Indians Take Yanks; Dodgers, Giants Win

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
Minnie Minoos insists he can outtalk Frank Lane so don't laugh if he says he can out-hit Frank Merriwell.

Frank Merriwell, the Cuban speedster, probably never heard of America's legendary schoolboy hero but Lane would be among the first to concede. "Minnie writes his own stuff anyhow."

And, what the 35-year-old outfielder's writing these days is a brilliant success story for "Papa Lane" and the Cleveland Indians.

Loaded Bat
Brought back to Cleveland "to put some life in the Indians," Minoos is swinging a loaded bat in the Indians' amazing battle to win the American League pennant. He's hitting .289, has knocked in 60 runs, connected for 15 homers and is delivering the key blows when they're needed most.

Minoos came through with his most important hit of the season Thursday night when his grand slam homer capped a seven-run rally that produced an 8-5 Cleveland victory over the New York Yankees.

The win enabled the Indians to take the series, two games to one, moved them within a half game of the idle first-place Chicago White Sox and dumped the Yankees back to the .500 mark.

Tremendous Victory
Minoos' heroics represent a tremendous victory for Lane who experts said "gambled the franchise" when he traded Early Wynn and Al Smith to the White Sox for Minnie, Dec. 4, 1957. That's when Minoos — whose salary squabbles with Lane helped keep the phone company in the black during the winter — promised to play "good enough to keep Papa Lane quiet."

Harvey Kuenn and Al Kaline each had four hits as the Detroit Tigers routed the Washington Senators, 11-2, and Roger Maris and Bob Cerv each had three hits as the Kansas City Athletics beat the Baltimore Orioles, 9-3, in the other American League games.

The San Francisco Giants retained their 1 1/2-game National League lead with a 5-1 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals and the Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Chicago Cubs, 5-3, but the slumping Milwaukee Braves suffered a 6-2 loss to the Cincinnati Reds.

The Braves now trail San Francisco by 4 1/2 games and are only one point ahead of the fourth place Pittsburgh Pirates.

Indians Rallied To Win
A crowd of 36,560 at Cleveland saw the Yankees take an early 4-0 lead but the Indians staged a flash rally against Ralph Terry and rookie Eli Grba in the sixth. Singles by Tito Francona and

Leg Injury Sidelines Gil Hodges
Los Angeles — (UP) — A badly-pulled leg muscle will sideline star Dodger first baseman Gil Hodges for at least a week, but his teammates and manager Walt Alton joined him in agreeing today it could have been worse.

In fact, for an hour Thursday night it looked as if the 35-year-old Hodges, one of baseball's finest fielding first basemen, would be lost for the remainder of the season with a broken right leg. A preliminary examination after the limb gave way under him while sliding into second base indicated a break two inches above the fibula.

George Strickland, a double by Rocky Colavito and a sacrifice produced two runs and chased Terry. Grba yielded a hit and two walks, forcing in Cleveland's third run, and then Minoos unloaded with his game-winning blast. Rookie Jim Perry, who pitched the middle four innings, won his fifth game for the Indians.

Kuenn lifted his average to .347 and Kaline sent his to .340 in pacing a 15-hit attack that enabled Jim Bunning to win his ninth game for Detroit. Bob Allison hit his 25th homer for Washington.

Ned Garver pitched a seven-inning shutout for his eighth win behind the 16-hit Kansas City attack that gave the Athletics their fourth straight win and their eighth in 10 games.

Sanford Takes The Win
Jack Sanford won his first game since June 11 for the Giants who took advantage of three St. Louis errors to score four unearned runs.

Victim of the sloppy fielding was Vinegar Bend Mizell, now 11-5 for the year. Orlando Cepeda, Jackie Brandt and Bob Schmidt had two hits each for San Francisco.

Gil Hodges' two-run homer was the big blow for the Dodgers but the big first-baseman later suffered an injury to his right leg that may sideline him a week.

Don Drysdale, ace of the Los Angeles staff, relieved Larry Sherry when the Cubs scored two runs in the eighth and yielded only one hit over the last 1 2-3 innings.

Willie Jones' eighth-inning grand slam homer ended the Braves' "winning streak" at one game and brought Brooks Lawrence his fifth win. Joey Jay, who had shut out the Reds for seven innings was the victim of the blow and the Reds added an insurance pair against Don McMahon in the ninth.

First Baptist and Phoenix, with a make-up game to play against each other, moved into a tie for the second-half lead in the Church Softball league last night.

Phoenix moved up the easy way, via the forfeit route in a game scheduled with Friends, and First Baptist took First Methodist in a 17 to 11 victory.

In other action, Westminster Presbyterian, first-half winners, defeated Nazarene, 14 to 11, to gain a one and one record. Three scheduled games remain to be played.
