Dance Teacher In California For Workshop

Miss Colleen Hope, Medford dance teacher, left this week end for Carmel, Calif., where she will attend the Carmel-by-the-Sea Summer Ballet theater workshop, a concentrated two week ballet course for teachers and advanced students.

Miss Hope was accompanied by one of her students, Miss Edie Reinking, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Farrar.

Earlier in the summer Miss Hope attended the National Association of Dance and Allied Arts conservatorie held for one week at the Statler Hilton hotel in Los Angeles. This teachers' convention featured work in all phases of the dance.

While in Los Angeles, Miss Hope visited with Miss Valerie Harper, one of her former students and former Ashland resident, and was a guest of Miss Harper on the Paramount studio sound stage where she is dancing a part in the film version of "Lil Abner."

Miss Harper danced the same role in the Broadway production of "Lil Abner" as in the film, which is being made in Vistavision and color. Upon completing the film Miss Harper will return to New York and a dance role in the current Broadway hit "Destry Rides Again."

In Los Angeles Miss Hope also visited with Miss Mary Annette Rentz, former assistant at the Hope Studio now residing in Long Beach.

Dance classes at the Colleen Hope studio have been suspended for the month of August, however the office will remain open.

Mirrors were once more valuable than paintings by master artists. In the 17th Century a large Venetian mirror cost more than 8,000 livres (a livre then was worth about a pound of silver). In contrast, a rare Raphael painting was then valued at only 3,000 livres.

Miss Colleen Hope, Medford dancer, is pictured here (center) during a recent visit to the Paramount Studios in Hollywood. Miss Hope was a guest of Miss Valerie Harper, formerly of Ashland and one of Miss Hope's former pupils who is in the cast of the film version of "Lil Abner." Also pictured is "Stubby" Kaye, another member of the cast. Miss Harper will return to New York after completion of the film to rejoin the cast of "Destry Rides Again." New York musical comedy hit.
