

GOLD HILL Vacationers Are Listed

By MRS. CLYDE KELL
Gold Hill—Attracted to Oregon because of the Centennial celebration this year were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Benton, of Modesto, Calif. While in Jackson county they visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Paulsen, Sardine Creek rd., near Gold Hill. He is a cousin of Mrs. Paulsen.

Among points of interest visited by the Paulsens and their guests were Crater Lake, the Jacksonville Museum, in Jacksonville and the Crater Rock Museum, near Central Point.

The Bentons went to Salem and planned to visit the Oregon Centennial Exposition in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Coiner from Oakdale, Calif., were guests of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eskew, and family last weekend. The Coiners were en route to Portland to attend the Centennial Exposition.

Sunday, July 12, the Eskews took their guests on a sightseeing trip in southern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morgan, and son, Joe Morgan, Jr., returned to Gold Hill from Portland July 8. Mrs. Morgan is convalescing at her home here after major surgery several weeks ago. She had gone to Portland for a medical checkup.

Mr. and Mrs. Melford M. Hood went to Roseburg July 11 to visit Mr. and Mrs. Merl Mulholland.

Skip Marsden, of Tucson, Ariz., who is spending the summer in Gold Hill with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dungey, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Marsden, was a guest last weekend of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dungey, Medford.

Hal Norris, a former resident of Gold Hill, was a recent visitor at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Dungey.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lance received news last week of the death of her cousin, Mrs. Larry Duerig, of Astoria, Calif. She died July 7 in the University of California hospital, San Francisco. Funeral services were held in Oakland, Calif. The Duerigs had been frequent visitors at the Lance home.

Mrs. Mabel Hittle is spending the summer visiting her sister, Mrs. Lyla Whitehorn, at Edmonds, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Chaffee have returned to their home on Garden Row after a nine-day vacation in California where they visited relatives in Downey, Pomona and Aris.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Dragon of Seattle, Wash., were guests of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stroud, last weekend. The Dragons were en route to their home in Seattle, after a vacation in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Bozy Tepovac joined members of their family at TouVelle Park on July 4 for a family picnic. On the outing were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Chamberlin and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jones and children, Butch and Shirley Jones, all of Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pappas and daughters, Debbie and Dora, of Diamond Lake. Mrs. Chamberlin, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Pappas are the former Amelia, Mary and Vonnice Tepovac of Gold Hill, and are daughters of the Bozy Tepovacs.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Abbott and son, Tommy, were hosts to a barbecue dinner at their home recently. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lance, Central Point, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hope and sons, Lance and Bradford, Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lance, Gold Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Bush and son, Dan, returned to their home in Hillsboro after visiting her mother, Mrs. Minnie Byerly, and her brothers-in-law and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Force and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thompson. Mrs. Bush is the former Ruth Byerly.

Officers were elected at a meeting recently of the newly organized World War I Barracks 1835 and auxiliary in Rogue River. Meetings will be held the second Thursday of each month at 8 p.m. in the VFW hall, Rogue River. Veterans of World War I are eligible to belong to the Barracks and wives, widows and daughters are eligible to become members of the auxiliary. All those eligible in this area are invited to attend the meetings.

Officers for the Barracks include V. D. Stewart, barracks commander; Lee J. Kile, senior vice commander; W. Morse, junior vice commander; Rufus O. Hoover, chaplain; Harry R. Skevington, quartermaster; Glen W. Hutchinson, three-year trustee; Carl W. Knapp, two-year trustee; Charles Austin, one-year trustee; Carl W. Knapp, sergeant-at-arms; and Ervin C. Hoffman, guard.

Auxiliary officers are Mrs. Harry R. Skevington, president; Mrs. Gladys Stevens, senior vice president; Mrs. Charles Austin, junior vice president; Mrs. Edith Osborn, chaplain; Mrs. Ted Schoenemann, treasurer; Mrs. Nancy E. Wilkinson, secretary; Mrs. Carl W. Knapp, three-year trustee; Mrs. Dorothy Leyen, two-year trustee; Mrs. Grace Hiltson, one-year trustee; Mrs. Breda MacConnell, conductress; Mrs. Glen W. Hutchinson, guard; and Mrs. Carl W. Knapp, publicity.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Ness, Medford, were hosts to a birthday dinner party in honor of their son, Buddy, on his first birthday July 13. Guests were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eskew, Miss Donna Eskew and Larry Eskew, all of Gold Hill.

John F. Chisholm, of the Navy, was a recent visitor in southern Oregon, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Chisholm, Medford, and attending the wedding of his cousin, the former Miss Helen Hood, who became the bride of David Byers, July 3. The serviceman was en route from Fallon, Nev., to Memphis, Tenn.

Lance Hope, Medford, was a recent guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lance.

The Rev. and Mrs. James F. Eubanks were hosts to several commission meetings of the Gold Hill Community Methodist church last week. Chairman of the different commissions are Mrs. Paul Molloy, education; Mrs. Roy Eskew, missions; Mrs. Lawrence Smith, evangelism; finance and stewardship, Mr. Eubanks.

Mrs. Eskew said that the commission on missions group made plans for the church wide mission study in January, 1960, on the subject of Africa.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Allison and son, Bob, returned to their home here recently after spending the July Fourth week end in Sacramento, Calif., visiting her cousin and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Orsen Jones.

Miss Vickie Enders from Medford is a houseguest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Dueul, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Force were visitors July 14 in the home of Mrs. Grace Haskins, Eagle Point.

The Intermediate M.Y.F. group of the Gold Hill Community Methodist church went to Ashland Sunday. They went swimming at Twin Plunges, and had lunch and worship service in Lithia park.

Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Bickel, and the Rev. and Mrs. James F. Eubanks Jr., accompanied the group.

Sandy Boy Missing In Roslyn Lake

Sandy - (W.P.) - Robert Lynn Schneider, 6, Sandy, fell into Roslyn lake behind Bull Run dam, here Tuesday while wading with two other children and was presumed drowned.

Portland General Electric Company, operator of the project, drained the water as much as possible as dragging operations were continued Tuesday night with the aid of searchlights.

The Clackamas county sheriff's office said it had four boats looking for the youngster. Parents of the boy are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Schneider.
