

Resurgent Braves Nab Four in Row; Yanks, Nine Tiffs Off, May Be Gone

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
The Braves are coming — and the Yankees may be gone.

That's the trend of the pennant races today as the straining defending champions struggle to organize late-season drives. It looks like the Braves are going to make a fight of it. But there's no sign that the Yankees can snap out of the coma that now has them drifting out of the race.

The Braves, bouncing back from a seven-game losing streak, ran their winning streak to four games Sunday when they beat the Pitts-

Pirates, 4-0 and 2-1. They're now only two percentage points behind second-place Los Angeles and two games behind first-place San Francisco.

The Yankees, meanwhile suffered a 1-0 loss to Frank Lary and the Detroit Tigers and fell one game below .500, nine games behind the Cleveland Indians, who took over first place with a 9-0 and 4-3 sweep of the Washington Senators.

Cubs Drop Giants
The Chicago Cubs scored a 7-3 victory over the Giants, the Dodgers whipped the St. Louis Cardinals, 6-2, and the Philadelphia Phillies beat the Cincinnati Reds, 6-3, after a 4-2 loss in the National league games.

The Baltimore Orioles knocked the White Sox out of first place, 4-0, after Chicago won the first game, 4-1, and the Kansas City Athletics ran their winning streak to seven games with a 5-4 decision over the Boston Red Sox in the other American League games.

Warren Spahn tossed the 47th shutout of his career and won his 13th game of the season in the first game and then Bob Buhl gained his seventh win for Milwaukee in the nightcap.

Larry, who has beaten the Yankees four times this year and is 20-5 over them lifetime, pitched an eight-hitter and struck out seven. Art Ditmar matched zeroes with the Alabama bulldog for nine innings but the Tigers won in the 10th.

Banks Slams Homer
Ernie Banks hit a two-run homer and pitcher Bob Anderson singled home two runs for the Cubs who dealt San Francisco's Mil's McCormick his eighth defeat.

Don Drysdale pitched a seven-hitter and hit a two-run homer as he won his 13th game for the Dodgers.

Jerry Lynch and Willie Jones hit homers to spark an eight-hit attack that brought Brooks Lawrence his sixth win but then Gene Conley pitched for his ninth triumph to earn the Phillies a split.

Rookie Jim Perry pitched a two-hitter and Woodie Held hit two homers for the Indians in the first game and the Tribe won the 12 inning night cap when Minnie Minoso doubled and scored on Jim Baxes' single.

Early Wynn pitched a two-hitter to run the White Sox's winning streak to five games but then Milt Pappas turned in a five-hitter that snapped the Orioles' losing streak at six games.

Harry Chitt snapped a 4-4 tie with a homer in the eighth inning as Kansas City's Ray Herbert won his 10th game.

Giants Play In Portland

Portland—UPI—The Portland Beavers, two games off the pace in the Pacific Coast League, clash with the first-place San Francisco Giants of the National League in an exhibition game here tonight.

The Beavers, who dropped a twin bill to San Diego Sunday, make a special trip home for the game. They open a series Tuesday at Sacramento. San Francisco was to fly into town today at 12:30 p.m. with a parade slated in the Giants' honor.

A crowd of more than 20,000 was expected.

The Beavers will use Marty Kutyna, one of their front-line hurlers, in an effort to knock off the Giants. San Francisco is expected to start right-hander Alan Worthington with Eddie Fisher in reserve.

MacKay Seems Back in Form

Haverford, Pa.—UPI—The return to top form of Barry MacKay sent American Davis Cup tennis hopes soaring today despite the latest defeat suffered by Alex Olmedo.

MacKay, on leave from the U. S. Air Force and trying to regain his best condition before the Davis Cup challenge around Aug. 28-30, showed that he's finding his touch again by winning the Pennsylvania Lawn Tennis championship for the second straight year Sunday. In the finals he beat Ian Vermaak of South Africa, 9-7, 10-8, 6-0.

The game by outgunned Vermaak thus failed in an effort to give South Africa a sweep of singles titles here. Sandra Reynolds, women's champion of South Africa, beat her countrywoman Renee Schuurman in the women's final, 1-6, 6-1, 6-4.

Rawls, Hanson Share in Lead

Chicago—UPI—Betsy Rawls and Beverly Hanson went into the final round of Mt. Prospect Country club's $20,000 women's open tournament today, tied for first place at a torrid 13 strokes under par.

Miss Rawls, the Spartanburg, S. C., top money-winner in ladies pro golf, and the veteran Miss Hanson, of Indio, Calif., took the lead Sunday when early pacemaker Mickey Wright shot over-par golf.

Miss Hanson fired a three-under-par 71 and Miss Rawls, who set a course record Saturday with a 69, shot a 73 to tie in first place at a 64-hole total of 219.

Miss Wright, who shot two sixes Sunday for an 18-hole total of 75, slipped to a third place tie with Louise Suggs, who shot a 74 for a tournament total of 220.

Ralph Dichter Retains Crown

Astoria—UPI—Astoria's Ralph Dichter successfully defended his Oregon Coast golf title at Astoria Golf and Country club Saturday by defeating Virg Mitchell of Colwood club, Portland, 9 and 8. The 34-year-old lumberman has won the Coast championship three times now.

In the women's division of the 49th annual classic, Oregon coed Shirley Sigmund, Eugene, dropped Molly Murphy of Waverley, Portland, 5 and 4.

The senior title was taken by Ted Fleskes of Royal Oaks, Vancouver, Wash., with a 2-up victory over R. J. Nichols of Riverside club in Portland.

The average American has to see his doctor five times a year.

EDSTROM STARS

Portland—UPI—Dave Edstrom, decaathlon star from Oregon, won five events Saturday in the Wilson high all-comers track meet here. Edstrom won the broad jump, javelin, discus, shot and 70-yard high hurdles. Jim Grelle of Oregon won the 880 in 2:02.5.

LEFTHAND CHAMP

Wenatchee—UPI—Jack Walters of Tacoma won his eighth Pacific Northwest Left-handers Golf tournament title in 12 tries here Saturday. Walters, the defending champion in the annual event, shot a six-over-par 150 to walk off with the first place. Second place went to Bob Wilson of Tacoma who shot a 153. Third place winner was Ben Dolt of Portland who shot a 156.

The tourney will be held in meadows and pine woods along Fall river in the DeChutes National forest.

Lon Stanton, St. Louis, Mo., national field archery champion, has entered the competition. The field will simulate actual hunting conditions including game animal silhouette targets.

Wyoming is called "the equality state" because it was the first to grant universal women's suffrage—even before it was admitted to the Union in 1890.

National Bow Tourney Starts

Bend—UPI—More than 1,200 bowmen are expected at Fall River lodge near here for the opening today of the four-day National Field Archery tournament.

SWIMMER SETS RECORD

Wallwijk, Holland—UPI—Ria Van Velzen of The Netherlands broke the world record for the women's 100-yard backstroke Sunday when she won the event in a dual meet with Britain in 1:11.7, two-tenths of a second faster than the mark of Britain's Judy Graham.

Lightning is seldom seen in the polar regions.
