

GRANDVIEW Attend Homecoming

By LILLIAN KNIGHT
Grandview - Mrs. William Underwood, accompanied by her daughter, Laurie, attended homecoming Sunday at St. Vincent's school of nursing in Portland. Underwood drove them to Portland, returning the first of the week. Mrs. Underwood and Laurie returned the middle of the week.

Mrs. John McKinney returned home from the hospital Wednesday after a stay of about 10 days. She is in bed but is allowed to have visitors.

Saturday, July 11, a surprise baby shower of unusual character in which the father rather than the mother was honoree, was given by Mrs. William Underwood at the Underwood home. Dale Pratt, the new father, received several gifts for the baby.

Guests were Norman Thomas, William Underwood, Fred Underwood, Fred Stevens, Bud Greb, Bud Mark, Vaughn Keyser, and Tim Underwood.

Mrs. Harold Greb, Mrs. Vaughn Keyser and Laurie and Linda Underwood helped Mrs. Underwood with the refreshments.

The daughter of the Pratts, born July 6, has been named Carla Ann.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy McKinney and their three children of Marysville, Calif., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stearns, former residents of this community now of Rose ave. Mrs. McKinney is the former Myrna Stearns, and the two families are now vacationing in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Thames and eight-month-old son, Timmy and Jack Ingwerolon, brother of Mrs. Thames, all of Garden Grove, Calif., returned to their home Monday, July 13, after visiting here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Thames. The two families and Ingwerolon, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Harris, and Mrs. Bob Burton and children, Butch, Button, and Camela, spent a recent weekend at Diamond lake.

On the following Sunday a family picnic reunion dinner was held at Lake of the Woods with members water skiing.

Mr. and Mrs. Bozy Tapovic of Gold Hill, Mrs. Ray Jones and children, Butch and Shirley, of Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pappas and children, Debbie and Dara, of Diamond lake, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Chamberlin. They all went to TouVelle park for a picnic lunch and in the evening went to Ashland.

Butch Jones visited the Chamberlins for a week before returning to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Norris recently returned home after a month's vacation to Kansas City and Independence, Mo., where they visited a brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Norris' and other relatives. They visited in the states of California, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado, Utah, Wyoming, Montana, and Idaho. They took in the Grand Canyon, Glacier National and the Grand Teton National parks, Yosemite National park, the Painted Desert and Petrified forest in Arizona, Yellow-

Students Complete Safety Aid Course

Ten students recently completed the Red Cross water safety aid course given at the YMCA under the direction of Mrs. Lanell Wilkes. The course qualifies them to assist a swimming instructor during all phases of teaching.

Those completing the course were Nancy Donahue, Nona Donahue, Bill Dames, Sharie Forde, Ron Gandee, Linda Nelson, Anita Ritchey, Rebecca Rowan, Linda Wilkes and Marsha Williams.

Assisting Mrs. Wilkes during the course were Mimi Jones, Robert Allen, and Willard Harwood, who recently received leader examiner certificates at the YMCA aquatic institute in Eugene.

Chicago Firm Films Gold Mining

A Chicago film producer, Tod Stronquist, was scheduled to take pictures Saturday of "gold mining" at the frontier mining town of Gold Gulch at Hidden Valley ranch, according to co-owner LaRue Morris.

Stronquist told Morris the film is to be included in an educational movie.

Gold Gulch, a replica of an early day gold mining town, is located on Hidden Valley ranch off Highway 99 between Central Point and Gold Hill.

13 Disease Cases Reported Last Week

Thirteen cases of communicable diseases were reported to the Jackson County Health department for the week ending July 24, according to Dr. A. Erin Merkel, public health physician.

Influenza accounted for the majority of the cases, with Ashland reporting three cases and Medford and Shady Cove two each.

Other diseases were two cases of German measles in Medford, and one of measles. Ashland reported one case each of pneumonia, strep throat, and infectious mononucleosis.

Attend Conference

Two Medford optometrists participated in a three-day seminar on clinical and experimental optometry, July 24-26, at Pacific university college of optometry, Forest Grove.

Dr. William J. Thompson and Dr. Richard D. Nelson took part in the seminar, the first of a series of annual gatherings centered around a program of clinical study and research.

OLEG CASSINI DESIGN EMPHASIZES CONTOURS

PRINTED PATTERN
M276
by Oleg Cassini

"Look your most alluring—wear the Cassini," is the request you're likely to hear most often. Oleg Cassini creates fashions with an eye to the approval of men. In Printed Pattern M276, he fills in the curved neckline with a Dresden-like drift of frosty-white sheer—delicious against the shadowy lines, shantungs and crepes of summer afternoons and evenings. The waist is slimming, the hipline contoured beneath a button molded midriff. Join the Cassini fashion enthusiasts of society and movie stars—dazzle your own audience in your exclusive Cassini Original.

Printed Pattern M276 is available in Misses' Sizes 10, 12, 14, 16 and 18. Size 16 requires 3 yards 35-inch fabric, contrast vestee 3/4 yard 35-inch fabric.

Send one dollar for Printed Pattern M276 to Medford Mail Tribune, Pattern Department, P. O. Box 59, Old Chelsea Station, New York 11, N. Y. Please print plainly your name, address with zone, style number and size.

NOVELIST DIES

New York—UPI—Mrs. Alice Woods Ullman, 89, a novelist who wrote under the name of Alice Woods, died Friday night in her home.

There are now about 12 and a half million Americans who own stock in U.S. businesses. This compares with fewer than six and a half million in 1952.

QUESTION OF DEFINITION

Martinez, Calif. — (UPI) — It was purely a question of definition Friday when a former sheriff's aid denied that a stag show he allegedly promoted was lewd. "I particularly resent the implication that there was a nude show," said Raymond D. Van Tassel, 55. "He's absolutely right," replied District Attorney John A. Jed-

The County Court House at Pagosa Springs, Colo., is heated by hot water direct from the Pagosa hot springs.

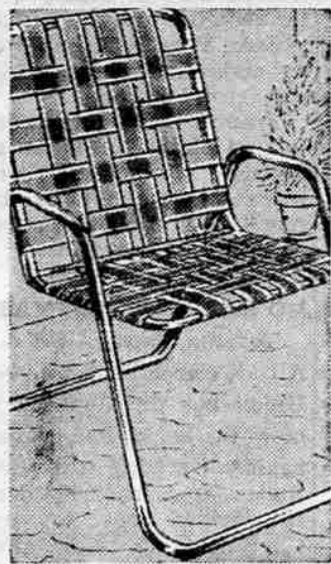

Despite the nation's declining farm population, farmers purchased $40,000,000,000 worth of goods and services in 1958, about 50 per cent more than they did 20 years ago.
