

Besana, Brown Pitch For PCL All-Stars

United Press International Sacramento and Vancouver front-runners in the tight "any-one-can-still-win-it" Pacific Coast League, take time off tonight to join the other six teams in the league's annual North-South All Star Game at San Diego.

Vancouver lefthander Fred Besana will take the mound for the North, composed of players from Spokane, Seattle, Portland and Vancouver and coached by Vancouver's Charlie Metro.

The South, leading 9-3 in the annual game, will send Sacramento's Winston Brown to the hill. Players from San Diego, Phoenix and Salt Lake City will join Brown and Sacramento teammates, coached by San Diego's George Metkovich.

Solons Blank Salt Lake
Vancouver and the Solons tangle Wednesday in the first of a crucial three-game set at Sacramento. Both clubs received top pitching Sunday night as the Solons blanked out Salt Lake City 3-0, and Moutie Ery Palica twirled an eight-hitter to top Seattle 8-4.

In other action, Phoenix powered past San Diego 9-7, and Spokane and Portland split a double header. The Indians won the opened 8-6, but dropped the nightcap, 6-2.

Maverick Is Top Hydro

Coeur D'Alene, Idaho (UP) - The unlimited hydroplanes were pulling out today, most of them for Seattle, and the Gold Cup regatta, following Sunday's accident, marred Diamond Cup race here, won by Bill Waggoner's Maverick.

Jack Regas, excited, peppery driver of Miss Bardahl was staying behind. He was unconscious and in serious condition at General Hospital here with injuries suffered when the sleek, green hydroplane spun out violently in the third lap of heat 2-A.

Regas, last year's Gold Cup winner in Hawaii Kai III, was suffering from a fractured skull, three broken ribs, a broken bone in his right hand and cuts and bruises.

Maverick, driven by Reno, Nev. cowboy Bill Stead, was declared the winner after the final heat was halted at the end of the third lap because Miss Spokane flipped her driver, Norm Evans of Chelan, Miss Thriftway was second.

Bisons Move Towards Flag

United Press International The Buffalo Bisons are pulling away from the field in the International League pennant race.

Although they split a Sunday doubleheader with Rochester, the Bisons increased their lead to 5½ games when second-place Miami suffered twin defeats at Havana.

Don Erickson allowed only five hits in blanking the Red Wings, 9-0, in the opener at Buffalo but Rochester clubbed four Bison hurlers for 16 hits in winning the second game, 10-1.

DRY RUN
Battleground, Vt. (UP) - Police said the thieves who broke into a dozen soft drink vending machines apparently weren't heavy drinkers. They took no soda; only three dollars in change.

Zack Wheat Inducted In Hall of Fame

Cooperstown, N.Y. (UP) - Zack Wheat, one-time south-paw slugger who still holds six all-time Dodger records, was to be officially inducted into baseball's Hall of Fame today in annual ceremonies at the hall here.

The day's program also included the annual Hall of Fame exhibition game, this year between the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Kansas City Athletics.

Wheat, 71, former native of Hamilton, Mo., who now lives in Sunrise Beach, Mo., was on hand for the ceremonies. Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick and Hall of Famer Ty Cobb headed the list of dignitaries who were to take part in the program.

Wheat was purchased by the Brooklyn team, then called the Superbas, from Mobile Ala. in the 1908 season for $1,200. He played with Brooklyn from 1909 through 1928 and still holds the club record for total hits, 2,804, most at-bats, 8,859, most singles, 2,048, most doubles, 464 and most triples, 161. He had a lifetime batting average of .317 and was a unanimous selection for the Hall of Fame last Feb. 1 by the 11-man baseball "Committee on Veterans."

Wright Wins Rich Prize

United Press International Alliance, Ohio (UP) - Blond belter Mickey Wright eyed the $15,500 Mount Prospect Open today with prospects of landing two of the richest tournaments on the women's summer tour.

Miss Wright, of San Diego, two-time Women's Open winner, annexed another prize Sunday - the $12,500 Alliance International women's golf tournament here.

She picked up $2,200 in edging by one stroke Mariene Bauer Hage of Pittsburg and Murie MacKenzie of St. Petersburg, Fla., in the richest stop on the women's tour to date. The Mount Prospect meet starting in Illinois this Thursday makes the two richest tournaments of the year played within two weeks.

Miss Wright's Alliance check brought to about $11,000 her bankroll gathered on the tournament trail this summer. It was her third tournament victory.

China May Compete In Olympics

Philadelphia (UP) - Chances of Nationalist China competing in the 1960 summer Olympic games in Rome were given a boost today by Avery Brundage, president of the International Olympic Committee.

Brundage, of Chicago, said here Sunday he will "recommend and support" recognition of the Nationalist Chinese as Olympic competitors under the name of "The Olympic Committee of the Republic of China."

The statement by Brundage came as something of a surprise in sports circles, for he has been criticized in various quarters ever since May 28 of this year when the IOC voted at its meeting in Munich to cease recognition of the Nationalists under the name "China."

The IOC ruled that the Nationalists do not control sports throughout China and should reapply for recognition under a name indicating they represented only Formosa.

Goldman made recently while predicting what his current protege, Canadian challenger Yvon Durelle, would do to Moore when the two meet in a title rematch at the Montreal Forum July 29. Goldman allegedly called Moore a bum in recalling how "we (Goldman and his former pupil Rocky Marciano) beat the bum."

Archie Moore Asks For 'Bum' Remark Apology

Montreal (UP) - Archie Moore, equally at home throwing a left hook or a sharp barb, today demanded that New York trainer Charlie Goldman "make a public apology for calling me a bum."

Aussies Near Second Round Net Eliminations

Mexico City (UP) - Australia needed only an even split in singles today to clinch a first-round triumph over Mexico and qualify to meet Canada in the second round of American Zone Davis Cup tennis eliminations.

Southpaw Neale Fraser of the Aussies faced Mexican ace Mario Llamas and red-headed Rod Laver of Australia, runner-up in this year's Wimbledon championships, opposed Antonio Palafox in the other.

The Aussies took a 2-1 lead in the best-of-five series with Fraser and Roy Emerson beat Llamas and Gustavo Palafox in doubles Sunday, 6-3, 6-2, 7-5.

DAVIS CUPERS NAMED

River Forest, Ill. (UP) - Six promising young players were named today to the U. S. Davis Cup squad for experience. They were R. Dennis Ralston, Bakersfield, Calif.; Paul Palmer, Phoenix, Ariz.; William Bond, LVA Jolla, Calif.; Ramsey Earnhart, Ventura, Calif.; Charles McKinley, St. Louis, and Marty Reissen, Rirsdale, Ill.

Lightweights Mix Tonight

East Providence, R.I. (UP) - Harold Gomes of Providence, world's third-ranked featherweight, takes on Paul Jorgensen of Port Arthur, Tex., for the world junior lightweight championship tonight at the Pierce Memorial Field.

Some 9,000 fans are expected to jam the stadium for the first world title match held in Rhode Island since 1943.

The 25-year-old Gomes defeated Jorgensen by a unanimous decision in their first fight, in Miami, March 27.

Gomes has a record of 43 wins and 4 losses, three of his defeats coming at the hands of Tommy Tibbs who outweighed him on each occasion.

The contestants tonight must weigh 130 pounds or less.

Jorgensen, 24, one of boxing's busiest performers, has sought a return match with Gomes since his loss to the Providence fighter. That loss was his first in 32 fights. His record as a pro is 77-5-4.

The reactivated junior lightweight title has been held by such boxers as Johnny Dundee, Ben Bass and Kid Chocolate. It was founded by the late Tex Rickard in 1921 to make a champ of Dundee.

Maids Lose Two More

The American Linen Whirlwinds of Portland took the Rogue Valley Dairy Maids, 6 to 0, Sunday night with the help of no-hit pitching by Doris Barrett.

In Saturday night's game the Maids dropped a close one, 5-4, to the Whirlwinds. In a non-counting game Friday night the Whirlwinds won over the Maids, 1 to 0.

The Dairy Maids now have a 3 won and 5 lost record, good enough to hang on in third place in the league. They will play Roseburg Thursday night at Camp White.

In Saturday's game it was tied up, 4-4, but a run in the bottom of the last inning won it for the Whirlwinds. Big inning for the Maids was the third, when a triple by Diane Wall drove in three runs.

Rapids, N. Y. (UP) - A $30,000 fire completely gutted the headquarters of the Rapid Volunteer Fire Dept. before its 32 members could extinguish it.

Saccharin is several hundred times sweeter than the conventional varieties of the cane or beet sugar.

Swim Meet Marks Fall

Redding, Calif. (UP) - It's on to Lansing, Mich., and try-outs for the Pan-American Games for the country's record-smashing feminine mermaids today.

Fresh from conquering the warm waters of the Lake Redding Pool in the National A.A.U. Championships, the girls will move next to Michigan State University for the Pan-Am try-outs on Aug. 8-9 and 11-12.

The star of the four-day meet here was Chris von Saltza, a 15-year-old platinum blond from San Jose, Calif., daughter of a radiologist.

The jet-propelled miss captured three crowns - the 100-yard, 220-yard and 440-yard freestyle events. She smashed the American record in each event.

The mermaids, gathered from all sections of the country, smashed four world, 11 American and 14 meet records during the four day of competition.

Rains Slow Net Finals

River Forest, Ill. (UP) - The finals in the 49th Annual National Clay Courts Tennis Championships will get underway today at the River Forest Tennis Club.

Rain swept the area Sunday and forced a 24-hour postponement of the final round. The rains hit shortly after midday and stopped after a brief fall. Tournery officials decided to open play in semifinal matches of the men's doubles. But rain started again during the first set of the Bill Bond - Dennis Ralston and Chris Crawford - Marty Reissen match, and officials promptly canceled play for the day.

In the men's singles final, defending champion Bernard Bartzon of Dallas, Tex., meets Whitney Reed, the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. champ. In the women's singles Sandra Reynolds, a pretty South African girl meets Sally Moore, Bakersfield, Calif., for the title.

50 YEARS AT THE JOB
Lenox, Mass. (UP) - Oscar R. Hutchinson can boast the longest active service as a fire chief in New England. He was named chief of the department here in 1909 after a fire burned the center of the town and killed six persons.

Littler Wins Open Golf

Wethersfield, Conn. (UP) - Gene Littler celebrated his 29th birthday two days early with a front-running victory in the Insurance City Open golf tournament.

The plucky pro from Singing Hills, Calif., led from the start of the 72-hole tournament but he needed a birdie-two on the 17th hole of the final round Sunday to edge Tom Nieporte of Bronxville, N. Y., by one stroke.

Littler finished with a one-under-par 70 for a total of 272 while Nieporte posted a 69 in the final round for a 273.

Doug Ford of Crystal River, posted the day's best round - a 66 - to gain third money with a 274 while Jackie Burke of Klamath Lake, N. Y., and Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Texas, finished with 276 each. Burke had a 68 in the final round and Hawkins turned in a 69.
