Hurls Shot Put To Pace U.S. Team

Philadelphia - (UP) - Parry O'Brien, that colossus from California, hurled the shot to a world record 63 feet, 2 1/2 inches Saturday to pace the United States to a 59 to 47 lead over Russia at the half-day track and field struggle.

As expected, world record holder Vasily Kuznetsov, 27-year-old Moscow teacher, took the half-day lead in the decathlon with 4,625 points - 50 points ahead of his record pace at Moscow in May.

With former world record holder Rafer Johnson of California on the sidelines because of auto accident injuries, Mike Herman of N.Y.U. held second place against the 100-meters, broad jump, shot put, high jump and 400-meters with 4,391 points. Oregon's Dave Edstrom held third place with 4,346 points and Russia's Igor Ter - Ovanesyan was fourth with 4,338 points.

Greg Bell of Indiana shared top honors with O'Brien. The handsome two-time Olympic champion, as he sped down the broad jump runway and hurled himself to the second best leap of all time - a 26 foot, 7 inch jump which was just one and one quarter inches shy of the fabled Jesse Owens' 24-year-old record.

The Americans blasted into their lead on the strength of one-two finishes in the 100 meters, 110-meters hurdles, 400-meters run and the shot put while the Russians scored only two such doubles by taking win and place in the 20-kilometer walk and the 10,000-meter run in which blond Bob Soth of Drake collapsed in 83-degree heat with less than three laps to go.

Russians Score Upset

Russia's biggest upset was scored in the hammer throw where, on his last toss, 28-year-old Vasily Rudenkov, a Moscow metal worker, hurled the ball and chain 219 feet to beat Olympic champion and world record holder Hal Conolly of Boston. The Russians also took third place as Mikhail Krivososov surpassed Tufts' Bob Backus. Conolly couldn't do better than 216 feet, 7 inches.

Other American winners under a blazing sun were Ray Norton of San Jose State, who took a hair decision from teammate Bob Poynter in a 10.3 finish in the 100 meters; Hayes Jones of Eastern Michigan with an eyelash (with a 13.6) win over Olympic champion Lee Calhoun in the 110-meter hurdles; Eddie Southern of Texas in a blazing 46.2 runaway in the 400 meters; Don (Tarzan) Bragg of Villanova with a 15 feet, 2 3/4 inch pole vault and the Yankee 400-meter relay team.

The Russian women swept through their events with only one first place loss. That came in the 100-meter dash, which was won by Barbara Jones of Chicago, a sophomore at Tennessee State, in 11.7 seconds. The meet winds up today with 11 more events in the men's division, plus completion of the decathlon's final five events, and five more women's events.

The Brakettes, of Stratford, Conn., coming to Oregon for Centennial Softball Attractions, will meet the Rogue Valley Dairy Maids in one game and the strong Erv Lind Florists of Portland in the other.

Over the 12-year span of 1947 through 1958 the Raybestos club has won 378 games and lost 76. Best season was last year with 52 victories against only five losses.

In the world title season the Brakettes were led by players as Mickey Macchietto, Mary Hartman, Bertha Ragan and Joan Joyce, Macchietto, catcher, swatted, 326 last year while Hartman, outfielder, had a .319 average and eight home duns and five triples in the 52 games. Ragan pitched 24 triumphs and did not suffer a defeat. Joyce had a 17-3 hurling mark. The teams 1958 batting average was .282.

Raybestos won the East Coast crown in 1948. It has been regional champion eight times and National Girls league winner on a number of occasions. The club reached the world tourney quarter-final in 1953 and the semi-finals in 1956.

The Lind Florists themselves have a national reputation and several All-Americans. They won 1944 and 1953 world diadems. Recognition came to the team recently when it was selected by the Department of the Army to tour Japan and other Pacific islands. The team will leave the United States in September.

The long-legged Igor led Mike Herman of Brooklyn, N. Y., over the line by better than a yard. World decathlon champion Vasily Kuznetsov was third and Dave Elstrom of Sherwood, Ore., fourth.

The winning time equaled that of Kuznetsov when he set his world's mark in the decathlon.

U. S. Women Take Lead

The United States women took the lead in their meet with Russia when Barbara Jones of Chicago, a sophomore at Tennessee State, repeated her triumph of one year ago at Moscow in the 100-meter dash.

Zurich, Switzerland - (UP) - Brigham Young University's track team won eight of the 11 events it entered Saturday in an international meet. Unusually hot weather drove most sport fans in the area to the beaches and only 350 watched the Americans dominate the competition on the Letzigrund track.

Nalu II Wins Race; Portland Ship Silent

By ROBERT C. MILLER

Honolulu - (UP) - Peter Grant's 46-foot sloop Nalu II emerged today as the overall winner of the annual Transpacific Yacht race Saturday with more than half of the 41 entrants across the finish line.

Grant's Balboa, Calif., boat made a roaring spinnaker run down the Molokai Channel to take both the handicap fleet and the Class C trophies. The only boat which had a chance to take the fleet handicap honors was the San Francisco sloop Debit, but she lost out when she failed to cross the finish line by dawn Saturday.

All but one of the class championships were settled with 25 yachts across the finish line.

Class A honors went to Sally Ames and her 75-foot schooner Constellation from the West Coast Yacht Club in Los Angeles. The Los Angeles Ketch Kamilli was second and Baldwin M. Baldwin's Escape, from Newport Harbor, Calif., was third.

Arnold Haskell's trim yawl Chubasco out of Newport Harbor easily won the Class B trophy and was second in the handicap fleet competition just three hours behind Nalu II. The Seattle yawl Maruffa, owned by John Graham was second, and Bob Roberts' Los Angeles cutter Nam Sang was third.

Only the Class D championship was still in doubt. The times placed Echo, Debit and Sayonara all in contention.

At the 5 a.m. h.s.t. 8 a.m. p.d.t. roll call this morning, Dr. Glen Harmon's Echo from Elkhorn YC at Moss Landing, Calif., was leading the pack with the Stillwater Yacht Club's Sayonara, San Francisco Bay, second and Ted Stephens' Stockton sloop Debit, third.

The remaining 16 yachts in the race are expected to cross the Diamond Head finish line during the week end.

The first of the Hawaii yachts, Frank Rothwell's No BuHu, arrived at 10 a.m. p.d.t. to accompaniment of hundreds of firecrackers to celebrate the event in typical Chinese fashion.

Braves Climb From Cellar

By United Press International

The Tri-City Braves are out of the Northwest league cellar Saturday, thanks to steady Ted Edmunds.

Edmunds tossed an eight-hitter at Eugene Friday night to allow the Braves to change places with the Emeralds. It was Edmunds' 14th win of the season against eight defeats.

Tri-City won it in the top of the sixth. Dan Holden and Harry Dunlop walked. Both advanced on a sacrifice and Holden scored on an infield out, moving Dunlop to third. Dunlop raced home on a single by Harvey Jones.

In other action, Yakima belted Lewiston 14-5 and Salem grabbed a 4-3 squeaker from Wenatchee.

The first of the Australia entries, the Antra V, was also due in early this morning.

Race officials said they still have had no word on the location of Janie, a Portland sloop which they at first expected to arrive Friday.

However, no concern was felt for the craft. The Janie has been silent since July 9, when her radio evidently broke down.

Bill Forrest, skipper of the Patroniall, said Friday night that he talked to the Janie four days ago. He said the sloop's skipper, Don Schafer, reported that everything was "going okay."

Schafer said he was having radio trouble and was getting a shock everytime he tried to transmit. Forrest estimated that the Janie would not arrive here before early Sunday.

The Coast Guard said a precautionary search of an area 180 miles at sea would be made in an attempt to locate the missing yacht. A routine flight failed to spot the Janie Friday night in the area where most of the yachts were sailing at that point.

Joe Gordon, Minoso Are Penalized

Boston - (UP) - Manager Joe Gordon and left-fielder Minnie Minoso of the Cleveland Indians were given three-day suspensions and fined $200 each by American league President Joe Cronin yesterday.

The ruling, first major crackdown by Cronin since he took office early this year, was ordered by telegram and came as a consequence of action by Gordon and Minoso, in Cleveland's victory over the Red Sox Friday night.

Both were ejected from the game by umpire Frank Umont after a fiercely disputed interference call.
