

Many May Study Income Tax Return

Chicago—UPI—How private is your income tax return? The Commerce Clearing House, a tax and business law reporting firm, lists some of the private individuals who, with proper authority, may scrutinize your return: —Either spouse, in case of a joint return. —Receiver or trustee in bankruptcy holding the taxpayer's property. —An heir, testamentary beneficiary or legal representative of a deceased taxpayer. —Defendant in a personal injury suit where the plaintiff's income tax return indicates the extent of damages suffered. —The U. S. Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, for Social Security administration purposes.

The Family Council

Editor's note: The Family Council consists of a judge, a psychiatrist, three clergymen, a newspaper editor, a woman's editor and two writers. Each article is a summary of an actual report. The Family Council does not give advice; it merely reports on problems that have been dealt with by responsible agencies and counselors.

Cliff L.—She wants me to become a grind.
Millie J.—I want to look up to him.

Cliff L.—My girl friend and I are having a big squabble—about me.

We are both 16 and just finished our sophomore year at high school. Millie is a very good student. She gets mostly A's and a few B's. I get mostly B's and a few C's. I don't mind this but Millie does. She claims it is embarrassing to her to go out with a guy who isn't up to her level in school. She wants me to become a grind. She says that if I don't do better next year, she's going to give me up. I think this is ridiculous.

Millie J.—It may sound ridiculous to Cliff but it's important to me. Any girl will know what I mean. A girl likes to go out with a man she can look up to. It's like wanting someone taller than you are.

I wouldn't bother Cliff about this if I weren't positive he could do it. He's got a brain, but just won't bother with the subjects he's not interested in. He doesn't even work hard at the ones he likes. School is just a lark to him. He's more interested in sports and music.

Change, Cigarettes Taken from Station

Approximately $1.82 in change and four cartons of cigarettes, valued at $1.80 each, were taken sometime Tuesday night from the Hopkins Richfield Service station, 1175 Court st., city police said.

The building was entered through a window on the south side which was broken, police said.

sacrifice he has made. Millie may get into the habit of feeling that he and others should satisfy any whim of hers. It would make for a very bad relationship. Cliff should not attempt to do what Millie demands unless he decides that the demand is right and legitimate.

Aside from this, we think Millie is too rigid in her ideas of the way things should be. People have varied abilities and Cliff's lower school marks are no indication of inferiority. Apparently she finds him bright enough to be her companion. If she cannot accept him as he is she should give him up.

We'd also like to remind Millie that although height is a big issue with teenagers, it becomes more and more trivial as time goes on. Many women deeply respect and love men who are shorter than they are. "Looking up" to someone is not based on superficial things.

Agriculture Said Promising Field

East Lansing, Mich.—UPI—Agriculture is a tremendously promising field for college freshman seeking to train themselves for a career, according to Dr. Harold J. Lassiter, head of Michigan State University's dairy department.

Lassiter said there were between 14,000 and 15,000 jobs available in the industry this June for college graduates who majored in agriculture and only about 7,000 students to fill them.

Only a few of these jobs are actually on the farm, he added, most being in agricultural education, economics and research. And the salaries being offered are almost as much as what engineering graduates can earn.

HE GIVES, THEY TAKE
Montpelier, Vt.—UPI—The State Liquor Control Board suspended the license of Guardino Inc., a wholesale dealer for offering a free case of soda with the purchase of every case of beer.
