

Face Wins 14th in a Row; Dodgers, Giants Each Lose

United Press International
They call him the "Baron of the Bullpen" or the "Man With the Golden Arm," and come this winter they even may be calling little Elroy Face the most valuable player in the National League.

The pint-sized Pittsburgh reliever ace turned in his 14th straight victory of the season without a loss Sunday when the Pirates beat the Cardinals, 6-5, in a 10-inning opener and was out there on the mound again protecting a 5-4 lead in the nightcap when the game was suspended in the ninth inning due to Pennsylvania's Sunday curfew.

Face's 14 consecutive victories constitute the longest major league winning streak in 12 years and he now is only five shy of the all-time record of 19 in a row during a single season set by Rube Marquard of the Giants in 1912. Dating back to May 30, 1958, Face is unbeaten in 19 straight games.

Roberto Clement's single with the bases full in the 10th inning produced the Pittsburgh victory in the opener. Face was rushed into the breach again in the ninth inning of the nightcap after Gino Cimoli homered to cut the Pirates' lead to 5-4. He struck out pinch-hitter George Crowe just before the game was suspended. It will be completed Aug. 19.

San Francisco Loses
Milwaukee defeated San Francisco, 4-2, but the Giants still stayed a game in front when Cincinnati beat second-place Los Angeles, 4-3. Chicago won the opener of a double-header from Philadelphia, 7-6, then lost the nightcap, 4-1.

In the American League, the second-place White Sox moved to within a game of first place by taking a pair from the Athletics, 5-3 and 9-7; Detroit defeated Cleveland in the opener, 6-2, but the Indians won the nightcap, 8-4; the Red Sox handed the Yankees their fourth straight loss, 7-3; and Baltimore licked Washington, 5-1.

Lew Burdette pitched a seven-hitter against the Giants in notching his 12th victory and moving the third-place Braves within 1 1/2 games of the top. Eddie Mathews lined his 26th homer with two on off Jack Sanford in the third inning for Milwaukee's margin of victory. Jackie Brandt hit a two-run homer for San Francisco.

Gus Bell's ninth-inning single scored Johnny Temple with the Reds' winning run against the Dodgers. Home runs by Vada Pinson, Ed Bailey and Frank Robinson gave Cincinnati its first three runs. Bob Purkey won his eighth game, giving up five hits, including a homer by Gil Hodges. Rookie Larry Sherry was the loser.

Cubs Win Opener
The Cubs won their opener from the Phils with a seven-run rally in the fourth inning that chased loser Reuben Gomez. Earl Averill's three-run homer was the key blow and provided the victory for ex-American leaguer Art Ceccarelli. Joe Lonnett and Ed Bouchee homered for the Phils.

Bouchee hit his second homer of the day in a four-run first inning that clinched the nightcap for Philadelphia. Ray Semproch stopped the Cubs on five hits for his third victory. Moe Drabowicki suffered his seventh loss.

Rookie Jim McCanary hit triples with the bases loaded in each game to pace the White Sox to their sweep over the A's. McCanary, who hit 400 with Colorado Springs, Colo., last year, capped a five-run rally in the first inning of the opener and produced three runs in a four-run fifth inning that won the nightcap. Ray Moore and Bob Shaw were the winners and Bud Daley and Rip Coleman the losers.

Indians Win Nightcap
Rocky Colavito drove in four runs with his 27th and 28th home runs to help the Indians to their nightcap win over the Tigers, who won the opener on Paul Foytack's sixth hit pitching. Minnie Minoso also homered in the nightcap as reliever Jim Perry held the Tigers scoreless over the last 6 1/3 innings to gain his fourth victory. Detroit won the opener with a four-run rally in the fourth inning at the expense of rookie Larry Locke. Foytack gave up only six hits in posting his eighth victory. Harvey Kuenn and Jim Baxes hit homers.

Jackie Jensen drove in four runs with his 19th homer and a pair of doubles against the Yankees to pace the Red Sox to their sixth victory in seven games under new Manager Billy Jurges. The loss, their eighth successive one on a Sunday, dropped the Yankees under the .500 mark again, seven games off the pace. Reliever Bill Monbouquette was the winner and Ralph Terry the loser.

Knuckle-baller Hoyt Wilhelm of the Orioles finally nailed down his 10th victory with a four-hitter over the Senators after he had failed six times to get his 10th. The Orioles collected 10 hits, including homers by Billy Gardner and Joe Taylor. Russ Kemmerer was the loser.

Chiefs First in NWL As Salem Takes Two

By United Press International
The Wenatchee Chiefs found themselves atop the heap in the Northwest league today, thanks to a lot of help from Salem.

The Senators blasted Lewiston out of the league lead Sunday by sweeping a double-header from the Broncos, 3-1 and 6-5. Meanwhile, Wenatchee scalped the Tri-City Braves 8-4 to take over first place in league standings.

Yakima scored two convincing wins over Eugene, 7-5 and 6-2, to move from third to second place in the standings.

Salem's Joe Wilson was the hero of the Senator's first game. Wilson scored two of the Senator's three runs, including a homer in the sixth, and drove in the third. In the nightcap, the Senators' Chuck Lybeck pitched his 11th win against two losses as Salem gave the Broncos an early lead and then took it away.

Wenatchee's Manager Dick Wilson started the Chiefs to their 8-5 victory over Tri-City with a bases-loaded double in the third inning. The Braves were never able to catch up despite a three-run outburst in the sixth.

Yakima capitalized on Eugene errors in both games Sunday with pitcher Archie White chalking up his seventh and eighth wins against three losses. The Bears did it with two big innings, harvesting four runs in the opening frame of the first game and stampeding six runs across the plate in the sixth inning of the second game.

In Saturday action, Lewiston beat Salem 8-3, while Wenatchee was sweeping a twin bill from last-place Tri-City, 5-2 and 4-0.

Yakima continued to show signs of a second-half revival by topping Eugene, 7-5.

Phil Moyer May Fight Don Jordan

Portland—Negotiations are under way for welterweight champion Don Jordan to make another ring appearance in Portland this summer, this time in a non-title fight with Phil Moyer.

Before Jordan's co-managers, Don Nesseth and Jackie McCoy, left Portland they spent time in arranging the fight with promoter Tommy Moyer.

Moyer said Saturday there is a good possibility the fight will be held.

Jordan plans his next title defense against Art Aragon in September in Los Angeles. The overweight match with Phil Moyer would serve as a warmup. Jordan decided Denny Moyer in a title bout here last Friday.

STEARNS AHEAD

Portland—Dick Stearns Sunday defeated Lee Keswick in the opening round of the City of Portland golf tournament at Eastmoreland.

Maids Play In Portland Friday Nite

Portland-Randall's Chuckwagon, Salem, and Rogue Valley Dairy Maids, defending state men's and women's champions, respectively, will be guest teams on Friday night, July 17, in Portland Metropolitan Softball association's "Walk Again Night."

It will be the association's seventh annual doubleheader to fight polio.

Rogue Valley will play American Linen of Portland in the second game of the evening. Chuckwagon meets Pacific Power and Light in the opener at Normandale park.

American Linen and Rogue Valley also have Saturday Sunday evening games which will count in the Northwest Women's Major league. Friday's game is non-league.

London (UPI)—The Times of London (yesterday) carried the following personal advertisement without explanation: "However useless I may be, my gratitude will last forever.—Stephen."

EDSTROM TAKES FIRSTS

Portland—(UPI)—The All-Corners track meet at Wilson high field here Saturday was dominated by Oregon's Dave Edstrom, who competes next week end in the U.S.-Russian international meet at Philadelphia. Edstrom took four first places in the open division, the high hurdles, shotput, discus and high jump.
