

EAGLE POINT Residents in Canada

By LAURA McFALL

Eagle Point-Miss Yetta Olson and her nephew, Rusty Clave, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Clave, of Eagle Point, spent a two-weeks' vacation in Sicamous, British Columbia, recently. Mrs. Olson stayed with Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Winslow and Rusty stayed with Mrs. Winslow's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Simpson, and family. Mrs. Winslow is the former Fern Simpson who taught Eagle Point school from 1930 to 1936.

Mrs. Ray Ragsdale, the former Miss Cowden, now lives in British Columbia and spent the night with the Winslows while Miss Olson was there.

One of the highlights of the trip was the 15-minute reception given for the Queen of England and the Duke of Edinburgh. Miss Olson said it was one of the most colorful and impressive receptions with the Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Brownies, and Girl guides all lined up in uniform.

Mrs. Winslow and Miss Olson made the bouquet of flowers presented to the Queen, and Rusty was asked to join the Boy Scouts group. Miss Olson and Rusty stopped at the Oregon Centennial Exposition in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Stanley and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Palm and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Walsh and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ayres and Bill, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Pulley and family, staged a surprise birthday party for Ray Chamberlain at his home in Eagle Point Sunday.

Mrs. Argra Pulley, of Van Nuys, Calif., returned to her home this weekend after spending a week and a half vacationing with her son, Don Pulley.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Bonham of Red Bluff, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hozour and sons, Mike and Bill, of Chester, Calif., visited Mr. and Mrs. Don De Haven on "G" st. in White City, last week. Mrs. Hozour is a sister of Don and the Bonhams are his parents. Judy and Sheryl, daughters of the Don De Havens, returned to Red Bluff by way of Crescent City and Mt. Lassen park to spend a few days with their grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Brown and Mrs. Lester McFall went to Glendale on Friday, July 17. Mrs. Brown remained with her grandson-in-law and granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Garrett, and sons. The Garretts took her to the coast Tuesday and stayed until Saturday, and brought her home Saturday.

Don Cox returned to his home at 25 West Third st. after spending several months in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Doderhoff and family visited Lt. and Mrs. Bert Jenks and family at Mather Air Force base, Sacramento, Calif., recently.

Mrs. Kenneth Porter, 8 West Seventh st., is improved and wishes to thank everyone for their many cards during her recent confinement in the hospital and while she is convalescing at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Y. Marshall of Brownsboro, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Webb of Eagle Point, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Roberts of Klamath Falls, and Leonard Tibbetts of Brownsboro, hiked into the Seven Lakes basin over the weekend and spent the weekend camping and fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. West Schooley have sold their home at 114 Ajax ave. to Mr. and Mrs. Snider and bought a home in Central Point at 85 Crater Lane ave.

All five dens of Cub Scout Pack 48, Eagle Point, and their families toured Uncanny Canyon Tuesday. Approximately 45 Cub Scouts and their families went on the tour and stopped at Casey State park for a picnic. A birthday cake and birthday greetings were extended for Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Draper, Don Mothers, for Don Chief Donald Hanscom and the following scouts: Harold Harbison, Don Harper, Billy McCracken, Bobby Wealty, and John Clayton.

Parents bringing cars and going with their sons were Mrs. William McCracken, in charge of the tour, Mrs. Kenneth Dufour and children, Mrs. Wilson and children, Mrs. Harold Hanscom, Mrs. Don Harper, Mrs. Wolf, Mrs. Fritz Carlson, Mrs. Elmer Binker and children, Mrs. Rose Draper and children, Mrs. Arla Lewis and children, Mrs. Bertha Clayton and granddaughter.

Dens 1, 2 and 3 will not hold meetings during August, but will participate in the pack meetings and will have a meeting the first of September when school resumes.

The Eagle Point Jayceettes will meet at the home of Mrs. Dale Goodman on South "C" st., at 8 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 6. A surprise program has been planned.

Mrs. Clarence Herlow, 15 Third st., has returned from visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Marler, in Gonzales, Calif. Mrs. Marler is a former valley resident and both she and her husband were teachers in the valley before moving to California. While there, they went to the zoo and surf and state parks sight-seeing.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hannaford wish to express their appreciation to the community for helping in the putting out of their fire this past week.

Mrs. Claire Blumer of Nebraska arrived in Portland where her brother, Richard Nelson, Salem, met her and brought her to Eagle Point for her husband's funeral.

Claire Blumer came to Eagle Point after leaving the hospital in Arizona and was awaiting his wife here upon his death last week.

Mrs. Blumer is staying with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Harnish, of South B st. A son, Charles, flew in from Korea for the funeral Monday.

Other children, all of Los Angeles, are Mrs. Mary Shaeffer, Mrs. Rosetta McConnell, and Jimmy Blumer. Mrs. Harnish and Mrs. Blumer will accompany the body to San Francisco for graveside services at the Golden Gate cemetery. Several additional members of the family are expected to meet there.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McGovern

ern of South C st., left for Portland Monday where Mrs. McGovern will leave via airplane for London, Paris, and on to Yugoslavia to visit relatives there. Don plans to stay a few days with his mother before returning to Eagle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hanscom, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mynatt, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Krambeal, and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Davies went to Ontario to attend the Junior Chamber of Commerce state board meeting recently. Nelson, as district state vice president, delivered his report of the district's activities.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hoffman and family took Mrs. Beryl Hickson and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lockard, of Medford, to Portland over the weekend where they boarded the plane for Honolulu for a two-weeks' vacation. Mrs. Hickson's daughter, Doris, who lives with her in Eagle Point, is presently in Honolulu representing the Oregon Woolworth stores along with another employee from Coos Bay to open a new store there. Doris will remain there for at least a month but hopes to be home in time for the state baseball tournament so she can play with the Dairy Maids.

Miss Sharron Cartwright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Cartwright of South B st., was in Klamath Falls last week visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Labe Lucas, and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Lucas and family.

Carl Vickoren of Brownsboro is convalescing at home from an appendectomy. His daughters, Carol and Helen, are also at home recovering from a car accident about three weeks ago. Carol received a broken nose while Helen had scalp lacerations and three broken vertebrae. Helen will be in a cast for three more months and would welcome visitors.
