Church Rites Wed Pair; To Reside in Medford

Mr. and Mrs. Richard LeRoy Rankin will return to Medford tomorrow following a wedding trip to San Francisco and Santa Cruz. Mrs. Rankin is the former Janine Estelle Norlander, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Tucker Jr., 543 Tucker street, Ashland. Mr. Rankin is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Rankin, 842 Taylor avenue, Medford.

The couple were married July 11 at First Methodist church, Medford, with the Rev. William O. Walker, pastor of the Methodist church, Winston-Dillard, and friend of the bridegroom's family, officiating at the three o'clock afternoon rites. Two hundred relatives and friends attended the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a white Chantilly lace gown in ballerina length and her fingertip veil was held by a tiara of pearls and brilliants. Her jewelry was a double strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis encircling a white orchid. Mr. Tucker gave his niece in marriage.

Miss Dorene Johnson, LaCanada, Calif., cousin of the bride, was honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Marshall and Miss Karen Gott. Little Maralee Tucker, Ashland, cousin of the bride, served as flower girl.

Miss Johnson wore a champagne colored silk organza frock and carried a nosegay of pink roses and white carnations. The bridesmaids wore lime green and lavender chiffon dresses and carried nosegays of pink and white carnations. The flower girl wore an orchid colored nylon organza frock and carried a basket of pink roses.

Vernon Bright served as best man. Gale Eastwood and David Rankin, Stockton, Calif., cousin of the bridegroom, ushered. Danny Rankin, Stockton, Calif., cousin of the bridegroom was ring bearer.

For her niece's wedding Mrs. Tucker wore a powder blue silk organza dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Rankin wore a pink linen knit dress with white accessories. Their corsages were white orchids.

Pink and white gladioli decorated the church for the wedding. Mrs. Morris Tucker was organist and William Wil-

Antony-Gorman Rites Held in San Francisco

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Graham Antony, whose wedding was an event of June 15 in St. Monica's church in San Francisco, are now living in Portland. The bride is the former Evelyn Laetitia Gorman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan P. Gorman, San Francisco, and the bridegroom is a son of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Antony, 401 South Modoc avenue, Medford, who were in San Francisco for the wedding.

The nuptial mass was celebrated at 11 o'clock in the morning by the bride's brother, the Rev. Paul Joseph Gorman, who was ordained just two days before the wedding. He was assisted by a second brother of the bride, the Rev. Robert S. Gorman, who officiated for the marriage ceremony, and the bride's uncle, the Rev. Robert O. Hickman, Winchester, Va., was assistant celebrant.

The bride's gown of white tulle taffeta was fashioned with a bodice of re-embroidered Alencon lace, crushed cummerbund and bell-shaped skirt with side and back fullness terminating in a chapel-length train. The Juliet cap of Alencon lace and pearls which held her full-length illusion veil had previously been worn by her twin sister, Mrs. Dean Haggard, Baltimore, Md. The bride's bouquet was of valley lilies, orchids, bouvardia and ivy.

Miss Margaret Ann Gorman was her sister's honor attendant. Bridesmaids were the bridegroom's sister, Miss Terryl Antony, Medford, and the Misses Ludwiena Dykzeul and Marilyn Leheh. They wore white silk sheath frocks with crowns of pearls and illusion face veils, and carried arm bouquets of multicolored flowers.

Mr. Gorman escorted his daughter to the altar. Paul G. Antony, Medford, was best man for his brother and ushers were Robert Rasmussen and Lt. Norman Chapman, both Medford, and Ronald Nutting, brother-in-law of the bridegroom from Oroville, Calif.

The reception was held at the St. Francis Yacht club. For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a frock of champagne lace with matching jacket and brown orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of beige Alencon lace and her flowers were pale green orchids.

Mr. Antony and his bride spent their honeymoon at Carmel and Monterey. Mrs. Antony attended San Francisco College for Women, and O'Connor School of Nursing. At the time of her marriage she was employed at Stanford University Hospital center, Palo Alto, Calif.

The bridegroom holds a bachelor of science degree from the University of Santa Clara, did graduate work at and is now a student at the University of Oregon Medical school, Portland.

In San Francisco for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. McIntyre, Mrs. G. B. Jones, aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. S. Ralph Dippel, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Stone and daughters, Neila and Gayle.

Gold Hill Church Setting For Byers-Hood Ceremony

Gold Hill—Miss Helen A. Hood became the bride of David W. Byers in a double-ring ceremony held Friday evening, July 3, at the Gold Hill Community Methodist Church here. The Rev. James F. Eubanks, pastor of the church officiated at the seven thirty o'clock ceremony, attended by 25 relatives of the couple.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melford M. Hood, Gold Hill, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Byers, 1217 Leland street, Medford.

The wedding color theme was blue and white. White gladioli and blue hydrangeas were combined with baby breath and fern in tall white baskets. A single blue candle sprinkled with glittering stars and encircled by white angel hair stood on the altar which was draped with white satin.

White bows were at the pew ends. Vases of white Ester Reed daisies, and an arrangement of tinted blue Ester Reed daisies in a crystal swan, loaned for the occasion by Mrs. Earl Moore, completed the church decorations. The single candle used for the ceremony had been presented to the bride's sister, Miss Suzanne Hood, when she was installed queen of Bethel 38, International Order of Job's Daughters, of June 20 in Central Point. The bride is a past queen of Bethel 38.

Mrs. Roy Eskew played the traditional wedding music. Mrs. Earl Moore was in charge of decorations, and flowers for the wedding were provided by Mrs. J. G. Kofahl, and Mrs. S. M. Christensen.

The bride was married in the church of which she is a member, and she was a member of the original church choir.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace over white satin, fashioned on princess lines, with gathered three quarter length sleeves, neckline dipping low in back and ballerina length skirt. Her fingertip illusion veil was held by a white lace cap. She carried white carnations.

Miss Suzanne Hood was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a ballerina length frock of light blue nylon, and a jeweled tiara. Her wristlet bouquet was white carnations mixed with tinted blue carnations.

Dean Byers, Medford, served as best man for his brother, and seated the guests. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hood wore a pleated blue jersey dress and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a suit of biege shantung and white accessories. Their corsages were white gardenias.

Among the guests attending the wedding were the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Helen Jones, and her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Alice Hood, both of Medford. Attending from out of town was a cousin of the bride, John F. Chisholm, U. S. Navy, who came from Fallon, Nev., for the ceremony.

The bride's parents were hosts for a reception at their home in Gold Hill immediately after the ceremony, attended by only relatives. The bride's mother cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Leota Lewis, great aunt of the bride, Medford, poured punch and assisted Mrs. Hood with the serving. Mrs. Rolland Washburn decorated the cake, for the occasion.

The newlyweds traveled to San Francisco, Calif. for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a black and white dress, with white accessories, and the corsage from her bridal bouquet. While in California they were guests in the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James McGee.

Following their wedding trip, the newlyweds were honored at a second reception given by the bride's parents Thursday evening, July 9, at the Girl's Community Club in Medford. Seventy relatives and friends attended the event.

A wedding cake made and decorated by Mrs. Harold Mercer, aunt of the bride, Medford, centered the bride's table.

Miss Sharon Lilly and Miss Beryle Bosshard, cut and served the cake. Pouring coffee were Miss Karen Byington and Miss Maxine Woodward. Miss Wanda Cossey and Miss Sylvia Hukill, presided at the punch bowl. Miss Judi Hover and Miss Elena Robinson took charge of the gift table. Miss Maralee Chisholm, cousin of the bride, and Miss Velma Piele wrote the guest list.

The couple is residing at 431 Vilas road, Central Point. The bride, a member of a well known Gold Hill family, is a graduate of Crater High school with the class of 1958 and is a student operator at Medford Beauty school. Prior to her marriage she resided at the Girl's Community club for nearly a year.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Crater High school, class of 1957. He is a member of the Army Reserve 417 Engineer Brigade and is employed by Cleo Epps, lumber firm.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honored at two pre-nuptial parties. Mrs. E. L. McGraw and her daughter, Mrs. Judy McGraw were hostesses for the first shower given at the McGraw home at 3288 Hollywood avenue. A surprise bridal shower was given at the Medford Beauty school by her associates there.
