

Defense, Pitching Paying for Solons

By RICK TALLEY
United Press International
The Chicago White Sox have nothing on Sacramento's Solons.

The Sac, "hitless wonders" of the Pacific Coast league, did it again Wednesday night. Behind right-hander Vincenzo Brown they nipped Vancouver, 3-2, and maintained a one and a half game lead in the merry PCL race.

A pair of shutouts highlighted other action, as Portland's Ken Johnson blanked San Diego, 3-0, and Spokane nudged Phoenix, 1-0. Salt Lake thumped Seattle in the other game, 8-4.

Sacramento, with a paltry .248 team batting average for the season, is sixth in team hitting, seventh in total hits, sixth in runs scored and has hit exactly 100 less home runs than fifth-place Phoenix.

Who Needs Hitting?
Yet the Solons lead the league.

Only Mike Krsnich of the Solons is hitting above .300, at .306. But the Sac are strong on defense, leading the loop in double plays—and they have pitching.

Brown won his 10th of the year Wednesday night, but it took relief by Perry Fox (7-1) to preserve it. Other Sac mound mainstays are Roger Osenbaugh (7-8), Joe Stanka (12-8) and Carl Greene (10-6).

Ken Johnson twirled a five-hitter and batted in a run in Portland's 3-0 blank job over San Diego. It was Ken's 13th win against five losses.

Bob DiPietro hit his 10th home run of the year for Portland.

University of Oregon, Eugene, (Special)—Tickets applications for Oregon's great 1959 football scheduled, one which includes six rugged home games, were mailed early this week and a quick response has indicated a heavy early demand for the season tickets.

The Webfoots play a 10-game schedule this fall, with three of the tiffs slated for Portland's Multnomah stadium and another three billed for Hayward Field in Eugene.

Oregon hosts the Air Force Academy, Washington and California in Portland. They play Utah, Washington State and Oregon State in Eugene.

The new state includes the Portland appearance of two 1959 bowl events—California, the PCC 1958 champ who bowed to Iowa in the Rose Bowl, and the upstart Air Force who climaxed a brilliant season by tying Texas Christian in the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day.

Should Have Horses
Tough schedule or not, the Ducks of Coach Len Casanova should have the horses when they open the season at Stanford on Sept. 19. Seventeen lettermen, including most of the starting backfield from a year ago, return to offer the high hopes.

Casanova, starting his ninth season at Oregon, has quarterback Dave Grosz, halfback Willie West, and fullback Dave Powell, three-quarters of the backfield starters in 1958 returning, plus halfbacks Dave Grayson, Herm McKinney and Don Laudenslager, quarterbacks Sandy Fraser and Roger Daniels, and fullback Harry Needham, all lettermen back, too.

Nine other lettermen, all linemen, also around. They include ends Greg Althenhofen, Len Burnett, Alden Kilmough and Fred Siler, tackles Tom Keele, and John Wilcox, guards John Willener and Dave Urell and center Bob Peterson, the brilliant all-coast selection and All-American candidate in 1959.

Police Guarding
New York—Bill Rosensohn was under police guard at a secret hideout today while the district attorney's office and the state athletic commission continued their investigations of his fight promotions.

His telephone-answering service said: "Mr. Rosensohn will be back Saturday."

The young promoter said the guarding had started Wednesday. He made that disclosure after his fifth visit to the DA's office Wednesday.

He was then re-subpoenaed to appear before the "boxing" grand jury Aug. 28. That grand jury, which for nearly two years has been investigating underworld connections with boxing, is interested in the activities that surrounded the promotion of the June 26 heavyweight title fight between Floyd Patterson and Ingemar Johansson at Yankee Stadium.

Rosensohn has charged publicly that he was coerced into giving up the rights to theater-TV, radio and movies to the June fight, and into giving up two-thirds of the stock in his promoting organization, Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc.

When reporters asked him Wednesday if the police guard was proof that he had received threats from underworld mobsters, he replied: "I don't know. No comment."

Sonny Liston Stops Valdes
Chicago—Sonny Liston, rated the world's third best heavyweight, won his 25th pro fight with only one eye Wednesday night, but it was by choice.

Liston, scoring his 18th straight victory, had to close his right eye to knock out Cuban trial horse Nino Valdes at 47 seconds of the third round because he was seeing double.

"I was seeing two of him all through the second round," he said. "I think he stuck his thumb in my eye. Anyhow it started to close and I was seeing two of everything after that."

3 MHS Players To Enroll at UO

Eugene—(UPI)—Three Medford baseballers have informed Duck Coach Don Kirsch that they will enroll at University of Oregon this fall.

The three are Dennis Barr, pitcher; Bob Pond, catcher; and Ron Peery, outfielder.

Barr and Pond were members of the Medford High Black Tornado's 1959 state semi-final team and Peery was a 1958 Medford grad. Barr was starting hurler for state in the state prep all-star game at Eugene in June. Peery played in the 1958 all-star mix.

They're Barry Latman and Jim McNaney who haven't captured the nation's headlines like McCovey but who are handling themselves like tested veterans as the White Sox battle to hold their American league lead.

McCovey, the wondrous rookie first-baseman called up last week, drove in three runs with a pair of homers to lead the Giants to a 4-1 victory over the Milwaukee Braves while Latman and McNaney combined their talents in the White Sox' 2-0 win over the Baltimore Orioles. The White Sox dropped the second game of a two-night doubleheader, 7-1, but lost no ground because the second-place Cleveland Indians also split a twin-nighter.

Senators Finally Win
The Indians won their opener, 7-3, but then the Washington Senators broke an 18-game losing streak with a 9-0 triumph, the New York Yankees shut out the Detroit Tigers, 3-0, and the Boston Red Sox crushed the Kansas City A's, 17-5, in the other AL games.

The Los Angeles Dodgers went back into second place a half game behind San Francisco by beating the Cincinnati Reds, 6-3, the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-0, and the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Chicago Cubs, 6-4, in other NL activity.

Jack Sanford struck out eight and yielded eight hits in winning his 10th game for the Giants who tied, 1-1, with the Braves until the eighth when Willie Mays doubled home the tie-breaking run and McCovey followed with his second homer of the game.

Latman struck out six and pitched a three-hitter to beat Jack Fisher in the first game at Baltimore. McNaney drove in the White Sox' first run in the second inning and scored the other after leading off the fifth inning with a bunt single. The White Sox' usually brilliant defense collapsed for five errors behind Early Wynn in the nightcap.

Jim Grant beat the Senators for the 10th straight time in his career when the Indians staged a six-run rally in the seventh. The Senators came back behind Tex Clevenger's seven-hitter and Harmon Killebrew's 34th homer to snap the 18-game streak in the nightcap.

Bobby Shantz pitched a five-hitter and Mickey Mantle hit a two-run homer as the Yankees turned the tables on Tom Mossi. Gary Geiger and Frank Malzone drove in a total of 11 runs as the Red Sox pummeled the A's.

Duke Snider, making a fine comeback for Los Angeles, drove in three runs with two homers and a single and Johnny Podres pitched a four-hitter for his ninth triumph.

Rookie Ernie Broglio pitched a four-hitter and Don Blasingame had three hits for the Cardinals who dealt Pittsburgh's Bob Friend his 14th defeat while Gene Conley picked up his 10th win, despite homers by Chicago's Ernie Banks and Sam Taylor, when the Phillies strung together four singles and a walk for two ninth-inning runs.

Washington—(UPI)—Second baseman Billy Martin, who suffered a fractured cheekbone and a broken jaw when struck by a pitch in Wednesday night's game against the Washington Senators, was lost to the Cleveland Indians for at least a month today.

Martin needs "extensive repairs," according to Dr. George A. Resta, Senators' team physician who is treating Martin at Georgetown hospital.

The scrappy second baseman was injured as leadoff batter in the first inning of the second game of Wednesday night's twin bill. With a count of two strikes and one ball Martin was hit in the face by a fast ball served up by Senators' right-hander Tex Clevenger.

Staters Drilled By Spiegelberg
Portland—(UPI)—A full-scale scrimmage was held Wednesday morning by the Metropolitan all-star football squad and a light scrimmage in the afternoon as head coach Tom DeSylvia of Jefferson prepared his gridders for the August 15th Shrimers hospital all-star football game.

State coach Fred Spiegelberg of Medford had his squad go through blocking and individual defensive work for the linemen and some dummy signal drills for the backs in the morning.

A full scrimmage for the state squad will probably not come until Saturday, Spiegelberg said.

Rookies Spur Giants, Chisox; San Francisco in Front Again

Willie McCovey did it again for the Giants—but don't overlook the pair of rookies who are helping the White Sox' pennant drive.

Clark, Wise Tip Kegling Star In Exhibitions at Medford Lanes Festivity

Andy Varipapa, Hall of Fame bowler and former national champion averaged 218 plus for six games Wednesday in matches which highlighted the open house at Medford Bowling lanes.

The grand opening marked the expansion of the establishment to a spacious 38 alley, making it the largest pin emporium in Oregon or Washington.

The gallery was jam-packed in the evening for Varipapa's clinic and three of the exhibition matches and three contests in the afternoon also draw large turnout of bowlers and fans.

After dropping a game 199 to 221 to Ray Wise Varipapa won 227 to 181 over Berle Stephens and 223 to 170 over Charles McWhorter. The Brunswick advisory staff bowler had 649 for the three games and 216 average. In the afternoon he had a 663 three-game total for 221 per match. He outrolled Harry Frye 227 to 165 and Bill Luman 221 to 187 and dropped a 221 to 215 decision to Ken Clark.

Yrekanos Win
Competition among men's and women's teams of Medford, Klamath Falls, Grants Pass, Ashland and Yreka, Calif. Yreka Coca Cola took men's honors with 2952 including handicap and a Medford team of Lois Leaming, Claudia Lowd, Rosella Phipps, Helene Culy and Mable Clark took ladies top laurels with 2796. There were four teams each of men and women of Medford and one team each of men and women from the other cities.

On the Yreka men's crew were Paul Johnson, Wally Biegler, Bob Carlson, Floyd Manning and Frank Paoli. Medford's combination of Ker Clark, Jim Paul, Dick Westerfield, Bud Fisher and Roger Weiss was second with 2932 and the Medford crew of Bob Dyer, Don Hunter, Walt Daigle, George Allen, and Dick McKenzie rolled 2859 for third.

Grants Pass was second among the women with 2766 and Klamath Falls placed third with 2737.

McWhorter carded 243 scratch for high game of the festive occasion and Daigle had top series of 627 which included games of 225 and 211. Jean Rodgers, Klamath, had high scratch series for women with 586. She also had high game with 217 and was followed closely by Mable Clark with 216. Elsie Baker, Medford, and Bonnie Forney, Ashland, had 212 counts.

The huge bowling layout now has a lunch facility which will seat 68 patrons. It is at the rear of the lanes which front on Riverside ave. at Edwards street. Next to the lunch area is a large nursery room. Counter in the old lunch section will be taken out to make way for a bowling equipment sales room.

Duke Snider In Stride
By ALEX KAHN
Los Angeles—(UPI)—The word was spreading through the National league today that Duke Snider again was busting down fences.

The Duke, enjoying his best season since the Dodgers left Ebbets field for Los Angeles, hit a pair of mighty homers Wednesday night to run his season total to 16, one more than last year. He also drove in three runs to complete his total in that department to 61, three more than all of last year.

The Dodgers scored their 6-3 victory over Cincinnati thanks mainly to Snider, who now has a 10-game hitting streak and who has hit safely two or more times in the last six games. Both of Wednesday's four baggers were over the distant right field fence, about 360 feet from the plate, and both came with the bases empty.

But Snider's other hit was in the third inning when he drove in a run and scored himself when Norm Larker's single sent two runners home. "I've been hitting the ball on the nose and it just drops in," Snider said. "My knee feels better and when it doesn't ache, I seem to hit better."

The knee to which Snider refers is the one he had operated on after the 1957 season.

Semi-Pros Vie Friday Night

Camp White—Camp White and Medford Bowling lanes baseball teams of the Rogue Valley league will meet in a non-league tussle on Friday evening at Memorial stadium. Game time is 8 p.m. Manager Bob Smith said that Jack Turk probably will pitch for the White Sox.

Big Gasser Starts on Saturday

Burning rubber, roar of powerful unmodified engines, and torrid speeds will be the order of the day at this week end's drag races at the Camp White strip.

The two-day meet sponsored by Southern Oregon Timing association has been termed "The Big Gasser" signifying emphasis on the popular gas coupe and sedan classes.

Several hundred dollars worth of trophies, bonds, and cash prizes will be presented to the winners after the final round of the meet Sunday afternoon.

Action commences Saturday at 1 p.m. with time trials. Time trials continue Sunday morning at 9 a.m. and the eliminations will be staged in the afternoon. Deadline for local entries is 11:30 a.m. Sunday.

A special class, designated as "modified," has been added to the gas division for all cars with hopped-up engines that are not overhead valve V-8's. Typical entries will include all Ford flatheads and Chevrolet sixes.

Entries competing in this class will be required to conform to the rules of the other gas classes. This includes 360 degree safety shields surrounding the bell housings of the vehicle.

Facts Will Be Told To IWL
Facts on stream flows and water temperature that would result from a Lost creek dam on Rogue river as suggested by the Corps of Engineers will be presented at a meeting of the Jackson County chapter of the Isaac Walton league at 8 p.m. on Monday, Aug. 10.

The meeting will be at Medford Gun club. Chapter President Earl Knight said that it is believed the facts will show why the U.S. fish and wildlife service fears that a Lost creek dam might do away with Rogue fish runs. He said that the streamflow and water temperature figures were calculated by Army engineers and suggested that those interested hear the figures and draw their own conclusions.

Knight said his organization is seeking aid in formulating plans to get the Lost creek dam with operation which will improve the fishery instead of destroying it. He said this involves getting Congress to furnish a small amount of additional funds and granting two more years for studies. Knight added that it is believed that Congress would not furnish funds for the dams as now proposed by Army engineers.

Fifteen Clubs Called in Suit
Portland, Ore.—(UPI)—Fifteen major league baseball teams have been summoned to appear in federal court here to answer an anti-trust suit filed a week ago by the Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast league.

Portland team officials said the New York Yankees were not included because they "are not a corporation" as are the 15 other major league clubs.

A United States marshal mailed the summonses Wednesday. The defendants have 20 days in which to file answers, which may be in the form of motions to squash the suit.

The suit asks damages totaling $1,800,000 from the major leagues, and that the majors "monopoly" on television and players be broken up.

Duden Triumphant In Northwest Open

Salem—(UPI)—Professional Ron Caperna, Medford, shot a 75 and a 72 Wednesday in the wind-up 36 holes of the Northwest Open Golf championships for a three-day total of 293. Monday and Tuesday he had a 72 and a 74.

Two others tied at 293 and 32nd place. They were Jim Bourne of Seattle and Ed Oldfield, Astoria.

Salem—(UPI)—Oswego's Bob Duden won his first Northwest Open Golf title here Wednesday as he blazed through the 36-hole finale in 66-69 for a total of 275, five-under-par. He shot 70 both days of the Monday and Tuesday 18-hole rounds.

Chuck Congdon, Tacoma, Wash., Tuesday's pace-setter, blew the lead Wednesday morning with a 76. He went all out in the afternoon for a 66 and second-place 278.

Cliff White, Twin Falls, Idaho, carded a pair of 70's for 279 and third spot. Tom Marlowe, Portland, had 280 and was fourth.

Kelso's Ron Weber finished with 281 and two golfers, Don Bies of Seattle and Bob Prall of Salem, tied for sixth with 282. Weber, Prall and Tacoma's Chuck Hunter were the only amateurs that finished in the amateurs.

Duden, who won the Oregon Open title about two months ago in Portland, and Marlowe were tied with four holes to play, Marlowe bogied three holes, consecutively and parred the 18th while Duden parred the same holes and birdied the 18th.

Don Taylor, 1958 champion from Seattle, ended with 294. Those after Bies and Prall that finished in the money included: Harold West, Longview, 68-74-75-66—283; Sid Harman, Yakima, 72-67-71-74—284; Bob McKendrick, Oswego, 69-71-72-75—285; Jim Russell, Walla Walla, 68-72-74-71—285; Eddie Hogan, Portland, 66-74-73-74—287; Harry Umbinetti, North Bend, Wash., 72-70-72-74—288; George Bruno, San Jose, Calif., 70-71-72-75—288; Chuck Hunter, Tacoma, 74-72-71-72—289; Ockie Eliason, Tacoma, 69-73-77-70—289; Bill Eggers, Portland, 71-71-75-72—289; and Boots Porterfield, Grants Pass, 71-73-75-71—289.

Construction Begun on Olympic Games Data Processing Center
Squaw Valley, Lake Tahoe—Construction has begun on the Olympic data processing center, the building that will house International Business Machines corporation RAMAC 305 computer during the VIII Olympic Winter Games at Squaw Valley, Feb. 18-28, 1960.

After the games the building, along with all the other Olympic facilities, will be turned over to the California state park commission.

The Olympic data processing center will be the informational center of activity during the Games. The IBM RAMAC will process scores of all events as they progress and provide instantaneous results for spectators and all news-gathering media at Squaw Valley and throughout the world.

Processed in Minutes
Use of RAMAC will mark the first time in Olympic history that information will be processed and disseminated in minutes rather than hours. Two minutes after an event is over, preliminary results will be available. At the same time, the RAMAC will be producing teletype tape for use on a special circuit to various international press headquarters.

120 IN TOURNEY
Portland—(UPI)—Milton Woodard of Chicago, Illinois, executive vice president of the Western Golf association, said Wednesday that there will be 120 starters in the western amateur golf championships which open here Monday at the Waverly Country club course.

Four boats qualified Wednesday to join seven who made the grade when the Lake Washington course opened Tuesday. So far none of the qualifiers has been under an average of 100 miles per hour.

An average of 95 miles an hour over three laps of the three-mile course qualifies a boat for the Gold Cup.
