

Duren Hurts Yank Victory; Chicago Trips Braves, 10-5

United Press International
An 0.83 earned run average and a string of 31 1/3 consecutive scoreless innings stamp Ryne Duren today as the fellow who may yet save the New York Yankee's hide and pride.

Casey Stengel called him "my guy" after Duren saved Tuesday night's 1-0 victory over the Cleveland Indians and it's obvious no Yankee manager ever has relied so heavily on a relief pitcher since Bucky Harris toasted Joe Page in wine and song back in 1947.

No American league relief pitcher ever has won a most valuable player award but Duren could be the first to do so. His 1-2 won-lost record is completely deceptive, of course, because he is credited with eight "saves" and the way he is pitching he could wind up setting two new league records.

With his string of consecutive scoreless innings, Duren is getting into position to threaten Walter Johnson's 46-year-old record of 56 straight. And Ryne's current 0.83 e.r.a. is considerably lower than the 45-year-old league mark of 1.01 held by H. B. Dutch Leonard of the Boston Red Sox.

Protects One-Run Lead
Duren did it again Tuesday night when Stengel hustled him out of the bullpen to protect the one-run Yankee lead which existed since the second inning. Ryne faced eight men, walked one, allowed one hit and struck out three to protect Whitey Ford's first victory in three weeks and the ninth of the year.

The victory broke the Yankees' five-game losing streak and also enabled the Chicago White Sox to move within two percentage points of the Indians via their 7-3 win over the Boston Red Sox. The Baltimore Orioles beat the Kansas City Athletics, 3-1, after a 1-0 defeat and the Washington Senators downed the Detroit Tigers, 4-2, in the other A.L. games.

First place San Francisco was rained out in the National league but neither of the two principal contenders could take advantage of it. The Chicago Cubs whipped the Milwaukee Braves, 10-5, and the Pittsburgh Pirates romped over the Los Angeles Dodgers, 9-1. The St. Louis Cardinals beat the Cincinnati Reds, 6-5, in 11 innings and ended Don Newcombe's eight-game streak.

Pierce Squares Record
Billy Pierce squared his record at 10-10 as the White Sox banged out 13 hits including a homer by John Romano and a two-run single by red-hot rookie Jim McNanny. Milt Pappas pitched a five-hitter and drove in a run with a single to win his 10th game for Baltimore after Ray Herbert's four-hitter basted Billy O'Dell for Kansas City in the first game of a twilight doubleheader.

Bob Allison hit his 23rd homer and Roy Sievers his 11th for the Senators as Pedro Ramos chalked up his 10th win. The Senators clinched the game with a three-run fourth-inning rally.

Ernie Banks' double and pitcher Bill Henry's bases-filled single were the big blows of a four-run seventh-inning rally that lifted the Cubs to their fifth win in 10 meetings with the Braves. Winner Henry allowed only two hits and one run over the last 5 1/3 innings.

Vern Law won his 10th game for the Pirates behind a 14-hit attack that included a triple by Bob Skinner and two doubles by Dick Groat. Johnny Podres was routed in the first inning by the Pirates who moved within 2 1/2 games of first place.

Joe Cunningham singled in the 11th inning for his fourth hit of the game to break up the 11-inning Cincinnati-St. Louis game. Lindy McDaniel won his second game for the Cardinals while Newcombe suffered his fifth defeat compared to nine triumphs.

Drysdale To Hurl Against Pirates

Pittsburgh - (UP) - All-Star hero Don Drysdale is called into service today in an attempt to halt a three-game Los Angeles Dodgers losing streak against a Pittsburgh team now making noises like a pennant contender. The Dodgers bowed to the Pirates, 9-1, Tuesday night. While Los Angeles remained 1 1/2 games behind first-place San Francisco, the Pirates strengthened their four-place spot and came within one game of the third-place Dodgers.

Drysdale, 10-6, who won in relief against the Braves in his last outing, seeks victory No. 11 tonight against Bob Friend, 4-10. The big right-hander for the Dodgers hurled three perfect innings against the American league nine in the All-Star game last week.

It was a disappointing return to action for Johnny Podres Tuesday night. Podres, sidelined by a bad back after holding the club together on its last road trip, didn't survive the first inning in the Pittsburgh game.

After one man was retired, the Pirates banged out five hits in a row, including a double by Dick Groat and triple by Bob Skinner. Dick Stuart, Roberto Clemente and Bill Mazeroski all singled.

Five runs crossed the plate in the single inning. Roger Craig was next in line for the Dodger pitching crew, and managed to get through five innings without further damage. He was lifted for pinch-hitter Ron Fairly in the sixth.

The only Dodger run came in that sixth inning when Charlie Neal banged a double and Wally Moon singled him home.

Giants, Phils Play Tonight

Philadelphia - (UP) - Mike McCormick, 8-7, who has shut out Philadelphia three times this season, takes the mound for the San Francisco Giants against the Phillies tonight. Rain, which has a habit of falling when the Giants arrive here, washed out Tuesday's scheduled twin bill. But the gloom of the night's rain was lessened considerably by the defeats handed to Los Angeles and Milwaukee.

As a result, the Giants increased their lead to a game over the Braves and a game and a half over the Dodgers. The Pirates are only two and a half games out in fourth. The Giants will play a twilight double-header against the Phillies Thursday before moving to Pittsburgh where they will play four games. After that they return home for a big set against the Dodgers.

Robin Roberts, 7-8, who owns one of the three Phil wins over the Giants this year, will face McCormick on the hill tonight.

Redding Hosts AAU Swimmers

Redding, Calif. - (UP) - The National AAU Women's Swimming and Diving championships kicks off here at 6 p.m. with 20 of the country's mermaids competing in the mile event. Headlining the cast is Sylvia Ruuska, the all-around star from Berkeley, Calif. Entries for the four day competition closed with 141 contestants scheduled to participate in all events.

Dittmer Belts Sacs Back Into PCL Lead

United Press International
The Sacramento Solons vaulted back into first place in the Pacific Coast league Tuesday night thanks to some prodigious slugging by a normally light hitting cast-off. The cast-off, infielder Jack Dittmer, slammed three home runs and a single while batting in seven runs to lead the Solons to a 10-8 win over San Diego.

Vancouver, which held a 24-hour percentage point lead in the circuit, dropped back to second, a full game behind

Mims, Benton Fight Tonight

Miami Beach, Fla. - (UP) - George Benton, an unranked middleweight who is about as popular as the tax collector, will meet seventh-ranked Holly Mims tonight in a nationally televised 10-rounder.

Benton, a 26-year-old fighter from Philadelphia, has been a professional for 10 years but his record shows he has trouble finding men willing to enter the ring with him. He has fought only 41 times during the decade, winning 36 fights and losing 4. One ended in a draw.

Mims has faced such top-notch fighters as Ray Robinson and Joey Giardello but is only a slight favorite tonight because Benton's reputation is higher than his ranking.

The winner of tonight's bout was reported to have an outside chance to meet the winner of the Carmen Basilio-Gene Fullmer match. Basilio and Fullmer will fight for the National Boxing association version of the middleweight crown Aug. 28 at San Francisco.

South Names PCL All-Stars

San Diego - (UP) - The south team selected to meet the north in the Pacific Coast League All-Star Game here Monday was announced Tuesday.

Selected by the fans were pitchers Dick Hall, Salt Lake City, and Jake Striker, San Diego; infielders Willie McCovey, Phoenix; Bill Hunter, San Diego; Ben Valenzuela, Phoenix; and Jose Pagan, Phoenix; catcher Al Jones, San Diego; outfielders Mike Krsnich, Sacramento; Al Heist, Sacramento; and Carlos Bernier, Salt Lake City.
