Montanans Seek Soda Pop Santas

Wanted: the unidentified good Samaritans who are cementing cordial relations between Medford and Monfana.

Yesterday another letter was received by the Mail Tribune regarding the touring Medford vacationers who last month left some soda pop cooling in a mountain stream near Helena, Mont. The first letter was a note of thanks from the hard-working cowboys who found the pop, and it was printed in the Mail Tribune.

But yesterday's letter goes a step farther. It's an invitation to the generous Medford folks – still unidentified – for a tour of the ranch next time they're up Helena way.

So step forward, folks; the Bowers ranch crew of Helena wants to hear from you and meet you.

Assessor Receives Commission Opinion

County Assessor Ray Schumacher received an opinion from the state tax commission this morning regarding the Medford and Eagle Point school district budgets and immediately submitted it to the district attorney for consideration.

It is hoped that the district attorney will comment on the opinion by tomorrow morning.

The budgets were invalidated by Schumacher last week in connection with recent state legislation regarding the consolidation of school districts. It is hoped that the opinion received today will clarify the status of the budgets.

Court to Consider Road Roller Bids

The county court this morning opened and took under advisement bids for a 10-ton roller for the county road department.

Bids were received from two local and two Portland concerns. Bids, including a trade-in allowance on the current county-owned machine, were for $5,400 from Howard Cooper corporation, Central Point; $5,650 from Cal-Ore Machinery company, Medford; $6,028 from Loggers and Contractors Machinery company, Portland; and $5,950 from Air-Mac Inc., Portland.

The court asked for time to consider the bids and specifications.

Youth's Condition Still Listed as Good

Ronny Arthur Becker, 13, was still reported in good condition at Sacred Heart hospital today following his hospitalization Tuesday after a collision between his bicycle and a motorcycle.

The accident occurred early Tuesday morning on Highway 99 near Phoenix. The Becker youth and two companions were taking part in a 25-mile bike trip as part of the requirements for a Boy Scout merit badge.

They had been to Ashland and were returning to Medford.

11,436 At Exposition In Portland Tuesday

Portland – (UPI) – Attendance at the Centennial Exposition Tuesday was 11,436 to bring the total to date to 684,530.

The Art Linkletter show drew 5,086 Tuesday.

Exposition managers decided Tuesday to close the 11-acre main exhibition building to the public at 11 p.m. instead of midnight each night, starting Thursday. Commercial exhibitors had requested the change.

Discoverer Satellite Firing Postponed

Vandenberg AFB, Calif.–(UPI) –The firing of the Discoverer V satellite missile was postponed here today for the second consecutive day.

The Air Force announced poor weather conditions, hindering visual tracking of the takeoff, caused the postponement. The launch will be rescheduled as soon as weather permits, the Air Force said.

U.S., Russia Set End to Talks

Geneva – (UPI) – The United States and Russia agreed today to wind up the deadlocked Big Four Foreign Ministers conference within a week. The decision came after the Soviets brought the talks to a near-breakdown by increasing their price for a Berlin truce.

American diplomats warned that they had little hope of any Berlin agreement before the scheduled wind-up.

The other western allies agreed to the Herter-Gromyko arrangement.

The end of the talks need not necessarily be a rupture or a break-up in anger, a U. S. spokesman indicated.

He said the United States hopes to resume the discussions on Berlin and Germany at a later date.

Assistant Secretary of State Andrew Berding, in making the announcement, added this caution: "Do not interpret this to mean that the conference will end with an agreement."

Record Attendance Expected by Demos

Portland – A "record outpouring from all corners of Oregon" is expected at the Dave Epps Memorial dinner in Portland Saturday night, according to Acting Democratic State Chairman Beulah Hand.

Sen. John Kennedy of Massachusetts will speak and Robert Duncan, Medford attorney and speaker of the Oregon house of representatives, will be general chairman. Congresswoman Edith S. Green will present Senator Kennedy.

The late Democratic State Chairman Dave Epps, who died in Salem June 29, had made preliminary plans for the Kennedy dinner.

The event will be held at 7 p.m. in the Neighbors of Woodcraft hall. Tickets are available at the Democratic State committee, Governor building, Portland, or from any Democratic county chairman.

GOP Resurgence Noted in Hawaii

Honolulu –(UPI)– A Japanese-American war hero and a Chinese-American millionaire today captured congressional seats in Hawaii's first election as the nation's 50th state.

A Republican resurgence marked Tuesday's election with more than 90 per cent of the island state's 183,000 voters jumping across party lines.

The GOP elected the governor, lieutenant governor and one U. S. senator. The Democrats, in firm control of island politics for the past five years, nailed down the other U. S. Senate position and the lone seat in the House of Representatives.

In the state legislature, the Republicans held a 13-12 lead in the Senate with several seats undecided. In the House, the Democrats led 33-18.

Republican William F. Quinn launched himself into national prominence and touched off a horn-tooting, firecracker-popping spree by supporters when he defeated Democrat John A. Burns, former delegate to the House of Representatives.

Oil Strength Helps Carry Stock Market

New York–(UPI)–Strength in oils helped carry the stock market into new high territory today.

In the rails, Atlantic Coast Line rose 2 points and Northern Pacific and Southern Pacific nearly 2. Kansas City Southern, an exception, lost 2 points.

Steel shares ruled strong following U.S. Steel's record first half report.

Amerada led the oils with a gain of more than 4 points. Gains of 3 or more came into Shell, Gulf, and Richfield.

DuPont gained nearly 5 points to lift the industrial average. It sold at a new high in a strong chemical group. Aluminum issues were soft with losses ranging to more than 2 points. Motors sagged. Corning Glass was up nearly 3. Drugs produced several strong spots and one weak one –Merck–which lost more than 4 points. Electronics issues met support after a dip.
