

San Francisco Will Have Park Ready for Series, If Needed

By HAL WOOD
United Press International
San Francisco—(UPI)—The San Francisco Giants new Candlestick Park, seating about 44,000, "definitely" will be ready for use in case the World Series is played here, Mayor George Christopher told the United Press International today.

"We won't be able to make a definite statement on when it will be available for league play until the end of the month, or maybe a bit later," said the mayor.

"But I can tell you all sections of the park would be ready if the Giants get in the World Series."

the stadium to Bayshore freeway will be ready - although not perfected.

Australia Favored In Semi-Finals

Montreal - (UPI) - Australia benched its ace, lefthander Neale Fraser, but Rod Laver and Roy Emerson remained solid favorites to defeat Canada in the opening singles matches today in the North American semi-final Davis Cup series.

Emerson, 22, who has played only one Davis Cup singles match, was scheduled to open the best-of-five series against Canada's No. 2 man, Don Fontana, 28, of Toronto, Ont. Red-haired Rod Laver, the lefthanded Wimbledon finalist, drew Canadian veteran champion Bob Bedard of Sherbrooke, Que., in the second singles.

Following Saturday's doubles, the same players will switch opponents Sunday providing the issue is still unsettled.

Safety Bond Suggested For Hydros

Seattle - (UPI) - The head man of the hydroplane camp that sponsors the Thriftway unlimited speedboats suggested Thursday that race operators post a $50,000 bond to insure safety regulations.

The Thriftway camp, which operates Miss Thriftway and Thriftway Too, is headquartered in Seattle and is sponsored by a supermarket organization, headed by Willard Rhodes.

Rhodes made his suggestion after Ole Bardahl, another Seattle boat operator, blasted the operation of race meets.

Pastrano Favored Over Johnson In Heavyweight Bout

Louisville, Ky. - (UPI) - Tonight's fight between Willie Pastrano and Alonzo Johnson should be a lulu, according to most predictions here.

Sherman Williams, of Louisville, Ky., a full-fledged light-heavyweight, who has sparred with both of tonight's contenders, said, "It's going to be a tough one, all the way. He gave a nod of approval to Pastrano, though, an 8-5 New York betting favorite, on his extra speed and finesse."

The two fighters are scheduled for a 10-round nationally beamed bout at Freedom Hall.

Drag Races On Sunday

The summer series of drag races, sponsored by Southern Oregon Timing association, will continue this Sunday, July 26, at the SOTA drag strip near Camp White.

Competition will be held in some 25 classes, including sports cars. The bond posted on the strip record of 144.46 m.p.h. has been raised to $125.

Drivers are advised that all vehicles except stock cars and sports cars under 2700 cc. will be required to have a 360 degree safety shield surrounding their bell housings. The shield must be constructed of one-fourth inch steel and must be securely anchored to the frame of the vehicle. Vehicles not having such a safety shield will not be allowed to compete.

Trophies will be presented to the winners in all classes, for top time of the day and to little and top eliminator.

Time trials are scheduled to begin at 9 a.m., with eliminations following after lunch. Registration for local entries may be made until 11:30 a.m.
