Episcopal Church Scene Of Heitkamp-Eaton Rites

Miss Linda Katherine Eaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Eaton, 536 South Riverside avenue, became the bride of Martin Deitric Heitkamp, 2929 South Pacific highway, in a ceremony held July 25 at St. Mark's Episcopal church.

The Rev. John S. Power, former assistant of St. Mark's and now vicar of Church of the Good Shepherd, Prospect, officiated at the four o'clock afternoon double ring ceremony. Baskets of gladioli decorated the church for the rites.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle over satin fashioned with lace front panel and lace and tulle ruffles down the back of the skirt forming a chapel length train. A cap of lace with pearls and sequins held her fingertip length veil and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink roses.

Mrs. James Watrus, was matron of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Judy Hooper and Miss Patricia Brookman. Mrs. Watrus wore a gown of pink chiffon over taffeta with a matching satin headpiece with short veil and carried a bouquet of pink tinted white carnations. The bridesmaids wore dresses styled as Mrs. Watrus' in aquamarine chiffon over taffeta with blue tinted carnation bouquets.

Little Connie Leever, Scottsdale, Ariz., niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a white organza frock with white daisies in her hair.

Deter Trost served as best man for his cousin. Seating the guests were Gregory Orr, Central Point, and James Peterson.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Eaton chose a Persian blue silk sheath with white accessories. Mrs. Heitkamp wore a blue print frock with matching bolero and blue hat and white accessories. Their corsages were of white flowers.

Miss Cave, Riley Bean Married

The wedding of Miss Shirley Cave, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe D. Cave, 510 Experiment Station road, to Riley Bean, Phoenix, took place in Yreka, Calif., July 18.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bean, 411 Church street, Phoenix.

Bishop Donald Whitacker of the Yreka Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints performed the double-ring service at 7 o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Acotto, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom. Sixteen relatives and friends were present.

Miss Glenna Heath, Medford, and Tay Bradfield, Fortuna, Calif., attended the couple.

The bride wore a pink suit with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Miss Heath wore a light brown dress with white eyelet trim and white accessories. Her flowers also were pink roses.

White gladioli and greenery decorated the rooms.

The young couple traveled to San Jose following their wedding and will reside in Scotia, Calif., where the bridegroom is employed by Pacific Lumber company.

The bride attended Medford schools and her husband went to school in Phoenix.

Christopher Day To Do Field Work In Anthropology

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher C. Day left yesterday morning for San Bartolome, Chiapas, Mexico, where Mr. Day will do field work for his master's thesis in anthropology.

Mr. Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Benjamin Day Jr., Sams Valley, was recently awarded a one-year fellowship from the Organization of American States, Pan-American Union, for his study in Mexico.
