Hanford Picketing Enters Sixth Day

Richland, Wash.—(UPI)—Picketing at the Hanford Atomic Works here moved into its sixth day today.

Local 77 of the Electrical Workers Union set up the pickets last Monday, and an estimated 500 construction workers refused to cross the lines.

The local was protesting the George Estep Co., Yakima, for bringing non-union labor to the job.

Picture of a Promise

Sure, she's a grand old flag!
That's why we salute her.
That's why we pledge allegiance to her.

That pledge, in its simplest terms, is another way of saying, "Count me in. You're my country and I love you and need you. Your problems are my problems, and I'm with you all the way."

Your country's biggest single problem is the perpetual responsibility for keeping the peace its people want. You can help with this problem by remembering this:

Peace costs money. Money for military and industrial strength. Money for science and education. And money saved by individuals—by you—to help keep the economy strong.

Bonds provide this money. Every Bond you buy is an important, personal pledge of allegiance to your country. Think it over.

Are you buying enough?
