrs. Mark Goldy will show colored slides of Java, Bali, Singapore, and Malaya at her second travel show Monday, July 13, at 1 p.m. The group will vote then on whether to hold their shows mornings rather than afternoons for the rest of July and August.

The pastel painting class will meet at 9 a.m. Tuesday under the direction of Mrs. Ruby Tvedell. This will give members time for three hours in their workshop.

The wood carving class, under Glenn Van Winkle's direction, will meet from 10 a.m. until noon and have lunch during its social hour. The Spanish class will continue to meet at 9 a.m. Thursdays. The orchestra, under Edwin Root, will continue its practice sessions from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. on Thursdays.

An exhibit of oil paintings, framed pastels, and wood carvings made at the center by men and women over fifty were shown July 11 at the state capitol at Salem during the quarterly meeting of the Oregon State Commission on Aging.

First Methodist Church Scene of Jones-Carr Rites

First Methodist church, Medford, was the setting for the wedding of Miss Sally Elaine Carr to Roger Allen Jones on June 20. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Carr, 1662 Scenic avenue, Central Point, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Jones, 920 South Holly street, Medford.

Dr. George G. Rosebery read the double-ring ceremony at two o'clock in the afternoon. More than 100 guests attended.

Mr. Carr gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of white nylon taffeta designed with scoop neckline and cap sleeves, and carried a purple orchid encircled with Ester Reed daisies and a white bible.

The traditional pennies worn in the bride's slipper were supplied by the bridegroom's mother and by the bride's cousin, Mrs. Gaynor Huck, Klamath Falls. The penny loaned by Mrs. Jones was one used at her wedding and had also been worn by the bridegroom's sister.

The pearls she wore were the bridegroom's gift. Miss Roberta Danielson, of Central Point, was maid of honor and also attending the bride were two cousins, Miss Sharon Stevens and Mrs. David Hess, both Rogue River. Miss Danielson wore a ballerina frock of pastel yellow, Miss Stevens wore aquamarine blue and Mrs. Hess' frock was lavender. They carried bouquets of pink carnations and white Ester Reed daisies. Miss Stevens and Mrs. Hess made the corsages for the wedding party.

Diana Gilpatrick, Coquille, Ore., niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a pink frock with matching headband and carried a basket of rose petals. Gregory Jones, Elkhart, Ind., a nephew of the bridegroom, carried the rings. Mrs. Huck loaned the basket and the ring pillow. Kent Jones, Elkhart, Ind., was best man for his brother and ushers were Kenneth Van Ausdall and Warren Stearns. William Wilson played the organ music.

Mrs. Melvin Hall and Mrs. Lyle Schoppert had decorated the church with baskets of roses and other garden flowers.

Kenneth Carr, brother of the bride, and Robert Jones, Elkhart, nephew of the bridegroom, lighted the candles.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Punch was served by Miss Betty Baker, Central Point and the cake was cut and served by Miss Mary Jo Hall, cousin of the bride, and Miss Sonja Hanson. Pouring coffee was Miss Rosalie Hewitt.

Miss Mary Jones took charge of the guest book and the Misses Suzanne Hall and Kareh Hass, both cousins of the bride, the gifts.

Mrs. Doyle Mills and Mrs. Deane Brandon decorated the reception tables.

Mr. Jones and his bride spent their honeymoon on the Oregon coast, the bride wearing for traveling a summer suit of tangerine shade. The newlyweds are living at 920 South Holly street. The bride is a graduate of Crater High school and the bridegroom, who attended school in Klamath Falls and Medford, is now a student at Southern Oregon college. He is employed by the Fir P.ay company, Camp White.

Visits Grandmother

Gretchen Morehead, Coulterville, Calif., is in Medford to spend a vacation with her grandmother, Mrs. E. M. Lovell, 123 Almond street. Gretchen's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Morehead, and her mother is the former Virginia Lovell. The Moreheads formerly lived in Medford.

Scholarship Won By Grace Gail

Miss Grace A. Gail of Gold Hill has been awarded a full tuition PTA scholarship for 1959-60 at Oregon State college.

The Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers awards a substantial number of study grants annually to "encourage capable young people to prepare for teaching careers in Oregon." Selections are based on scholarship, character, leadership, and promise of success in teaching.

The scholarships are renewable from year to year provided the student maintains high grades in college work and remains in teacher training.

Miss Gail will be a junior this fall. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gail.

Temperance Union Plans Annual Picnic

The annual picnic of Medford Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held Thursday, July 16, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Bert R. Elliot Jacksonville - Central Point road, beginning at 11 a.m.

Members are asked to bring their own table service as well as food for the picnic. Part of the program will be pictures shown by Dr. and Mrs. Elliot of some of the many places they have seen in their world travels.

A short business meeting is planned.

Those who need transportation are asked to phone Mrs. Ina Renker, SPring 2-8368.

Broiled canned peach halves go well with ham steak. Brush the drained fruit with dark corn syrup before broiling.

Students Given Partial Tuition

Corvallis - Miss Joan E. Bonney of 6061 Crater Lake highway, Medford, and Herschel L. Mack, 1015 Oak street, Central Point, have been awarded $168 partial-tuition scholarships to start their studies this fall at Oregon State college.

Both graduated last month from Crater high school, Central Point.

The scholarships are sponsored by the state system of higher education to encourage promising high school graduates to continue their education.

At Crater, Miss Bonney was active in National Honor society, Quill and Scroll and as treasurer of the senior class. Young Mack was active in National Honor Society as vice president, vice president of speech club and in the school plays.

Miss Bonney plans to enroll in the school of science at OSC. Mack plans to go into education.

Federation Plans Meeting Friday

Officials of clubs of the Siskiyou district, Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, will hold a meeting Friday, July 17, at 10 a.m. in the Jackson county courthouse auditorium, Medford.

Mrs. R. T. Nichol, district director, requests all club presidents, secretaries, and program chairmen to attend and bring a sack lunch. Coffee will be provided.
