

Statewide Group For Humphrey's Campaign Named

Portland—(UPI)—Formation of a statewide planning committee for Sen. Hubert M. Humphrey's campaign in the 1960 Oregon Democratic presidential primary was announced Wednesday.

Keith Burns of Portland, spokesman for the group, said the committee soon would consider selection of campaign leaders in every county of the state. It will be called "Oregon Democrats for Humphrey."

The Minnesota lawmaker's candidacy for the presidency recently was announced.

Burns, a Multnomah county deputy district attorney, said the committee was "highly gratified over the wide public support that the prospective candidacy of Senator Humphrey has evoked in Oregon, and is confident he will wage a forthright and victorious campaign in the Oregon primary."

Among members of the Legislature in the committee are State Sens. Robert W. Straub, Springfield; William A. Grenfell Jr., Portland; Dan Dimick, Roseburg; and Dwight Hopkins, Imbler; State Reps. Ed Benedict, Gresham and Carl Yancey, Klamath Falls; Wayne Turner, St. Helens; Bill Bradley, Troutdale, and John L. Kerbow, Klamath Falls.

Other members of the statewide group include Multnomah county District Attorney Charles Raymond; Multnomah County Assessor Joe Hawkins; ex-Congressman Nan Wood Honeyman, Olga Wilson, Gene Heiss, Vustava Thompson, Volney Martin, Alton John Bassett, Warren Tinker, Allen Haffard, Cecile Oliver, Ernie Baker and Burns, all of Portland; Ann Chambers, Oregon City; Dr. John Rademacher and Cornelius Bateson, both of Salem; Mark (Red) Norton, Phoenix; Al Roll, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Straus and R. A. James, Gold Hill; Ralph Witcher and Cyrel Schooling, Junction City; Ivan C. Laird, Sitkum; Clarence Carter, La Grande; Forest Amsden, Coos Bay, and Eugene Conklin, Pendleton.

Adventists List Ministerial Changes

Portland—(UPI)—Elder Lloyd E. Biggs, retiring president of the Oregon Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists, Wednesday announced ministerial changes affecting 12 churches of the conference.

Elder L. L. Huntington of McMinnville will assume leadership of the Hood River district. Elder I. M. Burke of Hood River will assume the pastorate of the McMinnville district with congregations at Newberg and Yamhill as well as McMinnville.

Also transferring will be Elder H. W. Hemple, Gaston, who will assume district control of the Grande Ronde, Dallas, Fall City and Sheridan congregations. Elder M. M. Mohr of Dallas will become pastor of the Forest Grove, Gaston and Laurelwood churches.

Portland Man Found With 'Note' Plates

Portland—(UPI)—Portland night spot operator Elmo Franklin Jacks, 42, was arrested by federal agents and city detectives Wednesday on a charge of illegally possessing plates for printing counterfeit federal reserve notes.

Jacks, operator of Elmo's Western club, appeared before U. S. Commissioner Clarence M. Munderoff and was bound over to a federal grand jury Wednesday afternoon. Bond was set at $1,500.

The arrest followed a tip from a commercial printer. The plates, for printing $10 and $20 bills, were found in Jacks' automobile.

The arrest was made by secret service and treasury agents and Portland city detectives. Secret Service Agent Frank J. Kenney said photographic negatives and genuine currency from which the plates were made were also confiscated.

Corvallis Man Named Photographers' Head

Los Angeles—(UPI)—Robert L. Ball of Corvallis, Ore., who operates Ball Studios at Albany and Corvallis, Wednesday was named president of the Professional Photographers of America, Incorporated.

He was elected during the 68th Exposition of Professional Photography and the National Industrial Photographic conference here.
