Maids Play Tomorrow

The Rogue Valley Dairy Maids meet the Roseburg Lumberjills tomorrow night in a non-league girls' softball game at Camp White Stadium at 8 o'clock.

The Maids beat the Lumberjills earlier this year but the Jills were short four players at the time and tomorrow night's game is expected to be tougher.

Cubs, Wildcats Still Lead Pee Wee Race; CP Third

The Ashland Cubs, aided by 7 errors by the Central Point Braves, kept their grip on the number one spot in the Pee Wee league yesterday with a 10 to 1 victory over the Braves.

The Medford Wildcats broke up their ball game with two runs in the final inning to take the Medford Tigers, 2 to 1, and hang on to second place as third-place Central Point Indians were idle.

In other action, Eagle Point tripped up the cellar-inhabiting Ashland Bears by 5 runs to 2 to move up to fourth place, a half game up on the Tigers.

Ashland Victory
 Ashland's victory over the Bears came with the aid of just one hit by the team, a single by Pierson. But the team scored runs in the first, second, third and fifth innings away.

For the Braves, Frank Armstrong belted out a triple and Hamilton added a double.

Wildcats Win
 It was 0-0 going into the last frame of the Wildcat-Tiger fray but the Cats brought in two runs on a double by Tom Wootton and a single by Ed Coss.

Jack Regas Condition Is The Same

Couer d'Alene, Idaho—(UPI)—Injured hydroplane driver Jack Regas rested semi-conscious Tuesday night in an air-conditioned hospital room with no change in his "slightly improved" condition.

"Everyone is treating Jack just wonderfully," said his brother, Mitchell, who arrived from Oakland, Calif., with his mother after an 18-hour drive. Jack's wife arrived by plane Monday morning.

"Friends and fans have sent in more flowers than his hospital room can handle," Mitchell Regas said. "And he must have received more than a thousand cards."

Regas, wiry, little hydro pilot who holds the world speed record for propeller-driven craft and winner of last year's Gold Cup, suffered three broken ribs, a possible skull fracture and a broken bone in one hand. He also suffered numerous cuts and bruises when the Bardahl smashed into a wall of water going into a turn on the Lake Couer d'Alene course.

Olmedo, Three Other Irish Pat Davis Cuppers Play

Haverford, Pa.—(UPI)—Four U. S. Davis Cup players, including Wimbledon titleholder Alex Olmedo, were scheduled to compete today in the third round of the 60th Pennsylvania Lawn Tennis championship.

Olmedo, accused of laka-daisical play in the National Clay Court quarter finals last week, came back with a serious attack Tuesday to advance through the first two rounds of the Pennsylvania tourney.

He scored a 6-1, 6-1 victory over Mac White, Austin, Tex., in the opening round and then downed Alan Roberts, Brooklyn, N. Y., 6-2, 6-2 in the second round.

Jones Against Action
 Olmedo has been threatened with suspension because of his play against South Africa's Abe Segal in the Clay Court tournament last week, but Perry Jones, of Los Angeles, captain of the Davis Cup team, said he was against such action.

Jones, speaking at the annual banquet at the Merion Cricket Club Tuesday night, said he opposed any suspension of Olmedo from further tourney play. He blamed the incident on "battle fatigue" on the part of the Peruvian player.

Olmedo told the gathering that he was sorry for the incident.

Jones, who is 71, said he might give up the captaincy of the Davis Cup team after the next challenging round at Forrest Hills. A selection committee will choose the four players for the round this week.

The three other previous Davis Cup players who joined the top seeded Olmedo in the third round were Barry Mackay, the defending champion from Dayton, Ohio, Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, and Earl Bucholtz, St. Louis.

Mackay and Seixas overwhelmed their opponents but Bucholtz had to rally to pull out of a tight contest with Straight Clark, of Philadelphia, and eventually win 6-8, 6-4 and 6-2.

DUFFER'S DILEMMA
 London—(UPI)—Bob Hope said the Monte Carlo golf course he played last week was a fine one. But Hope said he had a problem. He played with his friend, the Rev. Pardee Erdman, and "I've got a crick in the neck through having to turn my head every time I wanted to swear."
