Medford Couple Plays in Tourney

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hatton have returned to their home, 819 Minnesota avenue, after a vacation in Helena and Billings, Mont. While away the two played in the Northern Rocky Mountains regional bridge tournament at Great Falls, taking third place in one event and fourth place in another.

They returned Wednesday.

Parties Honor Sally Lane; Rites Saturday

Pre-nuptial showers honoring Miss Sally Lane, daughter of Mrs. James Luman, 706 Whitman place, were held the past week.

Miss Lane's wedding to Gerald Grosclaude, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Grosclaude, Ashland, was scheduled for July 25 in Reno, Nev.

Former classmates of the bride-to-be gave a shower Monday, July 20, at the home of Miss Maxine Crowson, 76 Dewey street, Ashland.

A blue and white color scheme was used in decorations for the outdoor affair.

Prizes at games went to Miss Beverly Johnson, Miss Jane Yaple, Miss Carol Huntstein and Miss Judy Morris.

Other guests were the Misses Kay and Fay Babcock, Ruth Wyant, Anna Carter, Nancy Lininger, Pat Roach, Karen Thomas and Judy Alley and the Mesdames Robert Brewer, James Witt, Richard Green, Max Crowson and Mrs. Luman.

Fifteen guests attended a miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Lane Tuesday at the home of her mother.

Pink and white decorations were used and a wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom was served.

Invited were the Mesdames Anthony Kanclier, A. W. Thompson, Luke Heinzman, Russell Grosclaude, Glenn Svarren, W. D. Jackson, Edgar Fowler, Richard Green and Miss Camille Thompson, all of Ashland; and Mrs. Harold Welburn, Mrs. Harold Sutherland, Mrs. Russell Fowler and Miss Claudia Fowler.

Party Honors Miss Stafford; Wedding Soon

Mrs. William M. Caldwell recently was hostess for a party which honored Miss Shirley Stafford, Miss Stafford's wedding to Allan Leigh Budd of San Marino, Calif., is set for August 8 at St. Mark's Episcopal church.

Mrs. Caldwell invited guests to her home, 2968 Jacksonville highway, for an evening event. Dessert was served on the terrace, and Miss Stafford was showered with gifts for her new home.

Seventeen guests attended. Miss Stafford, a daughter of Col. and Mrs. Charles E. Stafford, 1914 Westlund drive, is to be honored at other events before the day of the wedding.

Miss Reichstein To Arrive Home; Showers Given

Miss Suzanne Reichstein will arrive in Medford Tuesday from Portland and will be at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Reichstein, 7 Glen Oak court. Miss Reichstein's wedding to Alan Louis Keaton of Junction City, Ore., has been set for August 9 at St. Mark's Episcopal church.

Mrs. Reichstein was in Portland recently to spend several days with her daughter, and during that time attended three parties given for the bride-elect.

One party was given by Miss Diane Phillips at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Phillips, with Alpha Phi sorority sisters as guests. The event was a patio party, and Miss Reichstein was presented a shower of gifts for her new home. Fifteen attended.

Members of the bride-elect's nursing class at the University of Oregon School of Nursing gave a linen shower for Miss Reichstein. It was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Moen, Gresham, with Miss Marilyn Moen as hostess. Twenty guests attended.

Mrs. Michael McDonald of Portland gave a recipe shower for Miss Reichstein, and also honored at the same time another nurse who is to be married soon.

Other parties are being planned here for the bride-elect.

Tonneys Here From Portland

Recent houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Gates, 106 Wilamette avenue, were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Toney and son, Dennis, of Portland. Mr. Toney, who is assistant traffic manager in Portland for Union Pacific, was transferred from the Medford office approximately 9 months ago.

The Tonneys were in Medford to attend the recent wedding of Miss Phyllis Brownlee and Richard Wager. Earlier this month the Gates, their son, Robert, and a friend, Ken Brookman, traveled to Seattle, Wash., where they visited Mr. Gates' parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Gates. En route south they stopped in Portland where they visited the Tonneys and the two parties drove to Medford together.
