

Apostolic Faith Minister Returns From Campmeeting

The Rev. Loyce C. Carver, pastor of the Apostolic Faith church, Third St. and Central ave., has returned with his family from the annual campmeeting-convention which was held June 28 through July 19 at the headquarters of the Apostolic Faith in Portland.

Congratulations at the encampment were the greatest in the 52-year history of the meetings. Several persons attended from other countries. Among those attending was A. W. Samuel from Rasipuram, South India. Samuel supervises a mission school and orphanage. He plans to be in Medford Tuesday, July 28, on his way to visit other Apostolic Faith churches before he returns to India in September.

The midsummer concert held at the camp on Monday, July 6, in the large tabernacle, seating 2,400 persons, drew an overflow audience. It was directed by Donald W. Wolfe Jr., who for several months in 1955-56 was the music director of the Medford church. He is now a music education major at Lewis and Clark college, Portland.

Carlynn Breazeale and Linda Carver, Medford High school students, and Paul Roby, recent graduate, played with the 60-piece orchestra at the camp. Sharon Hendrickson and Janice Robinson, students, and Raymond Neff, recent graduate, sang with the 100-voice young people's chorus; Judy Carver accompanied.

Local members attending the three-weeks encampment heard the Rev. Clarence W. Frost, who for many years was pastor of the Medford church before he left for evangelistic work in the east. His subject was "The Promises of God."

The themes of the teachings Mr. Carver gave at the campmeeting were "Sanctification," and "Pure Religion." Mr. Carver's assistant minister, the Rev. Clifford Friesen, helped in the evangelistic services at the camp.

The regular schedule of meetings at the local church will be resumed Sunday. Mr. Carver's radio broadcast on KMED will be heard at 9:05 a.m. Morning worship will be at 11 a.m. young people's meeting at 3 p.m., and evangelistic service will open at 7:50 p.m. with a musical prelude directed by William E. Walden.

Week-night services will be held at 8 p.m. on Tuesdays and Fridays. The auditorium is air-conditioned and there is a supervised nursery for small children.

Protestant Pavilion To be Used as Center

Plans are underway throughout the world to help establish a permanent Christian Fellowship center in Belgium. The building for this center will be the Protestant pavilion that was built for the Brussels World's Fair.

The International Christian Committee in the United States has set a goal of $90,000 to help support the plan. The Center, once established, will serve as a world-wide conference, training and consultative center for missionaries and as an accessible focal point for youth and adults from all over the world.

Interested persons may contact the committee, box 6263, Washington 15, D.C.
