Picnic Sunday - Crater Lake chapter of the Oregon State Employees association will hold its annual picnic on Sunday, Aug. 9, in the forest camp behind the service station at Union Creek. Potluck dinner will be at noon. All OSEA members are invited.

Tire, Wheel Taken - Harold Richard Kline, 539 Effie st., informed Medford police Thursday that a spare tire and wheel worth $20 were taken from his car during the past week while the vehicle was parked at the Timber Products company gang mill lot off McAndrews rd.

C. M. Coleman Dies in Local Hospital Aug. 6

Clifford M. (Pappy) Coleman, 63, of 867 Swing lane, died last night at a local hospital. He was born Aug. 18, 1895, in Hastings, England. Mr. Coleman, a well-known television personality in the valley, was an ardent fisherman and sportsman. His "Pappy Coleman show" has appeared on television the past six years.

When he was 13 he moved from England to Canada with his parents and served with the Canadian army during World War I. He came to the United States when he was 19 and was employed by the United States government to sell Liberty bonds.

In 1946, he moved to Grants Pass where he owned and operated the Motel Deluxe. He was a charter member of the Rogue Rod and Gun club, Grants Pass, and a member of the Medford Elks lodge.

On June 22, 1936, at Yuma, Ariz., he married Pat Fore. Survivors besides his wife are two sons, John, Los Angeles, and Stuart, Hawaii; two brothers, Fred, Inglewood, Calif., and Leslie, Shafter, Calif.; two sisters Mrs. Jerry Vance, Van Nuys, Calif., and Mrs. Ralph Eagle, Shafter, Calif.; and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Monday at Conger-Morris Funeral home with the Rev. G. R. Jacks of First Presbyterian church officiating. Cremation will be private in Siskiyou crematorium.

Vehicles Collide - Vehicles operated by Richard Allen Vandehey, Eugene, and Alice Hancock, route 3, box 62, collided at Fourth and Central ave. early this morning, Medford police reported. Police said no citations were issued.

Vehicles Collide - Vehicles operated by Larry Leroy Eskew, route 1, box 545, Gold Hill, and Clifford Henry Baldwin, 38 Hawthorne ave., collided Thursday on North Pacific highway at Mace rd., Medford police reported. No citations were issued, police said.

Driver Cited - Russell Bruce Jackson, 885 Gilman rd., was cited for failing to stop at a stop light and for having no operator's license Thursday following a collision between his vehicle and one operated by Mary Elizabeth Friermood, 722 Oak st., Medford police reported.

Vehicles Collide - Vehicles operated by Jennings D. Pierce, 34 North Central ave., and Marie Weaver Small, 6283 Table Rock rd., received minor damage in a collision Thursday on North Riverside ave. between McAndrews rd. and Madrona st., Medford police reported.

Names Recorded - The assumed business name "East-side Electric" was recorded in the county clerk's office Aug. 5 by Richard H. and Barbara Jeanne Gallagher, 180 East Main st., Ashland. Neal V. and Ann B. Preston retired the assumed business name "South Side Market" and the name was recorded by Winfield F. Farmer, 1602 Highway 66, Ashland.

New Mexico Man Sentenced Today In Circuit Court

Raney Ray Newcomb, Hobbs, N. Mex., arrested by city police on July 7 in connection with more than a dozen burglaries and attempted burglaries, was sentenced today to not more than four years in the Oregon state penitentiary by Circuit Court Judge James Main.
Newcomb's alleged partner in the burglaries, Cecil Harvel Allen, ex-Hobbs, N. Mex., policeman, entered a plea of guilty and requested a presentencing investigation. He is being held in the county jail.
The pair were charged specifically with the burglary of the Coca Cola Bottling company in Medford on June 23, during which $1,162.42 was taken from a wall safe.
Police obtained a statement from the men at the time of their arrest, in which they admitted taking part in four burglaries in Klamath Falls, two in Grants Pass, and eight in the local area. On most of their burglary attempts, they got no money.

Case Against Bodi Goes to Jury Today

Corvallis-(UPI)-The case for and against Wayne Bodi, 20-year-old carpenter accused in the death of a four-month-old girl, was expected to go to the jury today. He is charged with involuntary manslaughter.
Bodi is charged with having fatally struck Peggy Susan Smith, daughter of Clara Smith.
The defense contended the child's death was caused by a series of falls.

Main Stocks Ease Slightly on Market

New York-(UPI)-The main body of stocks eased slightly on average today while the electronics issues and a few other glamor stocks were driven down 2 to 11 points at their lows.
Texas Instruments was knocked down 11 points before it met meager support. International Business Machines lost 6 and Litton Industries more than 6 at the worst. Ampex, Cessna Aircraft and Zenith fell 2 or more.
In the industrial department among the issues used to calculate the average, changes were small for the most part. Exceptions included Allied Chemical which made a new high on a rise of more than a point. Eastman Kodak was off more than 2, and Owens Illinois Glass up more than a point.
U.S. Steel and DuPont lost a point.
Richfield Oil rose more than a point in an otherwise easier oil section. Boeing set a new low in the aircrafts.

Valley Woman Hurt In Chiloquin Crash

Klamath Falls - Mrs. John Elstead, Scenic ave., Central Point, was in critical condition today after suffering two broken legs and a broken arm in a two-car crash near Chiloquin.
Mrs. Elstead was a passenger in a car driven by her daughter, Mrs. Sam Benton. Mr. and Mrs. Benton arrived in Central Point yesterday morning for a visit when they learned that their home had been destroyed by fire earlier in the day.
The Bentons and Mrs. Elstead were en route to the Benton home, according to Mrs. Richard Kline, Central Point, another daughter of the injured woman. Mrs. Benton was reported to have suffered shock in the accident and her husband was treated and released.

Ross Lumber Firm Submits High Bid

Ross Lumber company submitted the highest of seven bids for an estimated 1,960,000 board feet of timber on the Rogue River National forest near Imnaha guard station.
Howard Hopkins, timber management officer for the forest, said that the Ross firm offered $100,445. Sealed bids were opened this morning.
Ross offered $61.30 per thousand board feet on Douglas fir and pine which make up about 80 per cent of the volume and $30 per thousand on white fir and other species.
Little road work is required, Hopkins reported.
