Killing its adversary's biggest bid to score with a sparkling triple play, the Medford American Legion junior baseball club walloped Lakeview 12 to 0 on Sunday and restored a tie for first place with Central Point in the southern division of Area 4.

Medford just about settled the issue on the Camp White field yesterday with a six-run first inning. The Post 15 club turned out a 10-hit attack which included five two-baggers. Pitchers Herb Wheeler and Doug Kinney combined for a four-hit performance.

The Sunday outcome sent Medford and Central Point into a Wednesday night game with 5-1 records each. This crucial game will be at 8 p.m. at Memorial stadium, Camp White.

Klamath Falls stayed right behind the leaders with a 5-2 record after defeating Grants Pass 4 to 0 yesterday on a one-hitter by pitcher Blake Griggs.

Occasion of the triple out was in the second inning when Butch Daron and Jerry Parkinson of Lakeview singled off Wheeler and Bobby Hoyez walked to fill the bases with none out. Melvin Smith lined a shoestring fly to first baseman Bob Quinney who tagged his sack and threw to shortstop Dick Ragsdale at the keystone bag. The tag and throw caught Hoyez and Parkinson off base.

Ragsdale, Wheeler Double Medford's six runs in the one inning were on doubles by Ragsdale and Wheeler, a single by Craig Laurance, three bases on balls and a hit batter. Three runs were run over in the second inning on doubles by Jim Barry and Doug Kinney, two bases on balls, a fielder's option, two miscues and a passed ball.

There were two more markers in the fourth frame on singles by Barry and Kinney, a double by Jerry Anderson and an error. A hit by Ragsdale, a fielder's option, stolen base and three misplays got a tally in the fifth.

Ragsdale, Barry and Kinney for Medford and Larry Peters for Lakeview each hit safely twice in three times up.

Wheeler allowed three hits in five innings to Lakeview, walked one and fanned four. Kinney permitted a hit, walked one and whiffed two. Tom Rice went the distance on the hill for Lakeview, giving five bases on balls, hitting a batter and striking out five.

Medford is scheduled to meet Lakeview again next Saturday afternoon in the south central Oregon town.

LARRY HOLMES, Grants Pass, went 12-1 in the high school vault for a class mark. Saturday's meet was the third of five here this season. Rivalry is set for next Saturday, July 18, and an all-comers championship affair will be on July 25. Junior events, in four classes each for boys and girls 16 years of age and under are billed for 10 a.m. with competition for the 17-18 class and the open division at 5 p.m.

City of Medford is a co-sponsor of the meets.

Hood Takes Three Wins In Meet

Mike Hood, Medford, a junior entrant, won first places in three events each in the high school and open divisions Saturday evening in the Oregon AAU Oregon Olympic Development program all-comers track and field meet Saturday evening at the Medford high stadium.

He took the two hurdle races and the broad jump in the two classifications. John Head, Coquille, and John Burns, Central Point, were double victors in the school (17-18-year-olds) dashes and picked up the open first place ribbons as the only contestant. Burns took the prep javelin and high jump. He took the open jump but was beaten in the spear toss in that event by Ron Peery, Medford, and John Jones, Medford. Peery won the event.

The meet drew 29 participants from Coquille, Klamath Falls, Grants Pass, Central Point and Medford. Big name among the entries was Phil Paquin, Grants Pass and University of Oregon, who set a national college freshman pole vault record last year. Paquin was doing his first vaulting in competition since suffering a leg injury in April. His 12 feet 6 inches Saturday was more than two feet under his best mark but established a new record for the open division.

Larry Holmes, Grants Pass, went 12-1 in the high school vault for a class mark. Saturday's meet was the third of five here this season. Studs Take Lakeview To Tie Legion Lead

Central Point Cheney Studs, without hitting a ball out of the infield, turned back Lakeview 3 to 0 Saturday night in an Area 4 southern division American Legion junior baseball encounter at Cheney field.

Only two hits were recorded by the Studs in maintaining their place at the head of the loop and they used only one of them in the runmaking. Free passes to the base paths, Lakeview miscues and stolen bases helped the runners around.

And five innings of no-hit relief pitching by Bill Anhorn handcuffed the Lakeview offense. He came on in the third inning in relief role with the bases loaded, struck out three batters in a row then went on to chalk up a total of 14 strikeouts. He hit a batter and walked just two.

Beat Out Bunt Jerry Hauck beat out a bunt for one of the Stud's safe blows and the other went into the ledger on a swat by Steve Harris. The batted ball struck Jim Doster, who was scouting for second base. Doster was automatically out but Harris was credited with a hit, according to the rule book.

Harley Dickerson, the Studs' lead off batter, scored the first run in the opening inning. He walked, swiped second base and ran home on a passed ball and ran home on Jim Doster's groundout. Next marker, in the fourth inning, also crossed without a hit. Harris went down to first when hit by a pitch and toured the rest of the way on two errors.

Hauck's bunt single was in the fifth inning. There actually a late overthrow of first base on the play. Hauck went on to third base and reached home on a passed ball.

In the two-hitter by Lakeview pitcher Charles Colley, he fanned seven, gave two bases on balls and hit two batters.

Lakeview got its three hits off Studs' starter John Anhorn in his two innings plus. In the third inning he hit a batter, yielded a single to Doug Maxwell and walked an opponent before switching spots with cousin Bill who was in the outfield.

By DOUGLAS GRIPP Portland—(UP)—Nursing a deep left upper lip cut, Denny Moyer said Friday night he had no immediate plans but would take a rematch with welterweight champion Don Jordan "whenever I can get it."

Denny said the champion fought about the way he thought he would expect that Jordan's left hook was sharper and more stinging than he had expected.

"I knew my left jab was the one that hurt the most, but he's tough and he's hard to get to."

Denny's first question in the dressing room was to his manager Sid Flaherty. He asked, "What do you think?" Flaherty replied: "It was nothing to be ashamed of. It was a title fight and we'll try it again."

Gov. Mark Hatfield, who watched the fight from ringside, told Denny in his dressing room later, "Everyone is proud of you. Were all very proud."

Denny said he definitely felt Jordan's weakness was a left jab. He said he really began to feel tired in the last round. Although blood began to flow from his nose in the second round, Moyer said it didn't bother him.

Flaherty said Denny would have "a scar or two" but "he feels good, he looks good. I'm proud of this boy."

Supporting Card Slugging Heavy Portland—(UP)—A four-bout supporting card Friday night at Portland Meadows saw some heavy slugging in contrast to the clever boxing exhibited as Don Jordan successfully defended his world welterweight crown against 19-year-old Portlander Denny Moyer.

In the four-round curtain-raiser, 185-pound Floyd Paul of Portland knocked out 190-pound Jimmy Sehon of Roseburg in 1:25 of the third round.

Dellinger 3-Mile Victor in AAU Meet

Olympia, Wash.—(UP)—Bill Dellinger, former University of Oregon track ace and now in the service at Oxnard AFB, Calif., Saturday ran the fastest three-mile race in the country this year in winning the event at the Pacific Northwest AAU meet here. Dellinger toured the distance in 13:53.1, almost a minute faster than Paul Henden of the Vancouver Olympic Club, who was timed in 14:44.0.

Dellinger's performance earned him a trophy as the outstanding performer in the men's divisions of the annual meet.

Bruce Turnbull of the Tacoma T. and F. Club shattered a meet record in the hop, step and jump with a 47 foot one-half inch effort, just three inches ahead of second-place Darrell Horn, of Oregon State, who went 46 feet, nine inches.

Arts Wins Twice Spike Arlt, former Washington State College track ace, won two events, the men's 440-yard high hurdles and the men's 220-yard dash, and placed third in the men's 100-yard dash.

Arlt's time in the 440 was 54.6 and his effort in the 220 race was 22.6. He ran the 100-yard dash in 10.3, placing behind Horn 10.0 and Jerry Joyce, of the Bellingham Jaycee team, 10.1.

Wayne Moss of Oregon State won the men's high jump with six foot, 5 1/2 inches.

Jim Grelle of Oregon was the 880-yard-run winner with a 1:53.6 effort.

Horn went 23-feet, 10 1/2 inches to win the broad jump easily.

Souchak Wins Open Golf Meet

Pittsburgh—(UP)—Big Mike Souchak of Grossinger, N. Y., $5,000 richer after winning the 56th annual Men's Western Open championship, packed up his golf kit today and headed for a pro-amateur tournament at Odessa, Tex.

The reformed Duke University football star won the crown Sunday at the Pittsburgh Field Club course by shooting a five-under-par 65 in the final round and then watching the pre-tourney favorite, Arnold Palmer, blow a three-foot putt on the final green that cost Palmer a play-off shot.

It was a surprised Souchak who exclaimed "I was just shooting for second or third place." He won with a 72-hole total of 279-eight under par. Palmer's 273 netted him $2,500 as runner-up.

As it was, Big Mike erased a five-stroke lead held jointly by Palmer and young Joe Campbell of Knoxville, Tenn., going into Sunday's final 18 holes.

Campbell, making his first round on the pro-tourament trail, skied to a 76 Sunday and finished with a 278 and $725 in prize money.

After the one-two finishers came George Bayer of LeMont, Ill., with a final-round

66 and a 274 aggregate that paid him $2,000. Ted Kroll of Sarasota, Fla., finished with a 67-275 and $1,500. Tied for sixth with 276's were Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Tex., and Pete Cooper of Lakeland, Fla., each pocketed $1,200.

Phoenix Wins, 11-4, As PCL Tightens Up

United Press International The red hot Phoenix Giants are beginning to look like the power crew of last season which slugged its way to the pennant.

Beset by loose pitching throughout most of this season, the Giants have come to life lately, grabbing 14 of their last 21 games, almost all on the road.

Manager Red Davis' sluggers pounded league-leading Sacramento for the fourth straight time Sunday night, 11-4. They did it with a real flourish.

Bobby Prescott brought a pair of homers to unring the total to 15 on the year. Willie McCovey hit his 23rd, tops in the league, and Jose Pagan cracked his 16th. The Giants tallied all 11 runs in the first four innings. They're now only four games out of first.

In other PCL action, Portland kept Vancouver a half game behind the Solons with a 3-0 win. San Diego scored a 7-5 victory in a 12-inning nightcap to gain a split with Salt Lake after the Bees took the opener 6-1. Seattle walloped Spokane, 8-4. Tight Pennant Chase

The PCL flag chase, as a result of Sacramento's slump and a general turnabout in the league, is now one of the tightest in years. Only 7 1/2 games separate last place Seattle and first place Sacramento.

The Portland Beavers return home tonight to open a series with Seattle, only two games out of first place in the Pacific Coast League.

Karen Hantze, San Diego, moved into the finals of women's play winning by default from Carole Caldwell, Santa Monica, who had to fly east. Dorothy Cheney, Santa Monica, defeated Kathy Chabot, San Diego, 4-6, 6-2, to move into the finals against Miss Hantze.

In doubles' play, Osuna and Jim Buck, Los Angeles, defeated Frank McCabe and Norman Wykes, both of San Diego, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4 and Charles Rombea, a Studio City, and Eugene Tanesuc, Santa Monica, defeated Lesch and Keith Self, San Pedro.

Misses Hantze and Chabot teamed in the women's doubles to down Marjorie Ranney, Garden Grove, and Pat Yeomans, Los Angeles, 6-0, 6-1. In the other women's doubles semifinal, Jeanne La-reau and Georgia Turner, both of San Diego, topped Mrs. Cheney and Helen McDowell, Santa Monica, 6-3, 6-3.
