Portland - (UPI) - Oregon State will get six members of the Metro all-star football team from the 12th annual Shriners' game while three are headed for the University of Oregon. The Metro team meets the State team here Aug. 15.

Three linemen and three backs are planning to enroll at OSC while a trio of linemen are headed for Oregon. Backs Terry Baker of Jefferson, Bill Barnum of Oswego and Bill Beech of Madison; and linemen Bill Candee of Washington, Dennis Prozinski of Jefferson and John Thies of Oregon, plan to enroll at OSC.

However, Baker, a three-sport star, has indicated he may not play football in college.

Oregon will get Steve Pauly of Beaverton, who also is a star track and basketball player, and Karl Barrett of David Douglas and Chuck Starr of West Linn.

Other Metro players and the schools they plan to attend include:

- Don Knight, Roosevelt quarter-back; and Larry Valberg, Sandy halfback, Washington State.
  - Lynn Hewitt, Franklin end, Washington.
  - Mike Gedrose, Cleveland tackle; Terry Keller, West Linn half; and Jake Jackson, Lincoln fullback, Lewis and Clark.
  - Al Papworth, Roosevelt tackle; Brigham Young.
  - Jiggs Burnett, Beaverton half; Wilmette.
  - Bob Betsell, Estacada half; Linnfield.
  - Carl Conley, Canby center; Handy Matzek, Forest Grove tackle; and Bob Peacock, West Linn end, Portland State.
  - Pat Woods, Oregon City guard, Clark J.C.
- Five players on the Metro team were undecided. They are Gary Austin, David Douglas tackle; Mickey Herget, Jefferson back; Lyle Mulkins, Madison center; Mike O'Hearn, Roosevelt end; and Norm Purkeypile, Gresham end.

Pin Lanes Travels in RV League

Rogue Valley Baseball League activity this Sunday has been cut to two games. Medford will play at Glendale and Butte Falls at Grants Pass. A non-league game this evening will take the Medford Bowling lanes team to Camp White. Game time is 8 p.m. Sunday frays will be at 1:30 p.m.

The Sunday slate was cut down because of the participation of Ashland and Riddle over the week end in the National Baseball congress Oregon State tournament at Drain. Riddle was to have played Grants Pass and Butte Falls; was to have gone to Ashland, according to the regular schedule. Those two games may be made up on Aug. 3.

The Riddle-Butte Falls game billed for last Sunday was not played because of a misunderstanding of several Butte Falls players about arrangements. The players did not appear for the game because they understood a night game was to be played at some other date and Butte Falls did not have enough players for a team.

Bears Recover To Boost Edge

United Press International Yakima nearly got smothered in a home run barrage Thursday night but survived for a 6-4 Northwest league victory over Salem that increased its league lead to a game and a half.

Roger Clapp was in control most of the way but bumped into rough going in the Salem seventh when Joe Wilson and Don Gaffney hit solo homers and Bailey Brem hit a two-run homer.

Walt O'Neil of Yakima drove in two runs and Herm Lewis hit safely three times while Ron Liptak belted out a double and a triple and scored twice.

Lewiston took Tri-City 11-5 in the only other game played. Bob Rous did most of the damage with a pair of two-run homers and Ron Wilkins hit a solo homer in the second. Dennis Job picked up the victory and now stands 5-4. Eugene entertained Phoenix of the Coast league and dropped a 4-1 loss as Phoenix got all of its runs via the unearned route.

GUN CLUB OPEN There will be shooting activity Sunday at Medford Gun club. Traps will be open at 9:30 a.m. Traps will be closed on Aug. 16 because of a shoot at Klamath Falls.

Contention for All Classes In Big Gasser Drag Races

Rivalry is planned in all classifications Saturday and Sunday in the Big Gasser drag races of Southern Oregon Timing association at the Camp White strip.

But the emphasis will be on the gas coup and sedan classes. In these classifications are passenger coupes or sedans which can be licensed and driven on public highways. A 30-inch trophy will go to the top eliminator driver for these classes. Other gas class winners will receive trophies and will get cash if they can gun their cars at speeds in excess of 100 miles per hour over the one-fourth mile.

Deadline for local entrants is 11:30 p.m. Sunday. Time trials begin at 1 p.m. Saturday and will resume at 9 a.m. on Sunday. Eliminations will be on Sunday afternoon.

Special Prize Contestants coming from distances of more than 300 miles will be eligible for a special prize of $10 if they turn speeds in excess of 95 mph and $20 if they get up to 105 mph or better.

Interest continues to rise in the prize for breaking the strip record of 144.46 for the one-fourth mile from a standing start. A $150 savings bond is now offered to the driver who shatters the mark.

Awards will include trophies for top overall eliminator, little eliminator and top time of the day.

The concessions stand will be operated by Medford Lions club each day. Persons seeking direction to the meet are advised to follow the signs from the highway Y in the north part of Medford.

Medford Wildcats and Ashland Cubs grabbed their final games of the regular schedule yesterday to wind up in a tie for the championship of the Pee Wee southern division of the Southern Oregon Junior Baseball league.

The 'Cats barely got by the Central Point Braves 6 to 5 while the Cubs polished off the Ashland Bears 15 to 6.

Medford Tigers trimmed the Central Point Indians 3 to 0 in the other loop conclusion. This outcome tied the Tigers, Indians and Eagle Point for third place.

The Wildcats had a 5 to 1 gap after 2½ innings of play. Their run in the fourth inning made the difference as the Braves threatened to catch up in one of their best games of the year. The Medford team was allowed the benefit of four outs in the fourth. This concession was granted by CP when misinformation from an umpire on the number of outs crossed up the Wildcat strategy.

Seven Run Innings Naumes doubled and Brown singled for Medford. For the Braves Frank Armstrong hit a two-bagger and Kelly Champ and Jody Van Horn each safetied.

The Cubs picked up seven of their runs in the first inning on four hits, two errors and two more fielders' options. Clyde Nelson, Roger Pierson, Roger Schmaltz, Jan Sussee and Bob Johnson each had two hits for the Cubs.

Medford Tigers' only hit was by Jim Cox in the first inning. They combined it with three errors for all three runs. Ray White and Glen Watson got hits for the Indians. Gary Frohreich of the Indians struck out three in a one-hitter and Mark Kinney

Four young players were deadlocked at 69, two strokes off the pace. They included Buddy Cook, Boca Raton, Fla., Bert Weaver, Dallas, Tex., Don Whitt, Borrego Springs, Calif., and Tom Niporte, Bronxville, N.Y.

Ollie Has Confidence In Ability

Redlands, Calif. - (UPI) - Ollie Matson, with seven seasons behind him in the National Pro Football league, has his first chance this year to operate with a first class club and he may make gridiron history.

The 29-year-old San Francisco athlete, traded to the Los Angeles Rams by the Chicago Cardinals for three-quarters of a football team, has a quiet confidence about his own ability and he's impressed with his new teammates.

In training with the Rams here, Matson had nothing to say against the Cardinals but it was obvious he was happy to be away from the rag-tail last-place club.

Looking Forward "The Cardinals were a fine bunch of fellows," he said. Then he added with obvious relish, "this is a fine team—the Rams. I'm looking forward to my best season."

Matson, who was a hero to Northern California fans when he played for the University of San Francisco, was not bothered about the prospect of appearing in what San Franciscans look on as an enemy camp—Los Angeles.

A fullback for all of his career, Matson may find himself called on for work at other backfield positions with the Rams who were tied for second in the western division of the National league last season and hope he can help win them a championship.

"I'm really learning three positions with the Rams," he said, "fullback, halfback and flanker back."

The promoters are Sam Silverman and Johnny Buckley of Boston.

Sleek, slender Robinson—who signed Thursday night to defend against the Brookline, Mass., contender—said, "I'm still recognized as champion in New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Cuba, and continental Europe."

Hopes To Extend Title He added, "and next year I hope to regain recognition everywhere."

Robinson's defense against 29-year-old Paret will be his first since he recaptured the 160-pound title from Carmen Basilio at the Chicago Stadium, March 2, 1958.

Because of his inactivity, the National Boxing Assn. vacated his title on May 4. Ex-champions Basilio of Chittenden, N.Y., and Gene Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, are scheduled to fight for the NBA version of the title at San Francisco, Aug. 28.

Reed Returns To Portlanders Portland - (UPI) - Howie Reed, Portland's top pitcher before being called up by the Kansas City Athletics, has been returned to the Beavers.

Bill Sayles, Portland assistant general manager, said Reed is to report to Portland immediately.

The sturdy 195-pound right-hander compiled a 7-4 record with Portland before being called up by the Athletics early this year.

Rosensohn Confers In Paris With Ingy

Paris - (UPI) - Mysterious Bill Rosensohn plans to fly back to New York Saturday and announce to the press whatever secret coup d'etat he attempted in Paris to save his crumbling promotion of the return Ingemar Johansson-Floyd Patterson title fight.

The boxing world was startled Thursday at news that champion Johansson, Rosen-sohn and Truman Gibson of the Jim Norris boxing interests had suddenly arrived in Paris.

Rosensohn said today, "yes, I conferred with Johansson and his advisor, Edwin Ahlqvist, about the situation. But we didn't arrive at a definite site or date for the fight."

Previously the return bout had been scheduled tentatively for New York's Yankee stadium, Sept. 22. That was before Rosensohn split with his promotional associates and made charges that started investigations by the New York district attorney's office and the New York Boxing commission.

When asked if the Johansson conference had been attended by Gibson—president of Norris' rival "Boxing Enterprises Inc." of Chicago—Rosensohn replied, "I don't care to comment."

Gibson explained the coincidence of his presence in Paris like this: "My wife and I came to Paris merely to visit with our daughter who is going to school here."

By another strange coincidence, Jack Solomons—London promoter and warm friend of Jim Norris—also happened to be in Paris. Solomons admitted he had chatted briefly with Johansson and Rosensohn.

Ortega Faces Paret Tonight New York - (UPI) - Welterweight contender Gaspar Ortega meets a lusty substitute tonight in a TV 10-rounder with Cuban Benny (Kid) Paret at Madison Square Garden.

Although Paret is unranked his speed and skill are so highly regarded that wagering on the bout is at "even money."

Mexican Ortega is only 23, but he is struggling to get back up among the top-rankers, after losing two of his four bouts this year. The lanky Indian from Mexico is rated sixth by the NBA and ninth by Ring magazine.
