Local and Personal

Theft Tried — Ronald John Tepovac, 216½ North Peach st., informed Medford police some one Friday morning had attempted to remove a tire and wheel from his car while the vehicle was parked at that address.

Drunk Charge — Oliver Francis Smeltz, 22, of 1049 Ingrid st., was arrested early Saturday morning on a charge of drunk in public after a neighbor reported a loud boisterous party at that address, Medford police reported.

Smoke Nuisance — William Doernbach, 143 Mace rd., informed Medford police Friday night that heavy smoke from burning sawdust was creating a nuisance in the area around his residence. The investigating patrolman reported the smoke was coming from a waste wood burning site between the Southern Pacific railroad tracks and Sage rd., outside the city limits.

Fire — A kitchen fire at Bateman's Cafe, 2392 North Pacific highway, damaged a hood vent and the roof of the building on Saturday afternoon, the Medford fire department reported.

Dog Hurt — Sharon Marie Whisenant, 625 Wabash st., informed Medford police Friday that her dog had been wounded by a bullet. Police reported the dog was transported to a veterinarian, who said he could find no bullet hole and thought the dog may have been kicked.

Vehicles Collide — A state-owned car operated by Mary Patricia Lucy, 1273 South Columbus ave., and a truck operated by Roy Lee Plumlee, 815 Cedar st., collided Friday on West Main st. at Grape st. Medford police reported. Police said no citations were issued.

Hit and Run — Esther Wimmer Newcomb, route 1, box 425, Talent, informed Medford police a hit-and-run vehicle had struck and damaged her station wagon Friday while her vehicle was parked on East Ninth st. between South Bartlett st. and South Central ave.

Driver Cited — Stella Natalie Romine, 333 Edwards st., was cited for failure to obey a red light Friday following a collision between her vehicle and one operated by Max Delbert Burton, route 1, box 262, Central Point, at Third and Bartlett sts., Medford police reported.

Shoplifter Caught — A 14-year-old Medford youth Friday admitted taking an 88-cent smoking pipe from Van Lee's Super 88-Cents store, 127 North Central ave., Medford police reported. Police said the boy was released to his parents pending action by juvenile authorities.

Boxer Hurt — A male boxer owned by Marjory Swint, of Medford Plaza apartments, suffered broken front legs and facial cuts Friday when struck by a car operated by Homer Thomas Lamb, 444 Manzanita st., Central Point, on Chestnut st., between Eighth and 11th sts., Medford police reported. Police said no citation was issued.

Accident — A rear-end collision occurred Saturday afternoon at the intersection of Table Rock rd. and Airport rd., state police reported, and Timothy E. Prom, 16, route 1, box 530, was advised that a complaint would be filed against him for violation of the basic rule. Driver of the other car was John H. Inlow, 874 Lawndale ave., Medford.

Contest — Mrs. Eileen Mole, window decorator for Burelson's Ladies Ready-to-Wear, received honorable mention in a nation-wide contest sponsored by Juliette Marglen nail polish manufacturers. She won an assortment of cosmetics for her display of the polish with matching women's clothing.

ALPS FATALITIES — Frankfurt, Germany — (UPI) — More than 60 persons lost their lives in climbing accidents in the German and Austrian Alps during the first three and one-half months of this year, a survey showed Saturday. The figure was slightly down from last year.

Josephine Swayne Dies in Medford

Josephine S h a r a Swayne, 56, of 32 Mistletoe st., Medford, died Friday morning. She was born Jan. 6, 1903, in the Applegate valley, the daughter of Patrick F. and Barbara Swayne, both of whom preceded her in death.

She was active in the Chin-Up club. Miss Swayne had been handicapped from polio since 1909. She participated in many civic affairs.

Miss Swayne operated the Nurses Registry from March 17, 1943, until her death, and also took calls for Mercy Flights, Inc. At one time she was secretary of the Medford Safety Council, and operated a clipping service for the Red Cross, Safety Council and the Council for Aging here. She was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic church.

Survivors include four sisters, Jeanne L. and Hazel K. Swayne, Medford; Mrs. Hugh F. Barron, Ashland; and one nephew, Edwin H. Barron, Columbia, Mo.

Rosary will be read at Perl Funeral home at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Aug. 10. Requiem Mass will be read at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday with the Rev. William McLeod. Interment will be in Jacksonville cemetery.

Bakery Customer Takes Wrong Bag

A hasty pastry customer at the East Side market, 608 East Main st., took a bakery bag containing $70.18 as well as her own purchases Friday morning, Medford police reported.

The woman, who was not identified, returned the bag with the money later in the day after she had discovered her mistake, police said.

The money, destined for the bank, had been placed in a white pastry sack similar to those used for bakery purchases and placed on a table near the cash register, according to the report.

Hail Report Change Told

Persons reporting hail in the local fruit growers' hail research program, are asked to make their reports to Harry Spintig during their next two weeks.

Judd Parsons, the hail study coordinator, is on two weeks of active military duty, and Spintig will receive the reports while Parsons is gone.

Spintig can be reached at SPRing 2-9029 or SPRing 3-1060.
