

SPEAKER - Trends in today's college honors programs will be discussed by Dr. Joseph W. Cohen at the Northwest Conference on Higher Education meeting at Southern Oregon college July 26-28. Cohen is director of the Inter-University committee on the Superior Student at the University of Colorado. He laid the plans for the first honors program on the Boulder, Colo., campus and has served as director of the program since 1943. Under a Carnegie grant, Cohen publishes the "Superior Student," a monthly newsletter sent to colleges throughout the nation.

Airliner Makes Emergency Stop

Tucson, Ariz. - (UPI) - An American Airlines Boeing 707 jet-liner, with 94 passengers and a crew of eight, made an emergency landing at Municipal Airport here Wednesday night.

One of the tires in the landing gear blew out as the plane touched down. Otherwise the landing was uneventful.

A half dozen airport and Air National Guard fire trucks stood by as the big plane landed.

A special DC7 was flown to Tucson early today to pick up 85 of the passengers and take them to Los Angeles. The others decided to remain in Tucson overnight.

ShIPLEY landed the plane, on a non-stop New York to Los Angeles flight, in Tucson because of the long runway available here.

Former Resident Wins Firm Honor

Portland - A former Medford resident, Don J. McFadden, Portland, this week was awarded Consolidated Freightways highest honor, the title of "Freighter of the Year."

McFadden won the 1959 recognition on the basis of long service to the company, popularity among fellow employees, community activities in many fields and outstanding job accomplishments.

The top Freighter served as dock foreman at Medford from 1940 until 1942.

In addition to receiving a plaque, McFadden was guest of honor at a special luncheon at which he was awarded five shares of company stock.

Since 1948 he has been employed as sales representative for CF at Portland.

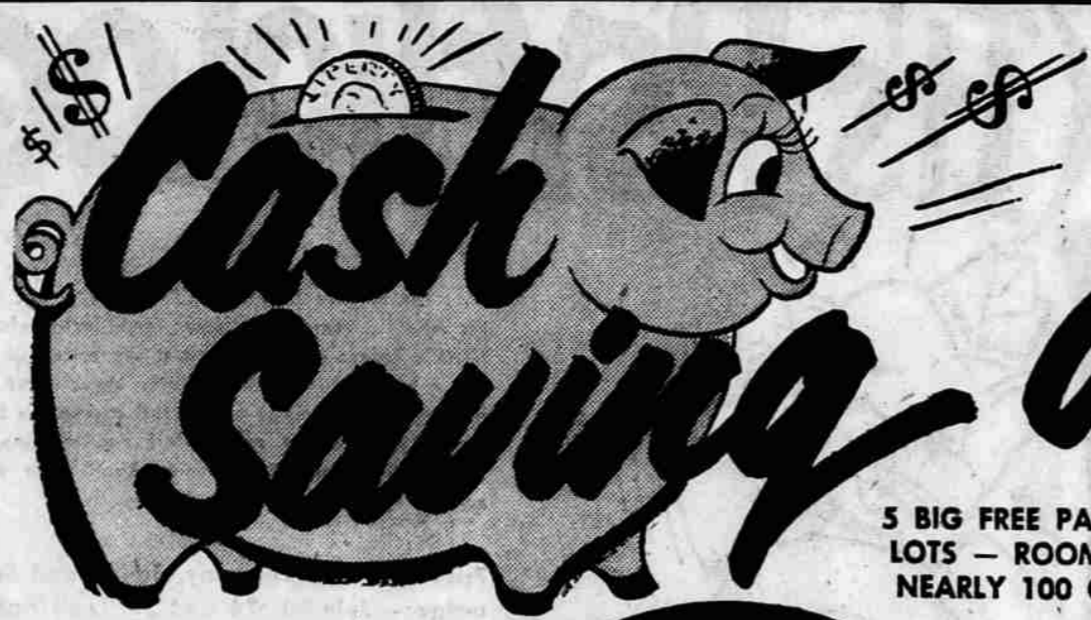

Discussion Leads To Polio Shots

Suffield, Ohio - (UPI) - The more than 400 students attending this rural community's public school have all received their polio shots because of a history class discussion.

The class was studying how laws are made when the discussion turned to a bill then before the Ohio legislature which would require polio immunization for every public school pupil unless his parents objected in writing.

A classroom survey showed that only a third of the students had received their Salk shots. The pupils promptly asked that arrangements be made for mass inoculations with one provision: that they pay for the vaccine themselves. It was arranged.

NO RACIAL ASSIGNMENTS
New York - (UPI) - Police Commissioner Stephen P. Kennedy Wednesday vowed he would not assign policemen to Harlem on a racial basis. Kennedy told a special news conference that he had rejected suggestions made by some Negro leaders at a meeting with Mayor Richard F. Wagner Tuesday that more Negro policemen be assigned to the crowded Negro district, which he described as a "segregated ghetto."
