Medford Plays Lakeview, Studs Take On K. Falls As Legion Games Finish

Southern division junior Legion baseball winds up this week end with two important games, both away from home. Medford, enjoying the southern division lead after Wednesday night's victory over Central Point, journeys to Lakeview to take on the stellar dwellers at their home diamond Saturday at 2 p.m. Lakeview has yet to win a ball game this season but the local horseholders can't afford to be too confident. A loss to Lakeview would tie up the standings again and force a play-off game.

The Central Point Studs play at Klamath Falls Sunday at 1 p.m. The teams, with identical 5 and 2 records, currently share the second place position. If Medford loses Saturday night, the winning team will end up in a tie for first. Otherwise it will have to settle for the second spot.

To Play Roseburg
The winner of the southern division — and Saturday will determine whether it will be Medford — will battle Roseburg in a play-off game between the southern and northern divisions.

The first play-off game is scheduled for 8 p.m. Monday night at Camp White stadium. The second in the two-out-of-three series will be Wednesday night in Roseburg, with a third game, if necessary, to follow there the same night.

Gardener Lake Ski Club Contest To Be Held Here Tomorrow and Saturday

Slalom, jumping, speed and trick skiing will be featured tomorrow and Sunday at the annual water ski tournament at Gardener Lake. Sponsored by the Gardener Lake Water Ski Club, the event is expected to draw upwards of 1000 spectators and 100 skiers. Skiers, both novice and professional, from Portland, Eugene, Seattle and California points will compete.

Cliff McGinty, club secretary, said that local novice skiers are especially invited. Applications can be picked up at Skinner's Buick-Cadillac agency and will be accepted at the lake until 7 a.m. Saturday.

Entry fee, including insurance, is $3 for juniors and $5 for those over 15 years.

Boots Wins Oregon PGA

Klamath Falls — (UPI) — Boots Porterfield, Grants Pass, successfully defended his Oregon PGA golf title at the Reames Country Club here Thursday by shooting a 10-under-par for the 32 holes played.

Runner-up Harvey Hixson was 2-under-par for the match.

Porterfield won a 5 and 4 victory in a fast moving links contest in 100 degree weather. He won his first title last year at Redmond.

He fired a 33-33-32 Thursday and was even for the five holes played on the final nine. Hixson shot 36-35-32 and was two-over on the final nine. On the third nine, both men shot 32 — four under par.

Wednesday, Porterfield pulled out a 1-up win over Ed Oldfield of Astoria to reach the finals match against Hixson. Hixson also turned in a 1-up victory, over Bob McKendrick of Oswego.

Ingo Wants A Birthday Gift

Arvidsjaur, Sweden — (UPI) — Ingemar Johansson will be defending his world heavyweight title on his 27th birthday if his return fight with Floyd Patterson is staged at New York, Sept. 22.

Promoter Bill Rosensohn has announced Sept. 22 as the proposed date of the match.

"That's a fine date with me," said the champion, appearing in an exhibition here. "And I should give myself a present of a victory."

Unbeaten Ingemar of Goteborg, Sweden, said he's keeping himself in excellent condition for Patterson, from whom he won the title on a third-round knockout at New York, June 26.

"I've trained all the time during my exhibition tour," he explained. "I'm in fine shape but I may have to use an American sparring partner here before I leave for America, six weeks before the bout."

He and Rosensohn are scheduled for a conference at Goteborg on July 24 to discuss details of the fight.

COULD SURVIVE A WAR

Washington — (UPI) — A House appropriations subcommittee made public Thursday night testimony in which Atomic Energy Commission Chairman John A. McCone said a nuclear war would not wipe out all civilization. "Despite the effects of the nuclear war on the countries involved and the less serious, but still serious, effects on the countries immediately adjoining them, the balance of the world would not be disastrously affected," McCone said.

'Big Four' Becomes 'Big Five'; Stanford Enters Conference

Stanford, Calif. — (UPI) — "And then there were five..." Stanford University dropped its hard-to-get act today and became a charter member of the Athletic Association of Western Universities, boosting to five the number of Pacific Coast Conference schools joining a new group which followed the collapse of the 43-year-old PCC.

The Indians' decision was announced Thursday night by University President Wallace Sterling. The four incumbent schools immediately rolled out the red carpet.

Left to shift for themselves was the erstwhile northwest PCC faction of Oregon, Oregon State, Washington State and Idaho. Aside from Idaho's outcast vandals, the Oregon and Washington schools apparently were on the verge of launching a "free ride" program of aid to athletes—a factor shunned by the Indians during disclosures of infractions in 1956.

Dink Isn't Excited
Several West Coast athletic figures refused to get excited over Stanford's entrance. Dink Templeton, the Indians' legendary track coach of other years who now is a radio commentator, wondered aloud if the "Big Four" had dropped a "veto power" when Stanford joined up which gave the loop a working majority.

Al Masters, semi-retired athletic director at Stanford, said he was glad the move was made because the Indians "had to join a conference." But he also asked whether a five team loop would be recognized by the NCAA.

One Thing for Sure
One thing remained certain. Next January's representative in the Rose Bowl would be based on the team which comes out on top in the ghostly Pacific Coast Conference race. The Big Five, as it now stands, would not draw from its own group until after the football season of 1960.

Harris, of Oregon, refused to comment on Thursday night's developments. Dr. A. L. Strand, president of Oregon State, said "It was the natural thing for Stanford to do," but would not comment further.

Coach and athletic director Jack Moore Myers of College of Pacific, admittedly on the prowl to enter his school into a conference, grimly said, "I wish we could get into it."

Nalu Sails Into Yacht Race Lead

Honolulu — (UPI) — The sloop Nalu II, nosed out in two previous Transpacific yacht races, came through in Silky Sullivan style today to take over the handicap lead from the yawl Chubasco.

Balboa investment broker Peter Grant used every bit of canvas possible to bring the 46-foot sloop across the diamond head finish line at 4:09:39 a.m. (p.d.t.).

The Nalu II's handicap time for the 2,225-mile run from San Pedro, Calif., to Honolulu was 9 days, 5 hours, 50 minutes and 27 seconds. The Chubasco finished in 10 days, 20 hours, 18 minutes and 15 seconds.

The sloop's stretch drive apparently assured it the Class C and the fleet handicap trophies.

However, a darkhorse, the Class D Debit, still had a mathematical chance for a handicap victory. To win, it must cross the finish line by 6:30 a.m. (p.d.t.) Saturday.

MAY WINS HURDLES

Frankfurt, Germany — (UPI) — Willie May of the University of Indiana captured the 110-meter hurdles in 14.4 seconds during Thursday night's international track and field meet. Mel Schwarz of the U.S. Marine Corps soared 14 feet, 5 inches to win the pole vault event.

Ruuska Wins Mile Swim

Redding, Calif. — (UPI) — It's one down and three to go today for Sylvia Ruuska as heavy firing got under way in the Women's National AAU swimming championships.

Miss Ruuska successfully defended her mile crown Thursday by winning in a new meet record time of 21:28.9.

On today's program are the 100-yard freestyle, 220 backstroke, 220 breaststroke, 440 individual medley and one meter springboard diving. Miss Ruuska is the defending champion in 440-yard medley.

Defending champion in the 100 freestyle and 220 backstroke is Chris Von Salza of Santa Clara, Calif. Susie Ordogh, Seattle, Wash., is the defending champ in the 220-yard breaststroke.

KAMLOOP CAUGHT—This 4-pound kalamloop trout seems to be grinning as widely as the young fisherman who caught it. Michael Lamont, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lamont of Medford, caught the big fish at Diamond lake on July 11.

All-Comers Track Meet Is Tomorrow

The last all-comers track and field meet before championship competition will be held tomorrow at Medford High school. This will be the fourth weekly meet, with the final, championship contest scheduled for Saturday, July 25.

Competition in all track and field events will be held in the open division and the age 17-18 division, beginning at 5 p.m.

Junior events will be held from 10 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. The junior division includes boys in age groups 9-10, 11-12, 13-14, and 15-16; and girls in age groups 9-10, 11-12, and 13-14.

All amateur athletes are eligible to compete. An entry fee of 25 cents, payable at the meet, is assessed. Ribbons are awarded first through fifth place winners.

GOLF TOURNAMENT

Portland — (UPI) — Dick Hogan, Rose City Golf Club, and Rick Cooney, Eastmoreland Golf Club, met today in semi-finals of the Portland City Golf Tournament while Dick Estey, Columbia Edgewater, met Tom Weeg, Eastmoreland, in the other semi-final match.
