

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Turner, who belong to the Redwoods Sports Car club of Eureka, Calif., were among those who were in Medford last week end for the annual Cal-Ore rally. The Turners, who drive an MGA, are shown here with Gary Blew, acting president of the Sixtiyon Sports Car club, who checked the visitors in upon their arrival. Members from several northern California and southern Oregon clubs attended a dinner at the Rogue Valley Country club Saturday night, and entered their cars in the Concourse d'Elegance and a car cross race Sunday at the Camp White drag strip. Baptist Women At Session of Mission Society

Three Medford women from the Eastwood Baptist church attended the 'Houseparty' for Women's Baptist Mission Society of Oregon which was held on the campus of Linfield college in McMinnville July 20-22.

They were Mrs. Carol Graber, president of the Woman's Mission Society; Mrs. Stanley Martin, chairman, Marietta circle; and Mrs. S. D. Earhart, state chairman of missionary and stewardship education.

Theme of the gathering, "This is my task," was highlighted by Mrs. Wade McKinney, Cleveland, Ohio, vice president of Christian Service, National Council of American Baptist Women.

Mrs. McKinney, a Negro, is wife of the pastor of Baptist Antioch church in Cleveland and mother of two sons and a daughter, including a minister in Seattle, a physician and a daughter, who with her husband, is in full-time Christian work.

The speaker has been selected by the American Baptist Foreign Mission board to go around the world to visit all Baptist mission fields.

Mrs. McKinney stressed the great need for more church women to take an active part in community welfare and urged that every Christian woman be a registered and active voter.

The Bible teacher and leader each morning was Mrs. Herbert Beatty, wife of the pastor of the First Baptist church, Seattle and the president of the Baptist Women's Society of Washington.

Missionary speaker was Mrs. Howard Houston, San Jose, Antigua Province, Philippines, who with her family is home on furlough. She informed the women of the work being done in mission fields in the Philippines.

Mrs. H. J. Westberg, Eugene, a member of Our Redeemer Lutheran church, presented the home mission study books for the year, "The Church's Mission Town and Country."

Mrs. Roy Fedje, Rose City Methodist church, Portland, gave the overseas mission study, "Africa." She stated that the books on Africa this year are outstanding in both information and ease of reading.

Mrs. J. M. Hammerly, Portland, president of the American Baptist Women's Mission Society of Oregon, was in charge of the meetings.

Election Held By Beagle Club

Mrs. Alberta Haas was elected president for Beagle Community club at their annual picnic held July 19 at TouVelle State park.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Alvin Greb, vice president; and Mrs. Marshall Sweet, secretary-treasurer.

The Beagle club was organized in 1944 and members are persons who lived in the Beagle area prior to the time the Army firing range was located there during World War II.

R. H. Seigmiller spoke and James A. Martin was the oldest member present who was born at Beagle. Stephen Ellis, son of R. J. Ellis, was the youngest member present who was born there. Attending the picnic were 80 members.

The event will be held next year on the third Sunday in July.

Islands Provide Sorority Topic; Reports Given

Members of Epsilon Sigma Alpha met last Monday at the home of Miss DeMaris Glutsch and were taken on an imaginary trip to Hawaii as part of their educational program.

Miss Peggy Moore, a former resident of Hawaii and a guest, demonstrated the native hula dance. She spoke on typical island life.

Mrs. Willie Fischer modeled native clothes loaned by Burelson's, and pointed out that vacationers attempt to dress like the islanders.

Highlights of the international convention recently held in Portland were given by Mrs. Robert Shangle and Mrs. Richard Harrison. Nine members from Medford were in attendance.

Mrs. Leon Landry, Eugene, was elected international recording secretary. Phoenix, Ariz. was chosen as next year's hostess city.

Governor Mark Hatfield welcomed the delegation of over 500 members at the first assembly.

Mrs. Grant Chase, member of a Eugene chapter who was Oregon's candidate for "Mrs. America" was also a speaker.

Mrs. L. R. Dressler, whose son David was sponsored by the chapter for a stay at Camp Easter seal, was a guest and reported on the advantages derived from activities and social life there for crippled children. David, who is 10 years old, gained many experiences from his stay at camp along with about 50 other children, she said. Camp Easter Seal is located in Coos County and is maintained by funds raised from the sale of Easter seals each year.

Former Warden Is Visitor Here

Mr. and Mrs. William Evers, their son-in-law, Clarence Smith and his daughter, Evelyn, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Gier, 2902 North Pacific highway.

The travelers were en route to their home at Green River, Wyo., after a trip into Alaska.

Mr. Evers is widely known as a former warden of the Wyoming state penitentiary, and former mayor of Green River. He drafted and enforced the first laws concerning control of door-to-door selling which are now known as the "Green River laws."
