

Caravan Four Set by Jubilee

Jacksonville—Only one more week remains in the queen contest of the Jacksonville Gold Rush Jubilee, with final counting of votes set for July 29 at the U.S. Hotel.

Votes are based on the number of Jubilee tickets sold.

The queen and her court will be announced at the queen's dance at 10 p.m. that day. The Jubilee will be held 1 and 2.

Dick Spain's band will provide music for the dance which will be open to the public and will be held from 9 p.m. to midnight in the Community hall.

Queen contestants, who have a busy week ahead, will take part in a caravan tour of southern Oregon cities Saturday. They are scheduled to begin travel at Jacksonville at 9 a.m.; Phoenix, 10 a.m.; Talent, 10:30 a.m.; and Ashland 11 a.m.

Following lunch they will arrive in Medford at 1 p.m.; Central Point, 2 p.m.; Gold Hill, 2:30 p.m.; Rogue River, 3:15 p.m.; and Grants Pass, 4 p.m.

The public is invited to view the caravan at those hours.

43 Colleges to Be Represented At SOC Education Conference

Ashland - Advance registrations indicate that 43 colleges in Washington, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Arizona, California, Oregon and British Columbia will send representatives to the Pacific Northwest conference in Higher Education and the meeting of the Pacific Coast Committee of the American Council on Education July 26, 27 and 28 at Southern Oregon college.

State departments of education in Idaho, Washington, and Oregon will send representatives to lead and act as resource people in discussions of the National Defense act and guidance counseling services that will be required to implement this act.

Speakers who will expand the theme, "The Superior Student: Who are They? What are we Doing for them? and How Should we Deal with Them?" will include Professor Joseph W. Cohen, director of the Inter-University committee on the Superior Student, University of Colorado, who will speak on "Trends in Honors Programs Today: Aspects of Their Theory and Practice;" Dr. John Stalnaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship corporation which provides scholarships for superior students throughout the nation, luncheon speaker, Monday, July 27; and President-elect Dr. Charles Easton Rothwell of Mills college, formerly of the Hoover Institute at Stanford university, banquet speaker Monday night on the topic, "The Ingredients of Excellence."

Discussions will start with an address by Dr. T. R. McConnell, chairman center for the study of higher education, University of California, "The Rediscovery of the Gifted Student."

Dr. John Helmick, director of the Los Angeles Office Educational Testing service will participate in a panel on "Superior Students, Who are They?" and will also appear with Professor Cohen on KBES-TV at 1:30 p.m., Sunday, July 26, with Dr. Bill Sampson, chairman of the SOC education division, and Chancellor John R. Richards of the Oregon state system of higher education.

O. Meredith Wilson, University of Oregon president, will give the keynote address Sunday evening preceding the Shakespearean dress rehearsal to which conference participants have been invited and President Elmo N. Stevenson will extend greetings from Southern Oregon college students, faculty and administration.

Henry F. Cabell, president of the Oregon state board of higher education, will be heard at the Tuesday luncheon, since the board is holding one of its regular meetings on the campus concurrently with the conference.

Dr. Richard Sullivan, president of Reed college and liaison member of the conference steering committee and the American Council on Education committee, will preside at the closing session on Tuesday.

Journalism Leaders To Meet at Eugene

Eugene - Leaders in American journalism will join college journalism teachers on the University of Oregon campus Aug. 25-29 for the ninth annual meeting of the Association for Education in Journalism.

Meeting for the first time on the West Coast, the AEJ convention will bring to the university between 200 and 300 persons.

Two coordinate organizations will meet concurrently with AEJ. The American Association of Schools and Departments of Journalism, to which the Oregon school of journalism belongs, will hold its 39th meeting, and the American Society of Journalism School administrators will have its 15th convention.

About eight million American families own one or more pet birds.

Quotes From the News

United Press International
 Chicago-Society girl Jacqueline Day Hart, missing from her home in Newark, N. J., for two days before being found here, talking to her fiancé by telephone:
 "They've taken my ring. Come get me, come get me."

Norfolk, Va.-Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield, serving notice that he intends to continue his fight to ban from the mails the uncensored version of the D. H. Lawrence novel "Lady Chatterley's Lover":
 "If that book is not filthy, pray tell me what is filthy."

Marion, Ohio-Patrolman Lloyd Potter, after United Press International told him George Patrick Geiger, 27, whom Ohio police had arrested for speeding, was wanted for the murder of his ex-wife's father in Jeannette, Pa.:

"I nearly fell out of my chair when UPI told me we had a suspected murder. The lieutenant who brought in Geiger nearly dropped over himself."

Michigan City, Ind.-Lakeland Town Marshall Ed Warner, discussing difficulties involved in a hunt for a possibly dangerous mountain lion believed prowling the heavily-populated Lake Michigan resort area:

"There also are the cranks. Last night, while fast asleep, I was awakened by a prowler who growled."

DON'T LET NEGLECT CAUSE AN ACCIDENT ON YOUR FARM!

Most farm accidents can be prevented. Surveys show that the basic cause of farm accidents is human neglect. Coupled with haste, false confidence and lack of knowledge, the greatest hazards are improper equipment, improper care and use of machinery, and "putting off" needed repairs.
