PITCHES HERE THURSDAY—Louise Mazzuca will be one of the pitchers Thursday night, July 30, when three women's teams vie in the Centennial Softball attraction at Memorial stadium, Camp White.

She's the star chucker for the Erv Lind Florists of Portland. The Florists will meet the Raybestos Brackets, world champions from Stratford, Conn., in the second game of a twin-bill. Rogue Valley Dairy Maids meet the Brakettes in the 7:30 p.m. opener. Miss Mazzuca is the leading pitcher of the Northwest Women's Major Softball league. For the full season the 19-year-old thrower has a 13-2 record. Eagle Point Lions are sponsors of the double-header. They have tickets on sale at Lampport's Sporting Goods store in Medford and at Jake Olson's confectionery at Eagle Point. Dairy Maid players also are selling tickets.

Lou Wolff Garners Eliminator Honors

Lead-footed Lou Wolff, driving the sleek Wolff & Wiley flathead Ford powered B dragster eliminated all comers for the second consecutive time at the Sunday drag races held at Camp White.

Wolff, in quick-starting acceleration machine, defeated favored Noel Black from Medford in the top eliminator run offs when Black's dragster broke an axle leaving the starting line. The only other competition vehicle left in the running was the Wheelers Zombie and Wolff edged this coupe for the top eliminator trophy.

Black did register the top time of the day with a mark of 121.10 on the measured quarter-mile strip. He was piloting the Roberts and Black 408 cubic-inch Olds powered A dragster. This was the first time out for this engine and the team felt confident it would be turning faster times in the future.

Ken Allison, Brookings, returned after a month's absence to cop the B gas and little eliminator honors with his '58 Plymouth. Allison's best time was 97.50 miles per hour.

Pear Check Fees Take Big Jump

Salem — Fresh fruit packers will pay 90 cents to $1 more for most grade and condition certificates as result of a new order issued by the state department of agriculture.

"Shipping point inspection services are self-sustaining and the increases at this time are a necessary move to bring income into line with outgo," says Hugh Taylor, plant division chief for the department.

Except for minimum fees, the new schedule will not affect potatoes, onions, walnuts and filberts.

The order, effective July 1, jumps certificate fees for apple and pear inspections from a range of $3.60-$10.50 to a range of $4.50-$11.50, with an additional 3 cents per cwt. over 40,000 pounds.

Maids Break Even With Seattle Nine

Rogue Valley Dairy Maids, nosed out the Seattle Ramblers 3 to 2 Sunday to divide their week end Northwest Women's Major Softball league series in the Washington city.

Seattle won 6 to 2 on Saturday night.

The Maids yesterday picked up all their scores in the fourth inning when Nadine Brood three-baggered and Shirley Hanson and Jean Main each singled. There were three fielders' choices in the frame. Seattle put over its two runs in the sixth canto on a walk, triple by Diane Darnell and a fielder's option.

Brood, Main and Darnell each slammed two hits in the ruckus. Ellen Callaghan tossed

RVCC Tips Klamath in Team Golf

Men of Rogue Valley Country club barely nicked Klamath Falls yesterday in a team golf tussle.

Score in the Nassau-scored engagement was 42½ to 41½.

Carl Schmidt, RV, took the low gross honors with a 74 while Bill Gregory gained low gross prize for the visitors with a 76. Other gross prize getters for Klamath were Lloyd Mann 77, Frank Tarr 80 and Duke Zamsky 81. Low cards for the Medford team after Schmidt were Bill Clark 77, Dick House 78 and Clayton Lewis 79.

Low net victors for Reames were Ray Beeber 78-71, George Brosterhouse 83-10-73, Ed Brosterhouse 87-14-73 and Stan Soran 87-13-74. Best nets for Rogue Valley were Bob Anderson 81-13-68, Glenn Jackson 86-17-69, Darrell Miller 87-16-71 and Ole Olson 81-8-73.

Long drive winners for low handicappers on No. 18 fairway were George Brosterhouse and Schmidt. For low handicappers on No. 9 long drivers were Bill Woods, Klamath, and Miller, Medford.

Bill Bechen, Klamath, gained the award for closest to the pin on No. 15 for low handicappers.

In the professional match Ron Caperna, RVCC, and Clark Good, Reames, each grossed 76s and split 1½ to 1½.

Each of the teams won 12 individual matches out of the 28 and they split the other four. Rogue Valley won eight tussles by 3 to 0 margins while Reames took six by that score.

Daigle Seventh In Kosof Meet

Ogden, Utah—Shirley Daigle, Medford, Ore., keglar went into seventh place in the standings of the fifth annual Maxie Kosof World Endurance classic at Paramount bowl here Saturday.

She posted a scratch total of 3604 to put together with the 452 bonus pins of the liberal Kosof handicap system for the handicap score of 4056.

Mrs. Daigle had high games of 222, 218 and 204 among her 20 consecutive games across 20 lanes.

Director Kosof said tourney scores are "wide open," particularly in the men's handicap singles which pays $2000 guarantees first place and guarantees the next 19 places $1000 each. Handicaps are figured on two thirds of the entering average against 220.

Squads roll every day and entries will be accepted in all individual and team divisions until the final squad on August 24.

Other Medford scores here this week end: Helen Clark 3974, Helene Culy 3942, and Gale Culy 4121.

Bullets Fly At Havana Ball Park

By MILTON RICHMAN

Pop bottles and beer cans, okay, but slightly nervous international leaguers said today they'll take a raincheck on those flying bullets.

Many international league players voiced a marked reluctance today about returning to Havana where two of them were shot by celebrating rebel soldiers Saturday night during a game between the Cuban Sugar Kings and Rochester Red Wings.

Rochester infielder Frank Verdi was struck by a stray bullet above the right temple and shortstop Leonardo Cardenas on the right arm.

"If that bullet had been two inches to the left," said the still shaken Verdi, "all the team would have had to chip in five bucks apiece for flowers."

As a result, the Red Wings refused to take the field for a scheduled double-header with the Sugar Kings in Havana Sunday and League President Frank Shaughnessy said in Montreal that the Red Wings "acted with my permission because I could not order them to play if they thought they were in physical danger."

But the Red Wings weren't the only club in the league that was frightened.

"I doubt if we could get our ball club down there right now," said Manager Pepper Martin of the Miami Marlins.

Manager Steve Souchock of Richmond said he heard some of his players say "they are not interested in going back."

Souchock also said Toronto players had told him their entire team signed a petition saying they would not play in Havana any more this season.

Bow Tilt Won By Nottingham

Sherwood —(UPI)—Word was received here Sunday that Sherwood archers were defeated in an annual archery competition with bowmen from Nottingham, England. It was the first Sherwood loss in four years.

Officials of the Robin Hood festival here said a cable from Nottingham showed an eight-man English team scored 9,975 points versus Sherwood, 9,153 points.

Each team does its shooting on its own home ground and cables the results to the opponent.

Florists Near 2nd Half Toga

Portland —(UPI)—Portland's Erv Lind Florists banked Vancouver 1-0 at Normandale Park Sunday to clinch at least a tie for the second half title in the Northwest Women's Major Softball League race.

The Florists won the first half crown. Louise Mazzuca held Vancouver to only one hit.

Ashlanders Defeat Riddle in RV Loop; GP, CW Crews Win

Ashland Greyhound tavern handed Riddle its first loss of the season in the Rogue Valley league yesterday and took over top perch in the semi-pro baseball circuit's second half standings.

The Ashlanders tipped the first half winners 2 to 0 in a well-played conflict at Ashland. It was the second win of the second half for the tavern team.

Camp White and Grants Pass were with Ashland in the undefeated class in the final half race after Sunday victories, their first in the second session of the loop.

Grants Pass outscored Medford Bowling lane 14 to 6 here and the Whitters trimmed Glendale 10 to 3 at Veterans Administration Memorial stadium.

Whitters Play BF
The Whitters oppose Butte Falls in a league make up game on Tuesday night at Camp White and can pull even with Ashland with a victory. Game time is 8 p.m.

Ashland held down Riddle with errorless field play and four-hit chugging by Dave D'Oliveo and poked over single counters in the sixth and seventh innings. In the sixth Ron Maurer and Phil Sword singles and Eldon Francis walked to load the bases. Jim Owens' sacrifice fly scored Maurer. Jim McAbee's triple in the seventh was followed by Larry Maurer's single.

Keith Johnson hit two for three for Ashland and Lee Roy King of Greyhound and Mike Hatfield of Riddle each hit twice in four times up. D'Oliveo struck out batters five times and walked four batters. Mickey Coen for Riddle recorded seven strikeouts and issued just one base on balls.

Errors, Walks Aid GP
The 12 bases on balls given up by Bowling lanes pitcher Dennis Barr and 10 Medford errors helped Grants Pass to its victory. Each team led 10 to 6 in the seventh when they got six runs over on hits by Lee Holmes, Moose Blevins and Roy Harris, two bases on balls, a hit batter, a sacrifice and two miscues. Medford was still in the game until that surge.

Medford and GP each tabulated in the first inning and Medford took a brief 4 to 1 edge in the second frame on three markers on doubles by Dave Hughes and Charles Retman, a single by Gordon Owsley and a hit batter. However, the Merchants tied up the fray in the top of the third with runs on hits by Blevins, Bill Martell and Harris, two bases on balls, a fielder's option and two errors.

GP took permanent command with two runs in the fourth inning and another in the sixth for 7 to 4 but Medford made it 7 to 6 with two tallies in the sixth.

Blevins hit three for four and Harris three for six to pace Grants Pass batting. Holmes punched two hits. Owsley, Hughes and Dick Durante each hit twice for Medford. Durante had two doubles and Retman, Hughes and Larry Perkins of Medford and Harris and Blevins each one.

Free-Hit-r
Mental mistakes as well as physical errors damaged the Medford cause.

Camp White won a free-hitting fracas from Glendale. The VA-sponsored club lashed Glendale pitcher Floyd West for 15 hits with Wayne Allen, Don Wendt, Pete Hale, Jack Turk and Vern Parent each getting two. Allen homered and drove in four runs and Don Sanford and George Ice each batted in a pair.

Cliff Worley had three safeties and Bud Smart and Ray Munyon each two for Glendale and Smart knocked in two markers.

Camp White had two big innings with three runs in sixth inning and four in the seventh.

Glendale got all its runs off innings.
