Dollars and Sense

When it comes to handling money,
My wife is pretty shifty.
For instance, take my pay check—
We split it $50/50¢.

—Francis O. Walsh

Teen-agers will drive anything with wheels except the power mower.

—Kenneth J. Shively

Some of those movies on TV are so old
the historical characters are played by themselves.

A Dim View on Bright Awakenings

Aunt Annabelle came for a visit,
The first she has made to our city,
And started adorning our breakfast each
morning
With strains of a glad little ditty:

"Another lovely hunk of life!"
Her daily greeting went;
"How sweet you look!"—that to my wife!
And "Who's this handsome gent? ...
I slept just like a little mouse ...
The coffee's perfect, Dear!"
Oh, how the sunshine filled the house
As long as she was here.

Aunt Annabelle came for a visit—
The last one, I mean to advise her.
For nothing I know of is worse than the glow of
The cheerful riser!

Advertising Endorsements I Am Available For

"I consider it not only a privilege but an honor to run a Water King. I find it handles better than any 60-foot power cruiser that has ever been presented to me."

"It has been a month since a Family Fun Swimming Pool has been installed on our property for me and my family to try out. I am happy to report it is satisfactory in every respect—and my neighbors say so, too."

"Bonny Heath is the ideal country club—perfect golf course, excellent cuisine, splendid companionship. It is impossible to describe how much I enjoy my complimentary membership."

"It's true other stocks are quoted higher
on the exchange than Consolidated Cheese and Crackers, but I state unequivocally that the 1,000 shares given me are mighty comforting to have. Annual dividends of $42 per share seem fair and reasonable to me."

—Parke Cummings

A five-year-old's parents had been trying to teach him that Sunday was a day of worship, not just play. One Sunday they dressed him for church, but before they could get under way he was splashing in the tub with his toy boats.

"Didn't I tell you what Sunday means!"
the mother asked angrily.

"Mom, this is no pleasure trip," the youngster replied. "These are missionary boats going to Africa!"

—A. W. Stinson

"Here we are ... Oh, dear! My, my, my ... Oh, my! ... Ahh, ha! ... Hmmm ...
Tsk, tsk ..."

CURAD® New "mercy bandage" won't pull the scab off

NOT THIS!

NOW THIS!

Unlike gauze bandages, new CURAD with non-sticking Telfa® pad won't hurt when you take it off ... won't reopen healing wounds

No more crying when the bandage has to come off. New Curad "mercy bandage" has a pad of Telfa (like the Telfa Dressings used in hospitals). Gauze is covered with a plastic surface which never sticks to the wound, won't pull the scab off.

Flesh color or transparent for adults, Battle Ribbon colors and designs for the kids.
Medicated. Waterproof.

Curad bandages for cuts,
scratches; Telfa sterile
pads for larger wounds.
