

Dairy Maids Will Tussle McCulloch

Rogue Valley Dairy Maids this week end will be Northwest Major Softball league hostesses for the first time in almost a month. They will entertain Eugene McCulloch Chain Saw on Saturday night at 8 p.m. and Sunday at 1:30 p.m. at Memorial stadium, Camp White.

These two games will wind up league play for the Maids while the Eugene club will have several more hills to go. Rogue Valley is aiming for a break-even second half in the loop. It has a 4-6 record now while Eugene's status (possibly not listed up to date) is shown as 1-4.

While the McCulloch nine has not fared to well in the league, it is expected to compete the Maids with stiff competition. Rogue Valley won its first ball league accolades from Eugene in the Emerald city by 5 to 4 and 3 to 1.

Agan are expected to have Agan are expected to have the pitching duties for the Dairy Maids. Lois Winn and Karen Kirkirke are Eugene choppers.

Rogue Valley has had some non-loop contention on its home diamond at Camp White but has not had a league game at Memorial stadium since July 5.

United Press International All league teams are scheduled for action this week end as the Northwest Women's Major Softball league heads into the final two weeks of play before metropolitan, state and regional playoffs.

On Saturday Salem is at the champion Lind Florists of Portland, Eugene is at Rogue Valley and Vancouver at Seattle. On Sunday the same schedule is in effect except that the Florists meet the other Portland club, American Linen, instead of Salem.

Thursday night Salem downed American Linen 1-0 in Portland.

Alice Jorgenson of Seattle holds the batting lead with a .385 mark while three Florist pitchers have perfect records. Louise Mazzuca is 9-0, Pear Pinion 7-0 and Jackie Rice 4-0.

SOTA Bills Big Gasser August 8-9

A special drag racing event will be held Saturday and Sunday Aug. 8 and 9, at the Camp White strip, Southern Oregon Timing association has announced.

Dubbed the "Big Gasser" by its sponsors the two day meet is expected to draw the largest entry list of gas class vehicles ever assembled in Southern Oregon. Advance entries are already being received from such points as Boise, Idaho and the San Francisco - Bay region.

Extra large trophies and other awards including cash will go to the winners. All class winners will receive 26-inch trophies. Top gas eliminator, to be chosen from the class winners by elimination, will receive a 30-inch trophy plus a $25 Savings bond. Top time of the meet registered by a gas class car will garner a $25 bond.

All cars recording speeds in excess of 100 miles per hour will receive at least $10 for breaking the century mark. Tow money is being paid to all entrants towing their cars over 300 miles and turning speeds in excess of 95 mph. on the electronic clocks.

SOTA officials noted that a gas class vehicle is any passenger coupe or sedan that can be licensed and driven on the public highways. Association officials stated that in addition to the emphasized gas class a full slate of other competition will be run at the races.

TO JOIN ARCHIE San Diego, Calif. - Light-heavyweight champion Archie Moore's wife, Joan, hoped to be released from the hospital today so she can fly to Canada where her husband is training for a fight. Mrs. Moore underwent an ear operation recently for removal of a non-malignant tumor pressing on her brain. Moore canceled his scheduled title bout with Yvon Durrelle on July 29 when he returned to be with his wife during the operation.

Athletics Win 11th in Hot Surge; Senators Lose 12th; SF Giants Return to First

By MILTON RICHMAN United Press International "We could get kicked in the teeth tomorrow, but right now we're sitting on top of the world!"

General manager Parke Carroll said it of the amazing Kansas City Athletics, who now have won 11 in a row and have reached third place in the American league with the longest winning streak of the major league season.

"I'm proud of this club no matter what happens," Carroll added. "We're living from day to day, but if we can keep on going like this who knows, we may have a shot at everything."

The A's moved out in front in the second inning Thursday night and stayed there the rets of the way to hand the Senators their 12th straight loss, 4-1, behind the combined pitching of knuckleballers Bud Daley and Tom Sturdivant. Daley was credited with his 12th victory in 18 decisions.

Longest Streak Since Move The club's 11-game winning streak is by far its longest since the franchise was moved from Philadelphia to Kansas City. All the victories have come while coach Bob Swift has led the team in the absence of manager Harry Craft, who had been hospitalized because of fatigue.

Thursday night's victory over Washington lifted the A's to within 8 1/2 games of the first-place White Sox, who defeated the Yankees, 3-1. Cleveland land remained within a game of the top by nipping Boston 4-3, and Detroit walloped Baltimore, 11-2.

The Pirates knocked the Dodgers out of first place in the National League by beating them, 5-4, in 12 innings; the Giants took over the lead with a 7-2 decision over the Phillies; the Cardinals shaded the Reds, 1-0, and the Braves moved into second place with a 6-2 triumph over the Cubs.

A pair of errors by the stumbling Yankees helped veteran Early Wynn turn in his 14th victory for the White Sox. Chicago broke a 1-1 tie in the seventh and put the game out of reach with another run in the eighth when Tony Kubek committed a two-base error and Hector Lopez a wild throw.

Minnie Minoos drove in all four of the Indians runs in their victory over the Red Sox. Minoos broke a 3-3 tie in the ninth when he singled home winning pitcher Larry Locke from second base.

Frank Lary fired a seven-inning and coasted to his 13th victory when his Tiger teammates ranked four Oriole pitchers for 15 hits. Ted Lepcio and Coot Veal each drove in three runs.

Roman Mejias enabled the Pirates to snap a nine-game losing streak when he singled home the winning run against the Dodgers in the 12th inning. Mejias also homered in the second inning.

Willie McCovey, playing his first game in the major leagues, rapped out a pair of triples and two singles to help the Giants end a four-game losing streak and beat the Phillies.

Like McCovey, rookie pitcher Bob Gibson made an impressive debut for the Cardinals against the Reds. Gibson recalled from Omaha of the American Assn., scattered eight hits and pitched his way out of a ninth-inning bases loaded jam to earn his first major league win.

Southpaw Warren Spahn of the Braves won his 14th game of the season and the 260th of his career in setting down the Cubs on five hits. Four Milwaukee home runs made Spahn's job easy.

CRASH PROGRAM Los Angeles - (UPI) - Ralph Hamilton, 40, rushed into a telephone booth to call his wife with the good news - the property they wanted to buy was now available. Still excited as he hung up the phone, Hamilton walked out right through the booth's glass door. He received only minor cuts.

The suspenseful countdown reached zero Thursday but the main stage of the towering rocket failed to fire. The attempt was called off and no other launching date was set.

In the past it has taken at least two days before another attempt at launching could be made after a technical failure was discovered.

Launching of the baby moon was cancelled both Tuesday and Wednesday because of bad weather.

Discoverer V Shot Postponed Again Vandenberg AFB Calif. - (UPI) - Technical reasons were blamed today for the third straight postponement of launching of Discoverer V satellite.

The suspenseful countdown reached zero Thursday but the main stage of the towering rocket failed to fire. The attempt was called off and no other launching date was set.

In the past it has taken at least two days before another attempt at launching could be made after a technical failure was discovered.

Launching of the baby moon was cancelled both Tuesday and Wednesday because of bad weather.

Len Matthews MCFarland Foe

New York - (UPI) - Len Matthews, youngest of the lightweight contenders, continues his campaign for a title shot tonight in a TV fight with Marvin (Candy) McFarland at Madison Square Garden.

Both are from Philadelphia, where they fought five times as amateurs. Slick, speedy McFarland - protege of Sugar Ray Robinson - won four of those bouts.

However, for their first professional clash in tonight's rounder, sturdy, hard-hitting Matthews is favored at 7-5 because of his impressive record as a money-fighter against superior opposition.

Bad Streak Halted by Pittsburgh

Los Angeles - (UPI) - The Pittsburgh Pirates left town today with the satisfaction of having ended their nine-game losing streak as well as having dropped Los Angeles out of first place.

The Pirates used their "secret" weapon, the extra-inning game, to score a 5-4 victory over the Dodgers Thursday night in 12 innings. It was the Pirates 13th extra-inning victory this year, against one loss - that being Harvey Haddix' 12-inning "perfecto" to Milwaukee.

The combination of a Dodger loss and victories by both San Francisco and Milwaukee dropped Los Angeles into third place, three percentage points back of the Braves and six behind the Giants.

The rejuvenated Philadelphia Phillies come to town tonight and the Dodgers send star hurler Don Drysdale, with his 13-6 record, to the mound in the hope he can get them back into the lead. For the Phillies, Gene Cooney, 9-6, was scheduled to start.

Dodger Manager Walt Alston, who kept his lineup virtually intact while the Dodgers were on a three-game win streak, announced he is putting outfielder Don Demeter and catcher John Roseboro back in the lineup tonight.
